The Year of Spirit

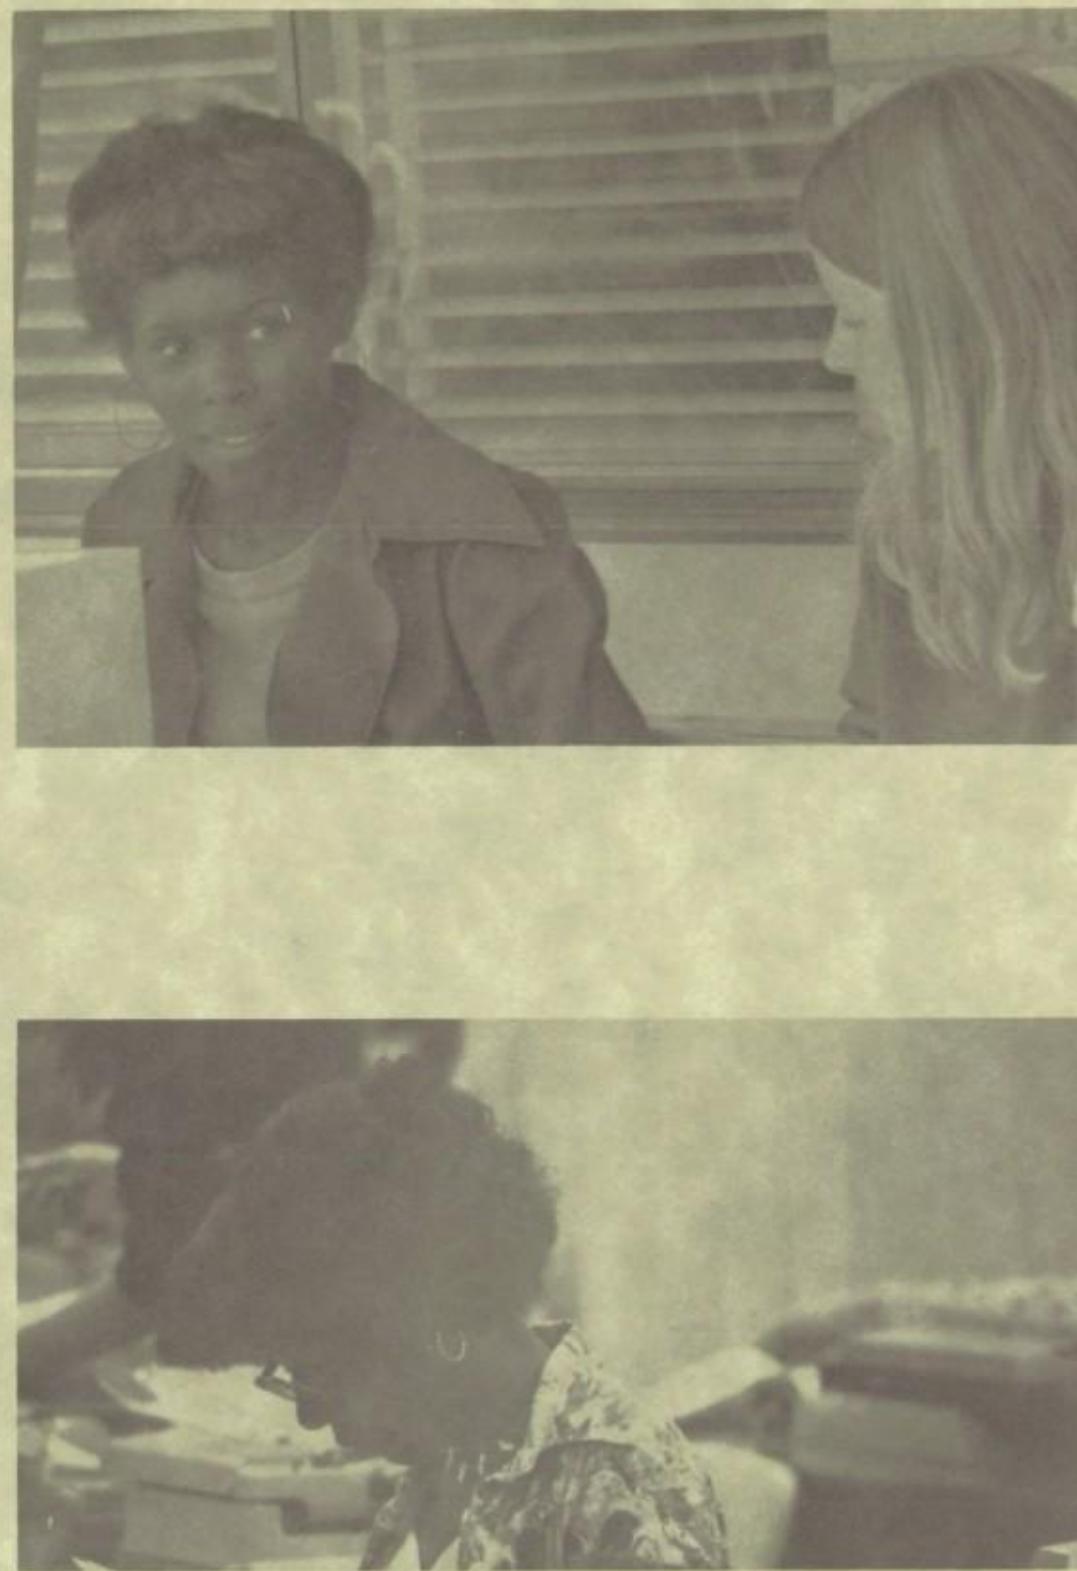

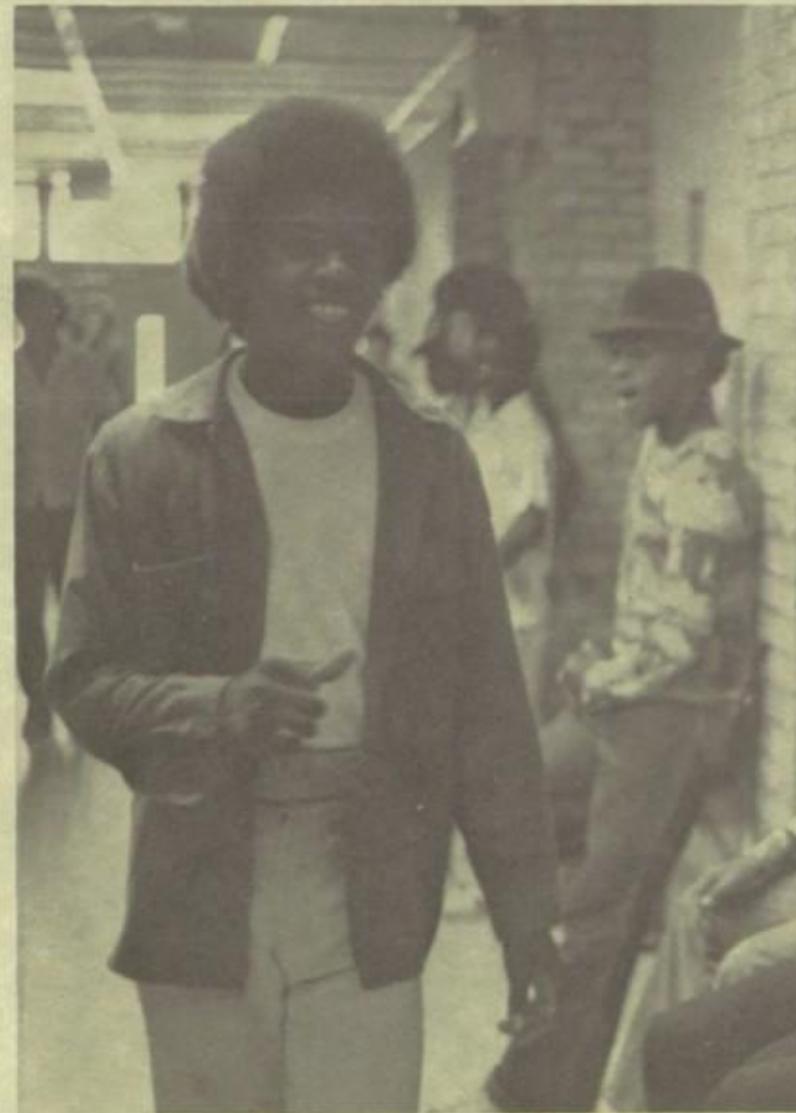

1976

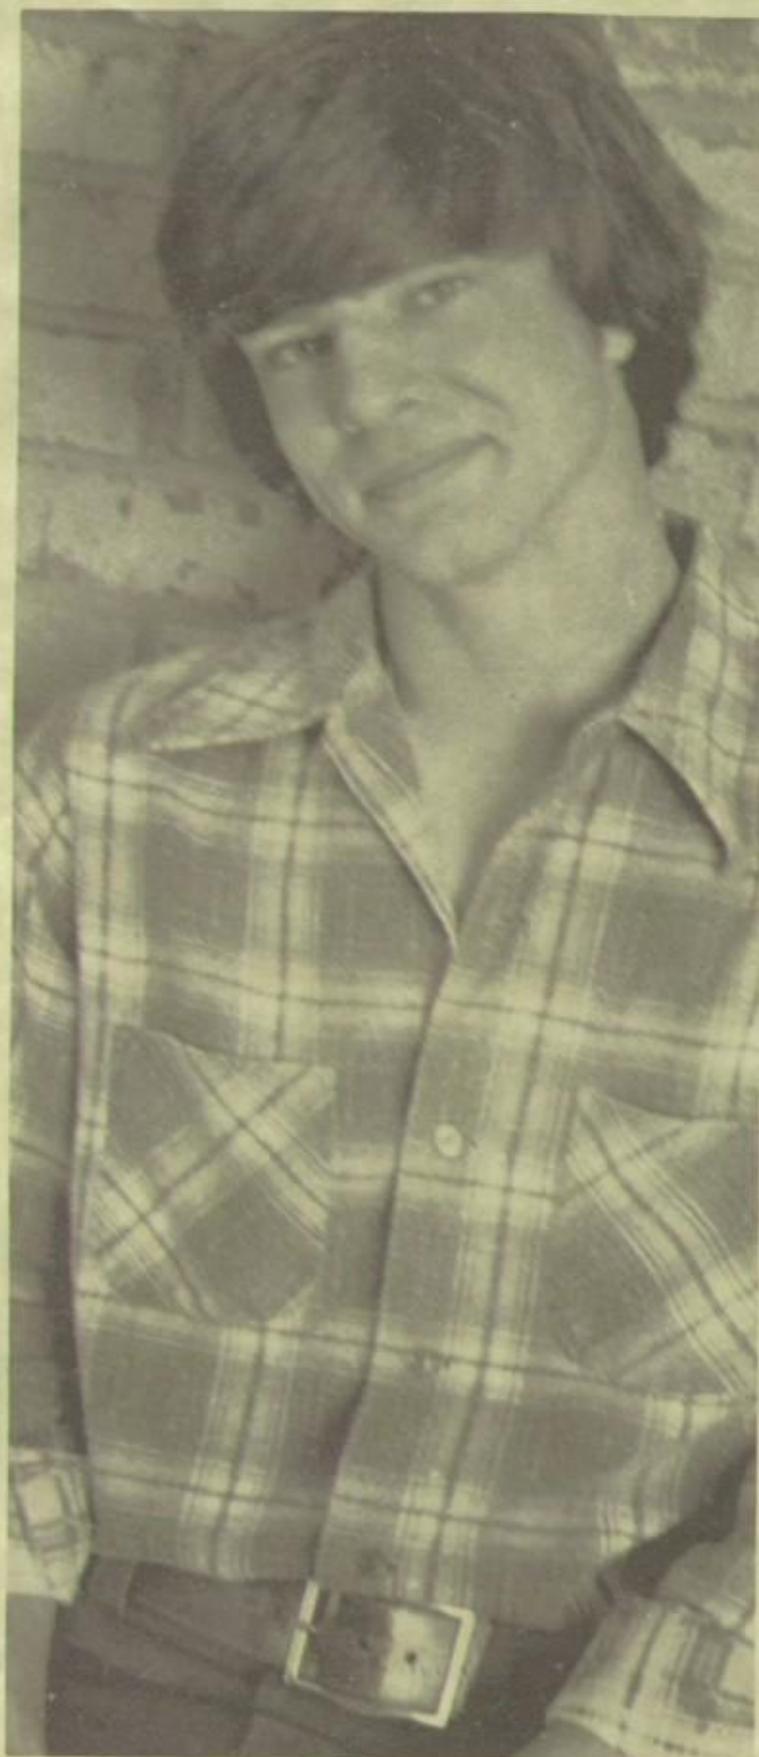

The year 1976 was the year "School Spirit" manifested itself at Eastern Wayne in its most potent forms, largest quantities, and highest qualities. The many facets of school spirit were exemplified by E. W. students in support of their athletic teams, participation in fund-raising projects, grades, and a variety of other activities.

In years hence, when we reminisce of bygone days, the year "76" will be remembered with special fondness. More than just another year, it was the year of Spirit - A celebration of two-hundred years growth and accomplishment since the humble beginnings of our nation. Founded on shaky grounds amidst the throes of turmoil and war, our nation - a mere dream - flourished and grew.

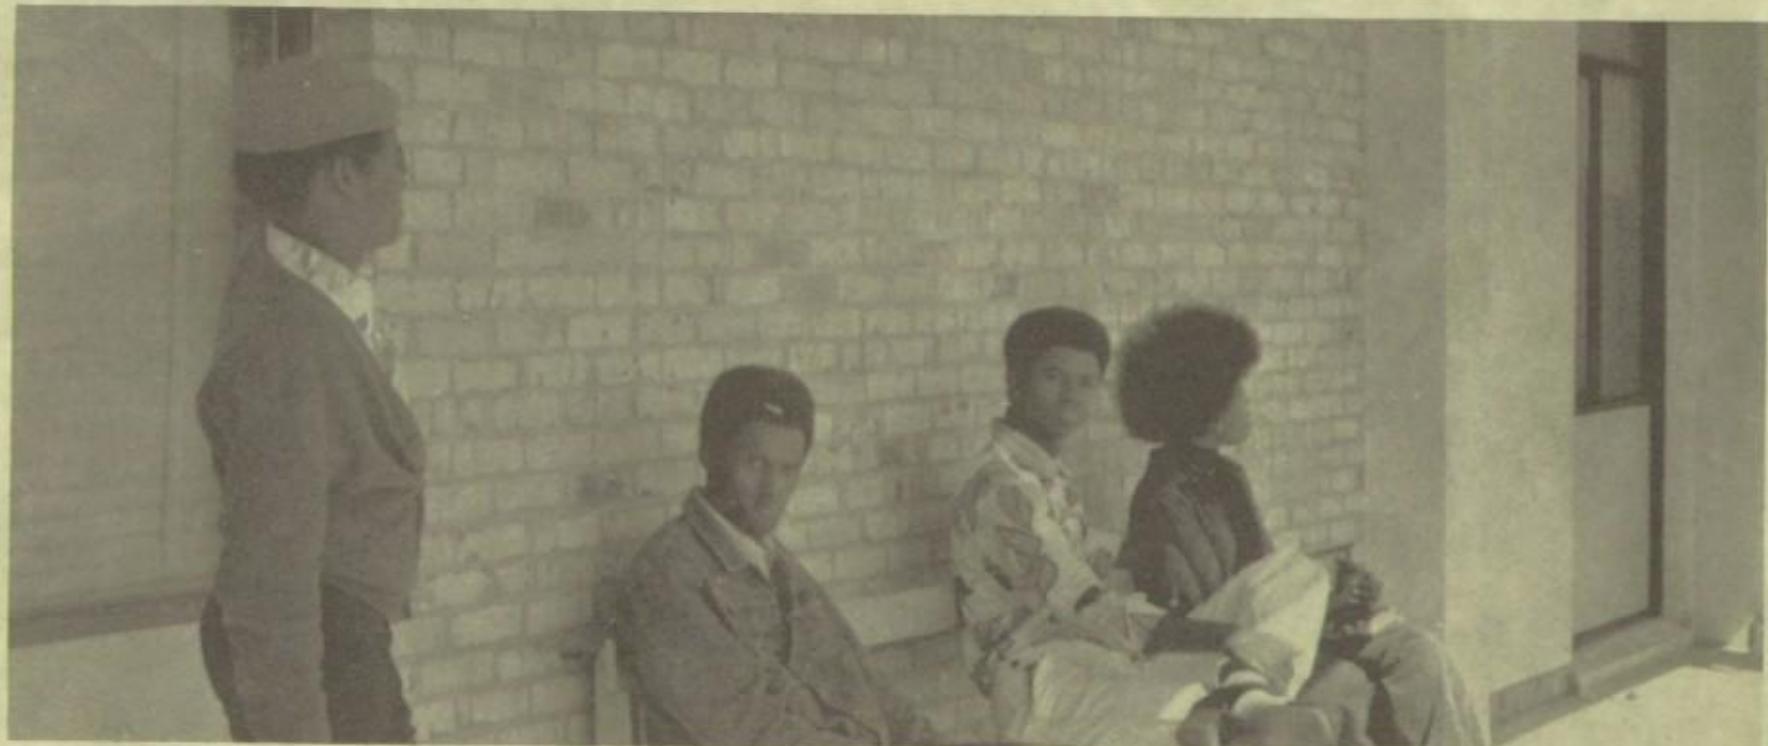

1976 - A year of national pride and community involvement . . . A year in which school spirit was renewed . . . A year of brotherhood and friendship . . .

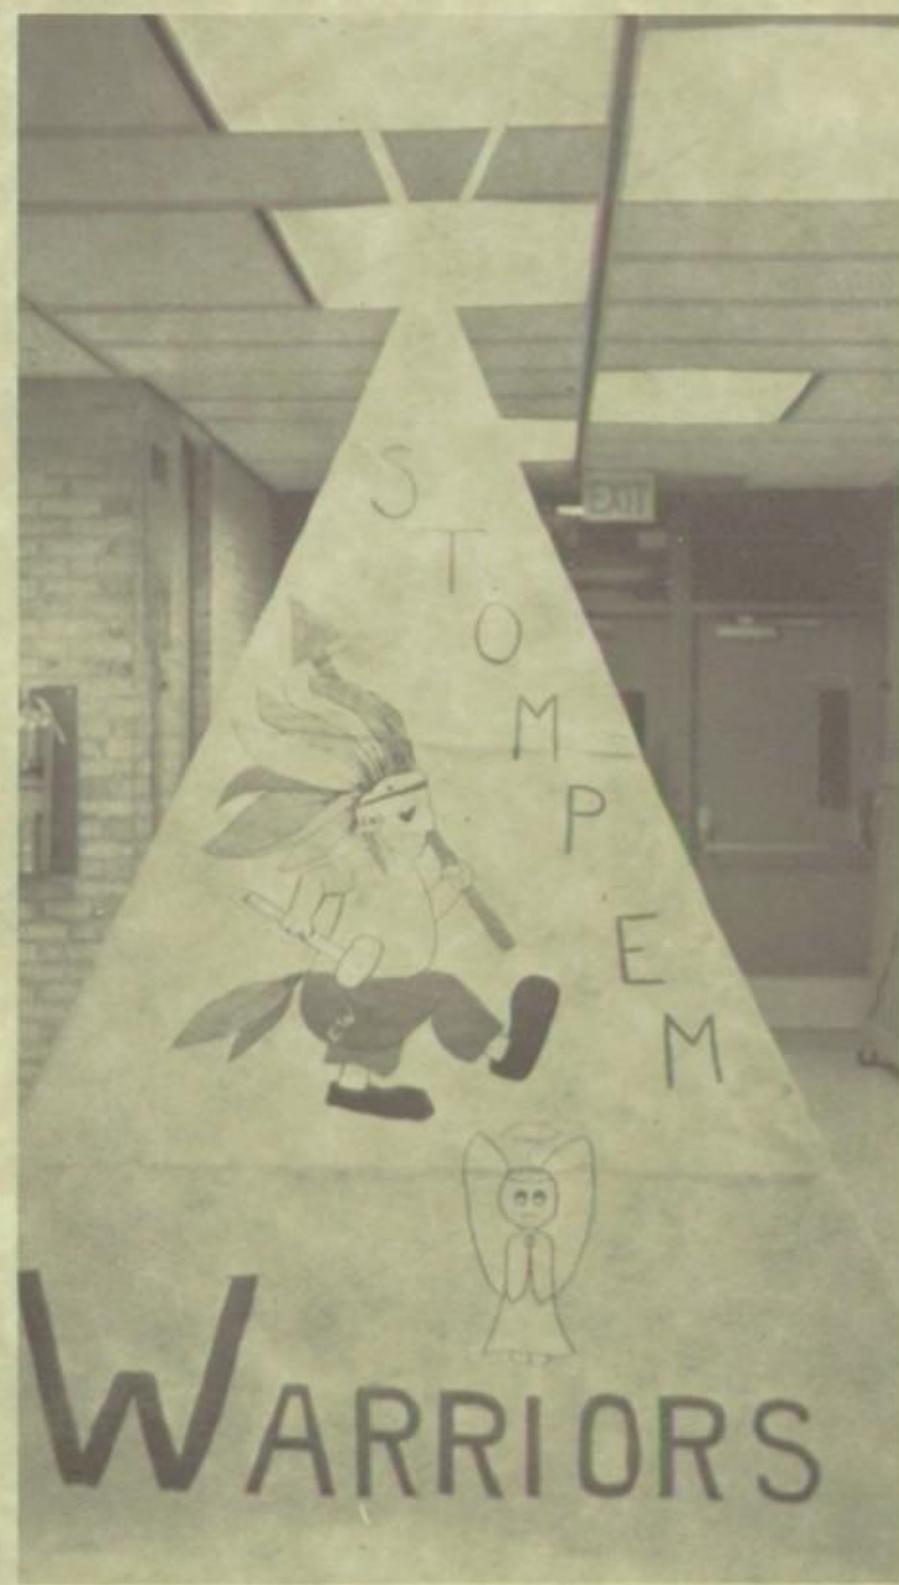

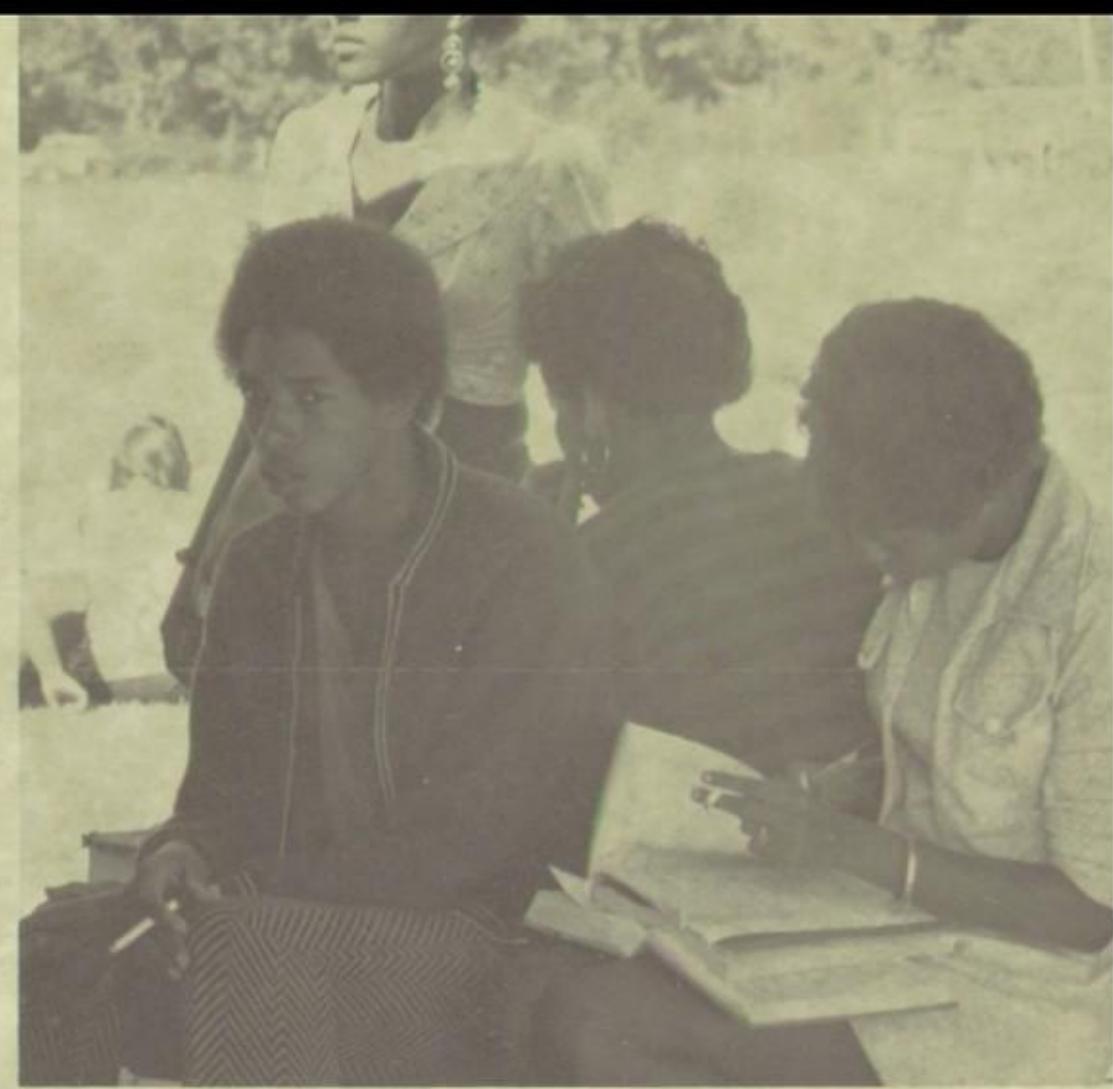

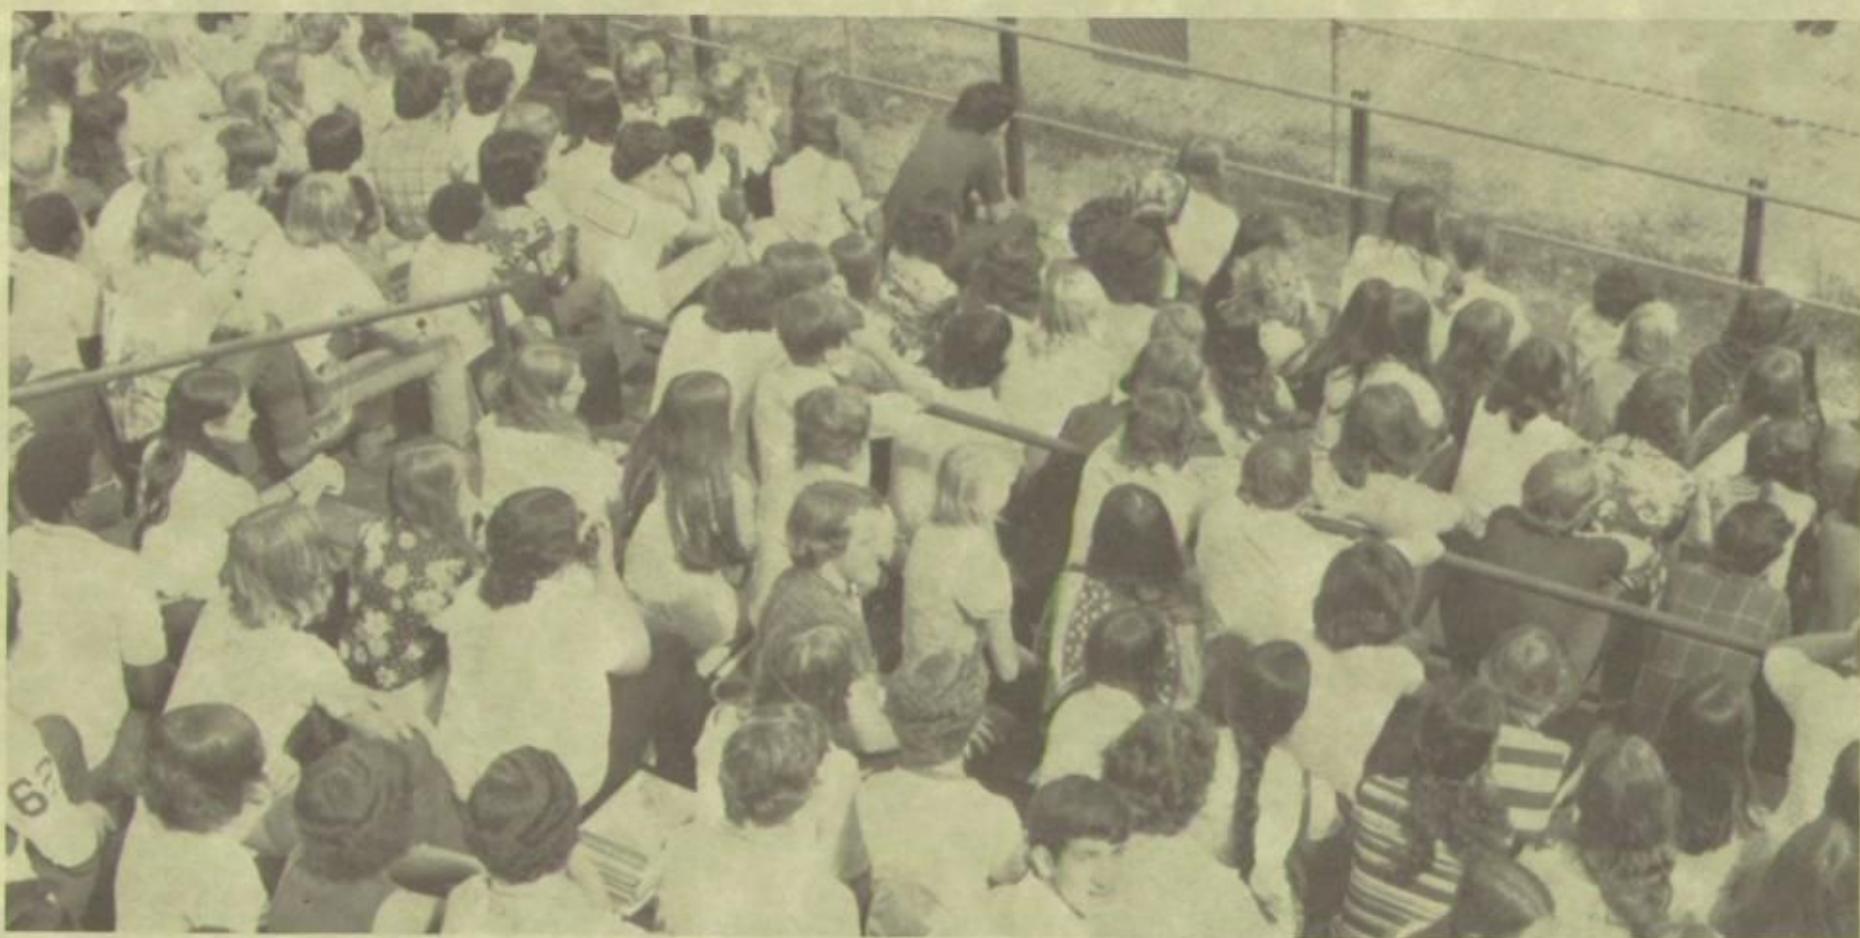

Two hundred years ago, this country declared its independence. Through many years of hardships and wars our forefathers made our country what it is today. From this day forward we have to take a stand and make our school what it will be tomorrow.

Into the future we are propelled,
headlong,
a place of no turning back
Into the nebulous time . . . Tomorrow,
Where there is no retreat,
and the outcome is decisive
- either distinct victory
or defeat.

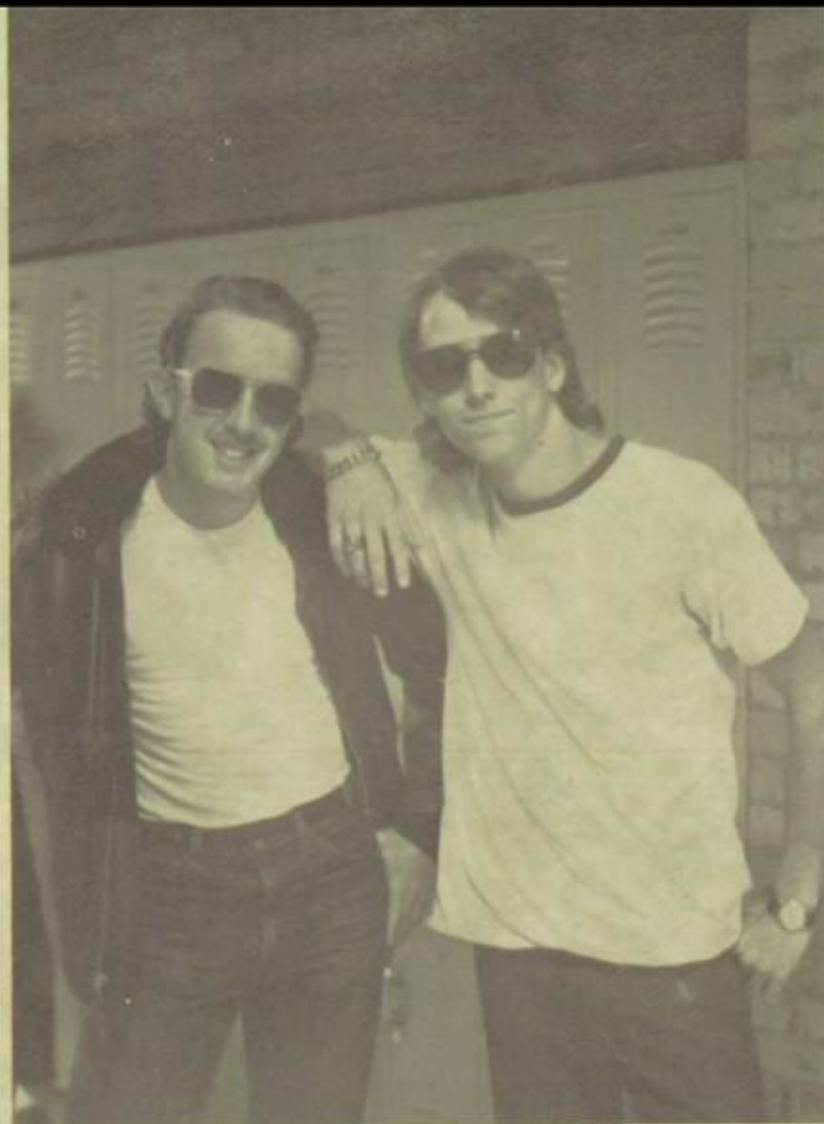

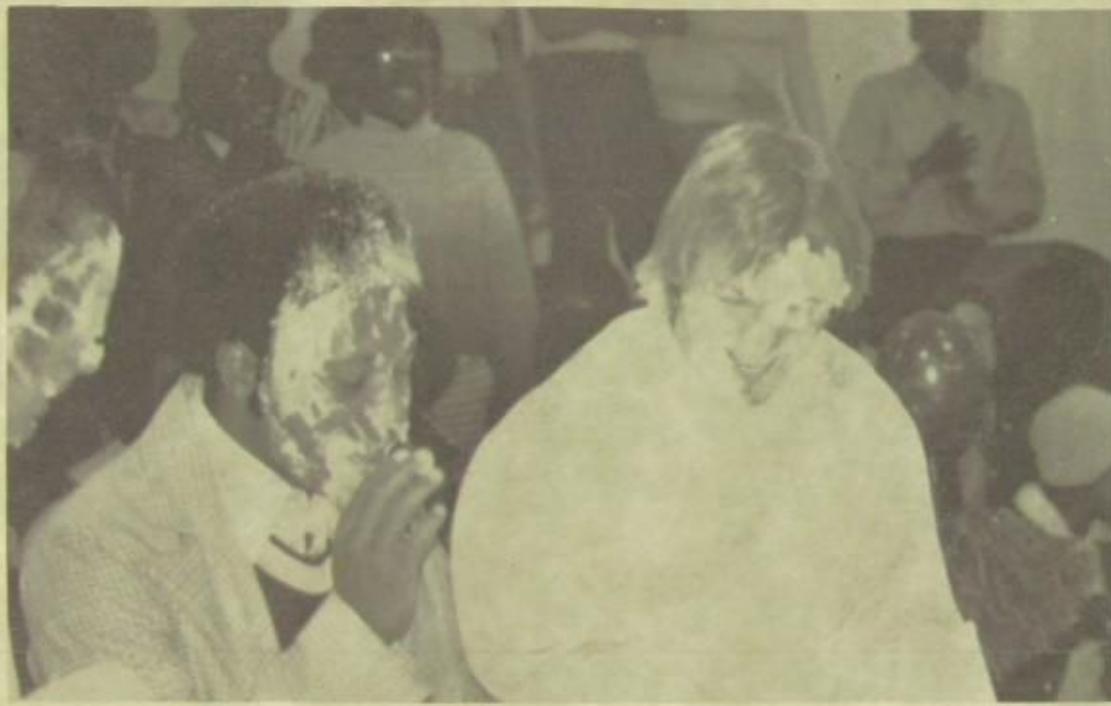

Tomorrow will come,
Whether we walk willingly,
proudly toward it . . .
or are swept into it
as into a raging cyclone.

Let us gather our coats about us
and face the storm,
with no more than a quick glance
at the past or a brief review
of its greatness.
(Onward! On with the matters at hand!
There are pressing, urgent matters to attend to,
and how can the future be faced
if one insists on dreaming of yesterday and singing of Auld Lang Syne . . .?)

We face tomorrow . . .
Bravely, sternly . . .
with our tradition of freedom,
and enterprise,
and compassion . . .
(Hasten! There is no time to revel in the days of yore!
Tomorrow looms over the horizon,
- and it is almost upon us! -
Jumbled with new threats,
- And new promises! -
. . . and nobody ever said it would be easy.)
We face tomorrow . . .
and it is ours.

- Roger N. Lancaster -

*Yeah, Hooray!
Let's Hear It
Loud and Clear
For the Year of Spirit Is Here!*

1976: The Spirit of the Bicentennial

Not a remembrance of the past but a celebration of the present,
- And a forward look to the future -
The bicentennial marks two hundred years of growth and development.

Let us not become preoccupied with the past itself,
But rather, -
Let us familiarize ourselves with the ideas of our forefathers
and the spirit that motivated them;
To preserve and relate the spirit of Freedom and Human Dignity
in these, our troubled times.

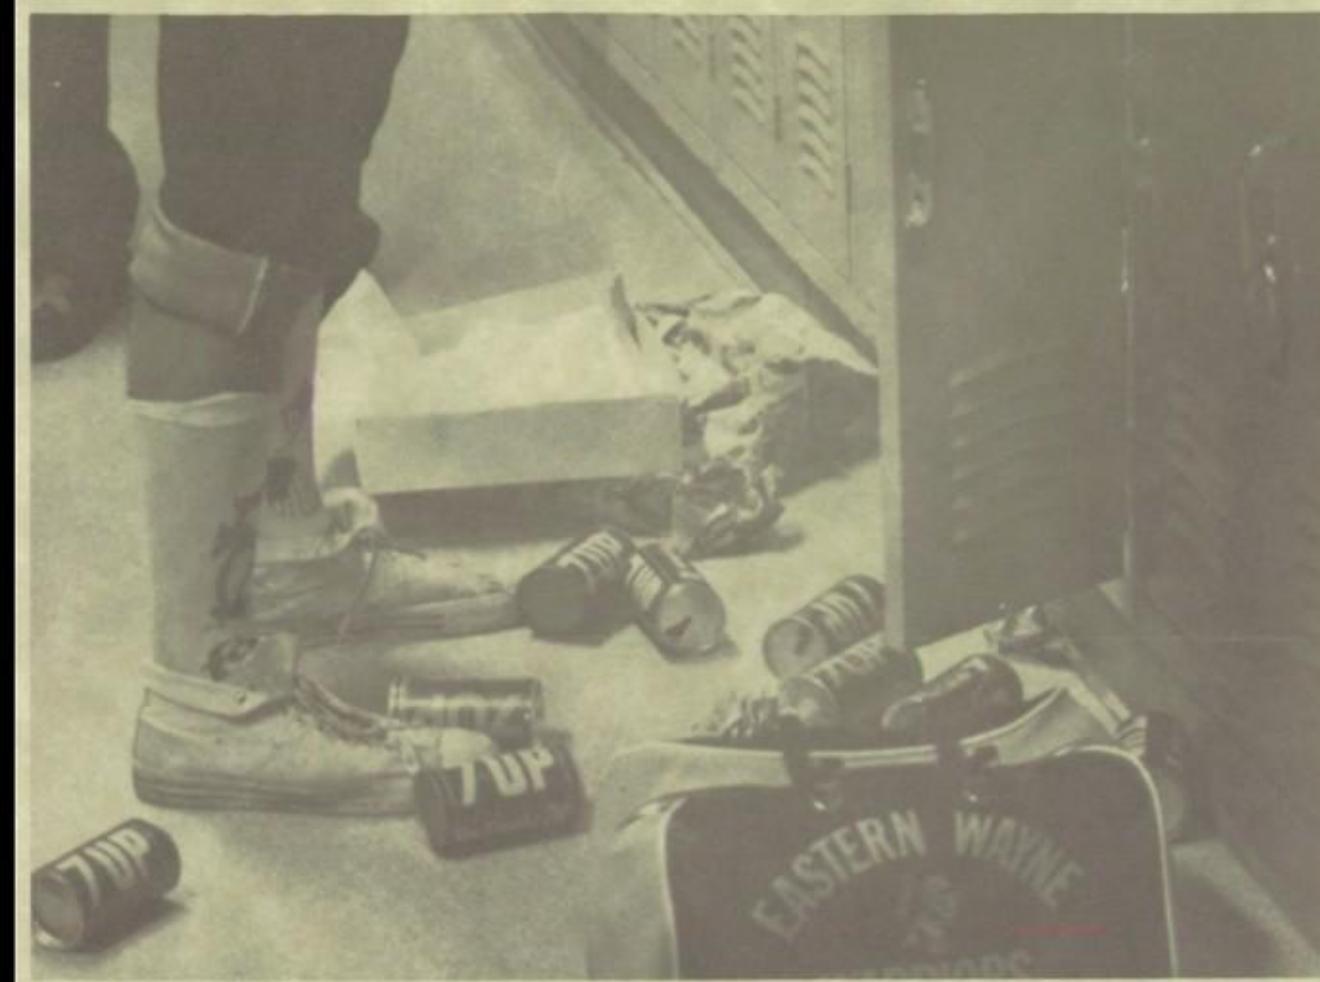

Such is the spirit of the bicentennial.

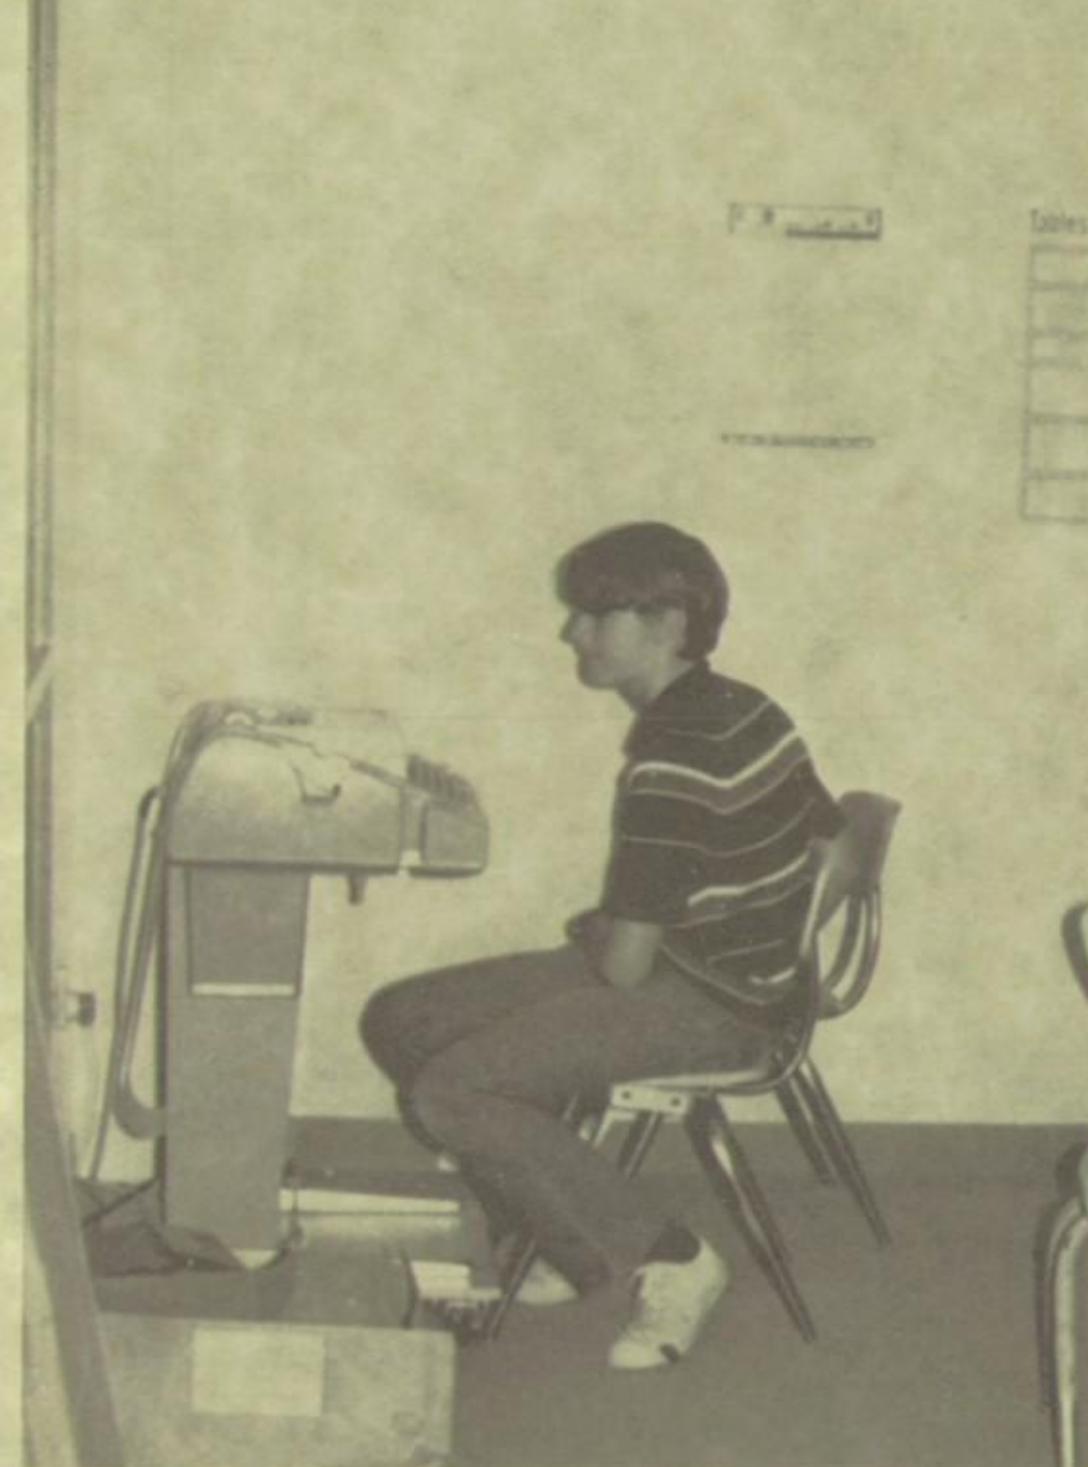

- Roger N. Lancaster -

This Year Was Something Special

The year of spirit will be marked forever in the minds of many. Seniors will be remembered for the many joys and happy times they have given others throughout the year. These precious moments will be cherished in the hearts of all.

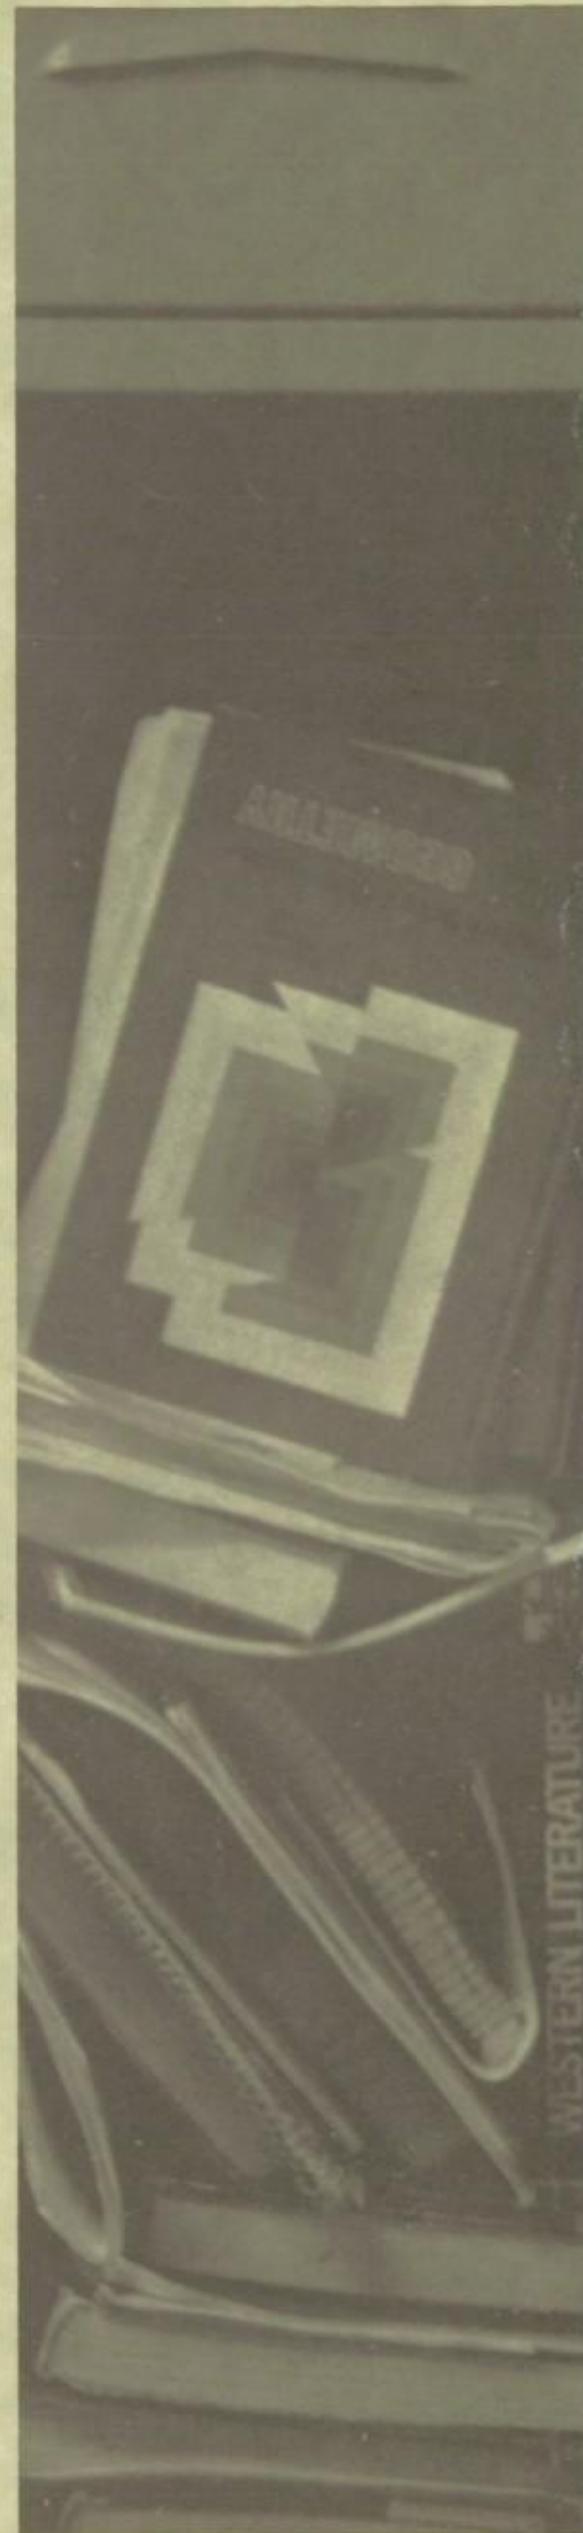

The Year of Spirit

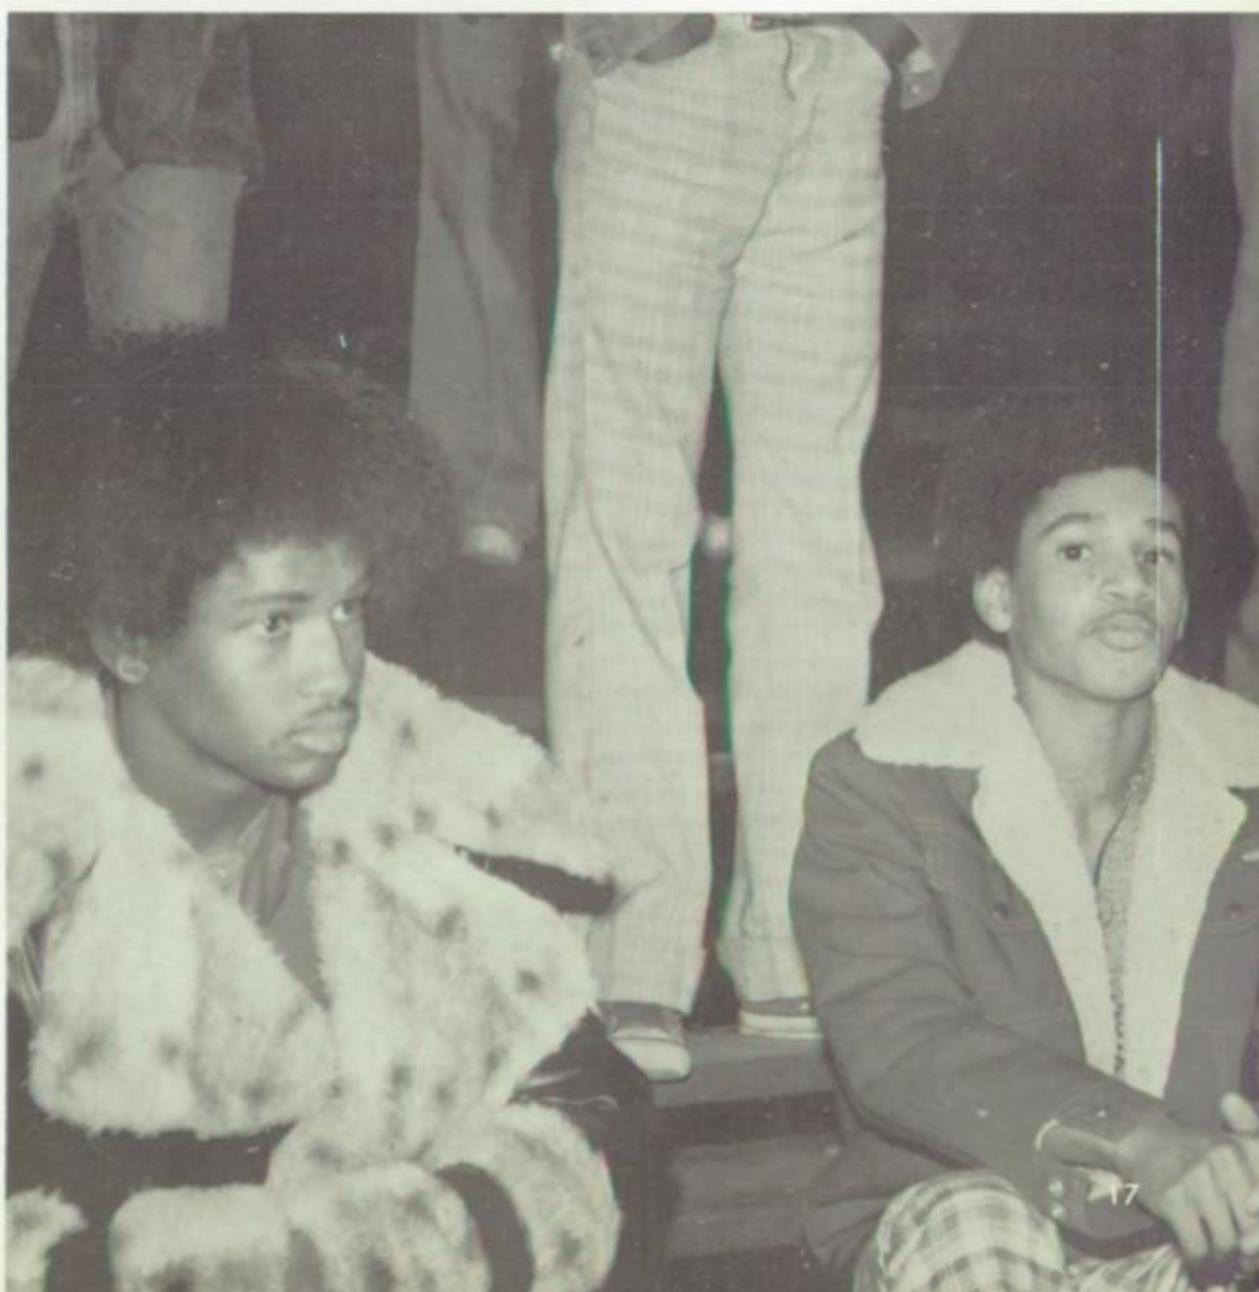

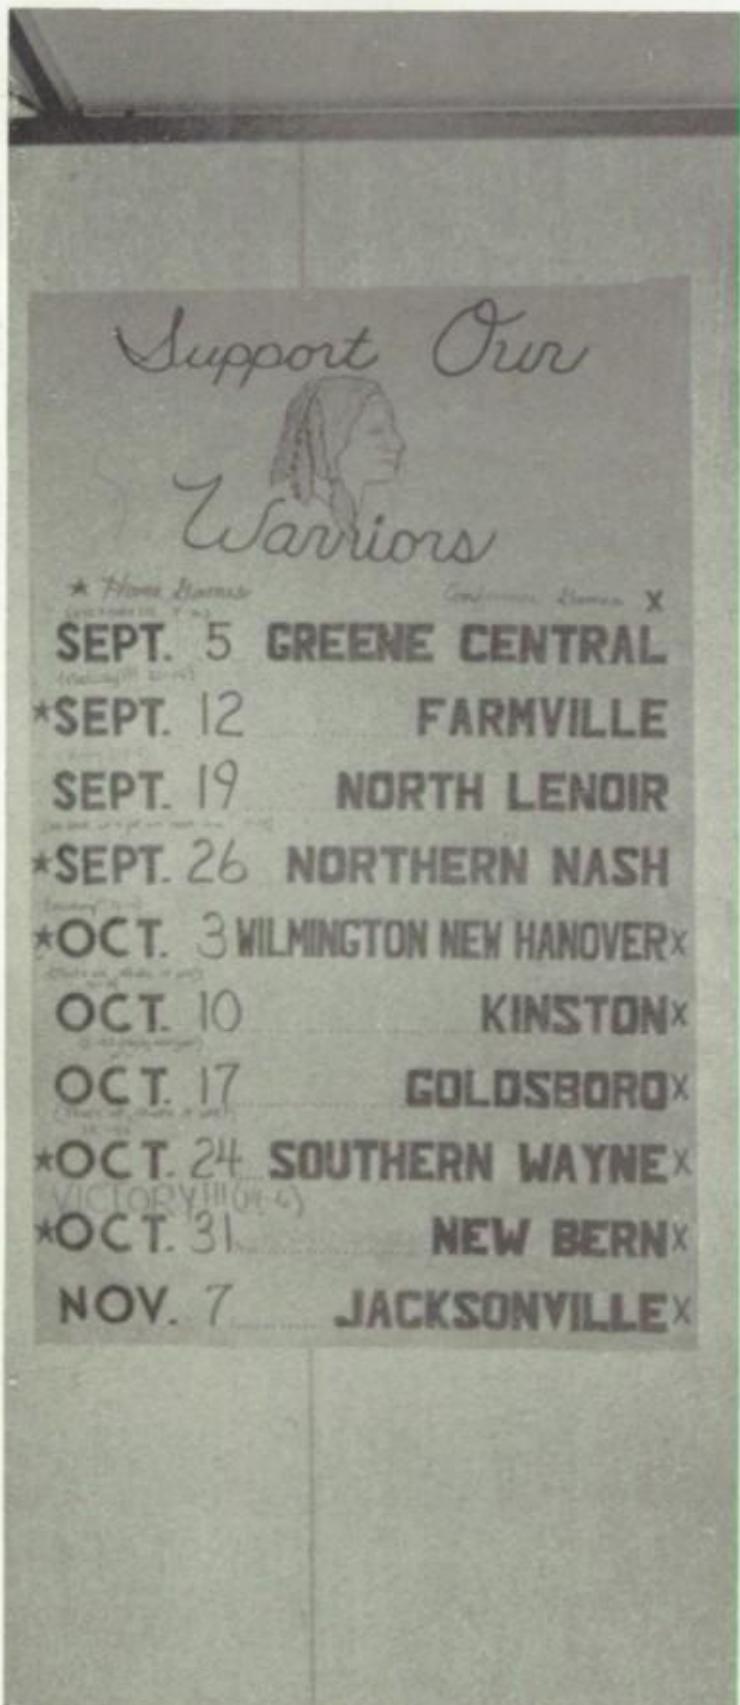

Warrior VII salutes our unselfish forefathers, who devoted their time and efforts to their country when they were called upon and needed. This is especially dedicated to all who have fought for their lives for their beliefs and, in doing so, sacrificed their lives for us for that precious word we call "freedom."

This "Year of Spirit" can touch each of us here at Eastern Wayne, if we rededicate ourselves to the same ideals to which our forefathers devoted their lives.

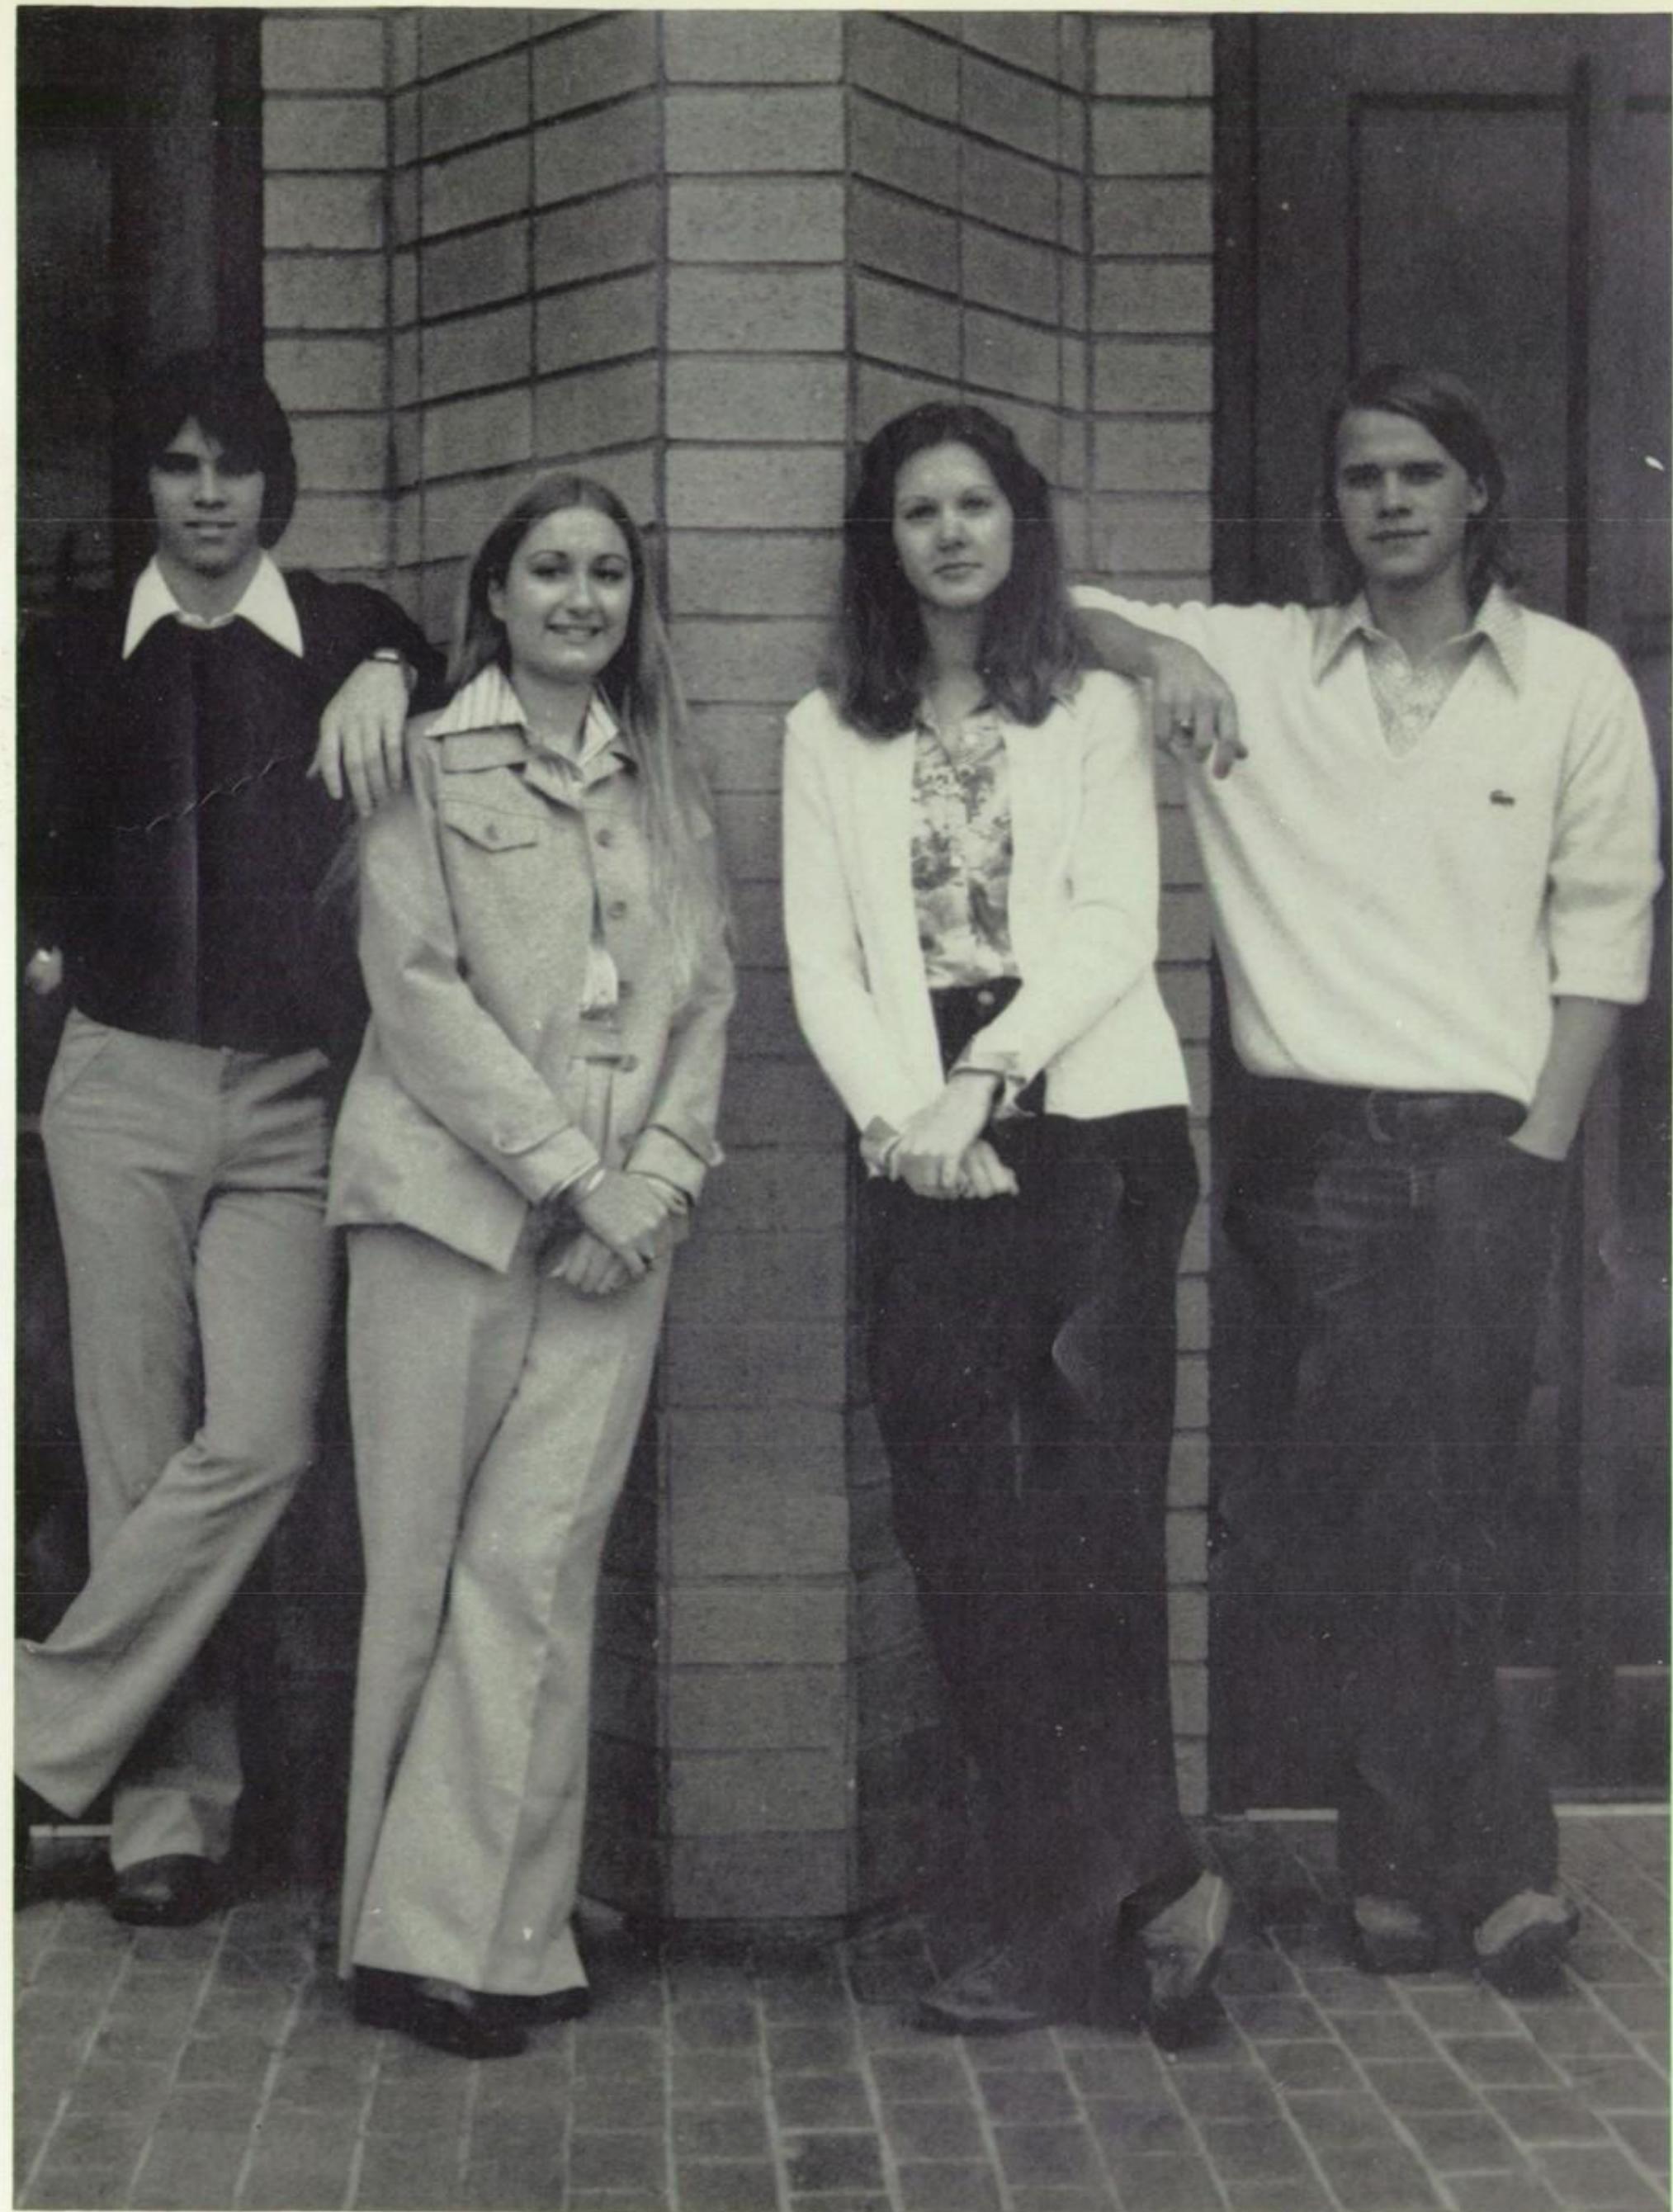

Golden moments were quietly tucked away in the hearts of everyone. With every day came the realization that each tiny deed was being performed for the last time and every moment was quickly passing.

We Are the Spirit

Wuthering Heights

Catching up on the latest gossip between classes.

Lollipops!

Bus Bums.

Leisure living.

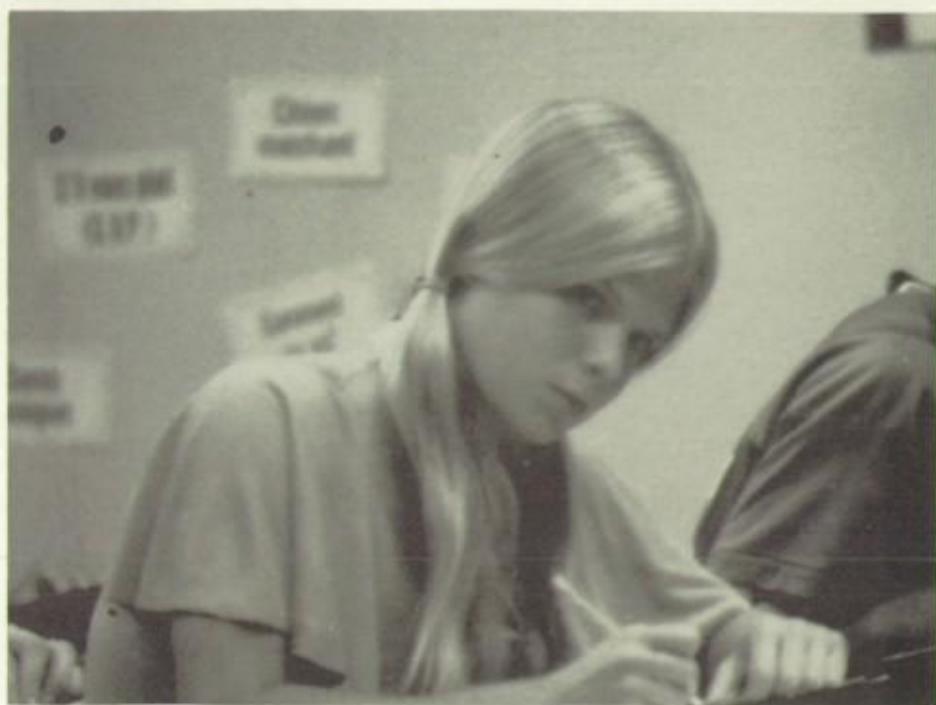

I knew nothing.

Very interesting.

"Where's my choo-choo train?!"

Now what did que je suis bete mean again?

Roger Pilgrim seems to be interested in something other than his lunch.

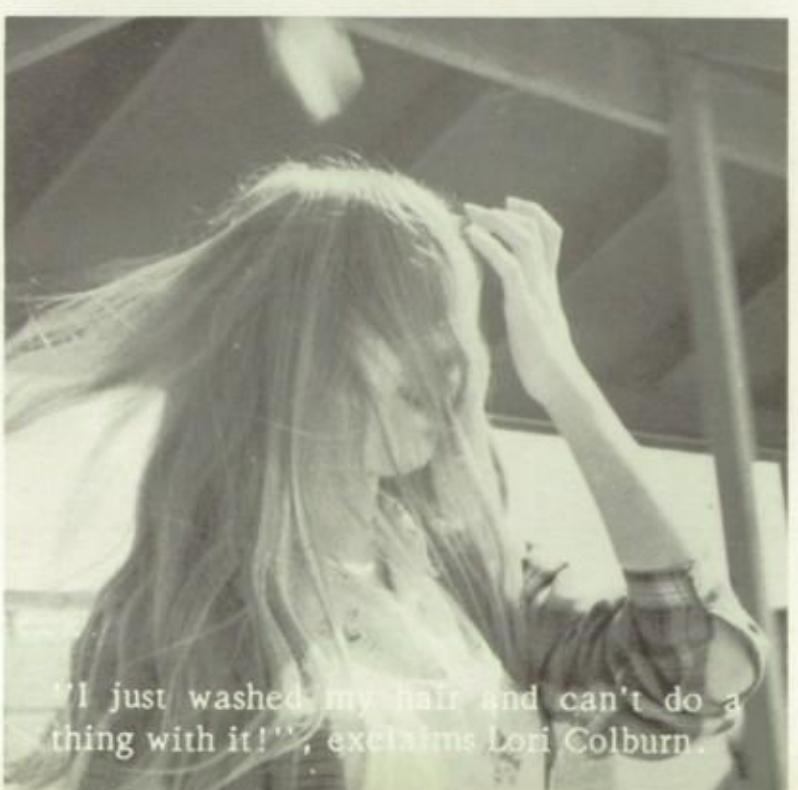

Now how did you say this worked again?

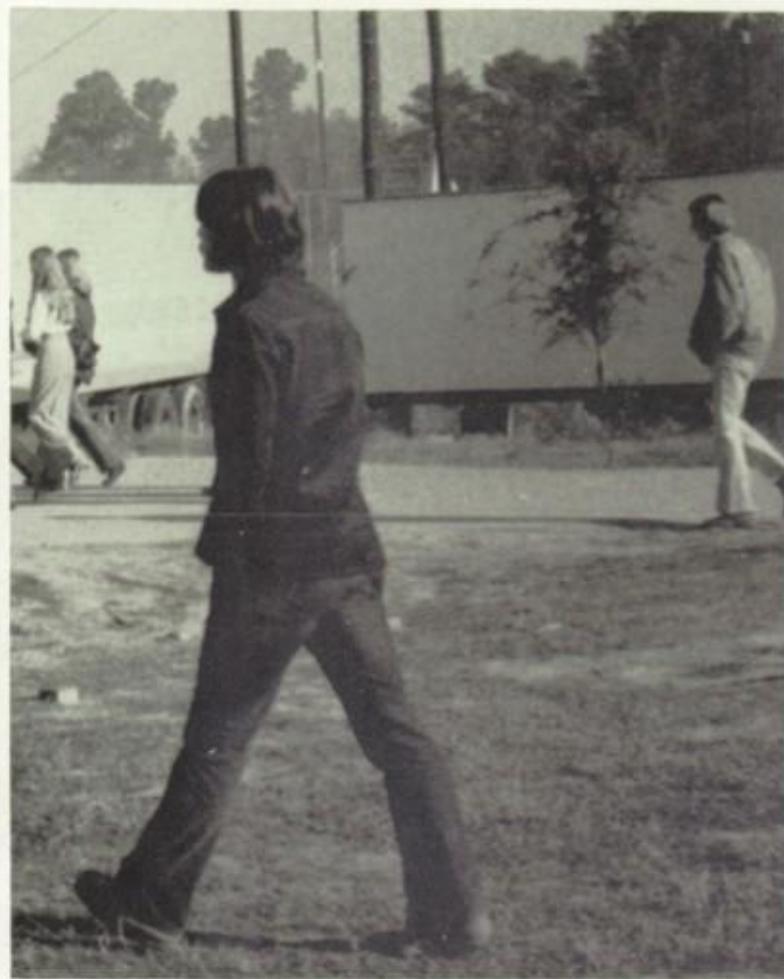

(Starksky) Jackie Callahan and (Hutch) James Wiggins.

"Ummm! That was a good raisin!", says Lisa Thomas.

"I just washed my hair and can't do a thing with it!", exclaims Lori Colburn.

Stalking Warrior County.

Eastern Wayne's first pep rally.

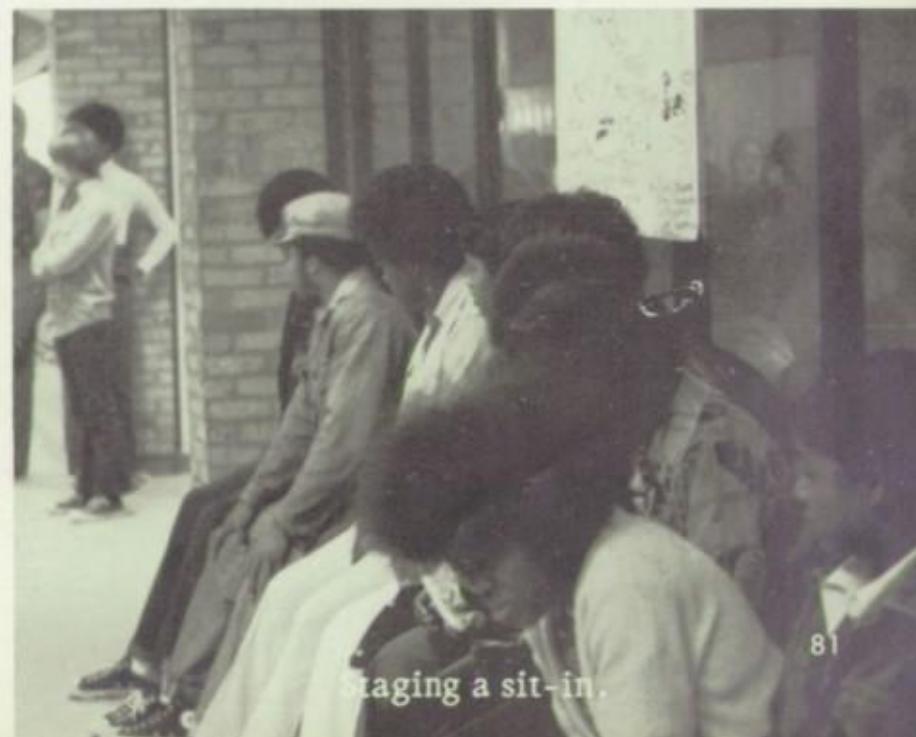

La voiture!

Business Blues!

That which one can not see from the ground.

Staging a sit-in.

Some people haven't even grown out of their first childhood.

An eternal wait before the bell rings.

Just another one of those blah Mondays!

This sophomore class learns quickly what high school life is all about - work!

Hurry up bell - Ring!

I hope this grass isn't wet!

Has anyone got something for a headache?

Here's looking at you!

Peek-a-boo! I see you and you and . . . you!

They SAY, "All good things must come to an end." I hope this one comes soon!

I Am a Part. . .

Keep on Truckin.

Some people like to get to the buses early.

A senior's pride and joy - a class ring.

Gee how I hate to do this, but it's worth the try.

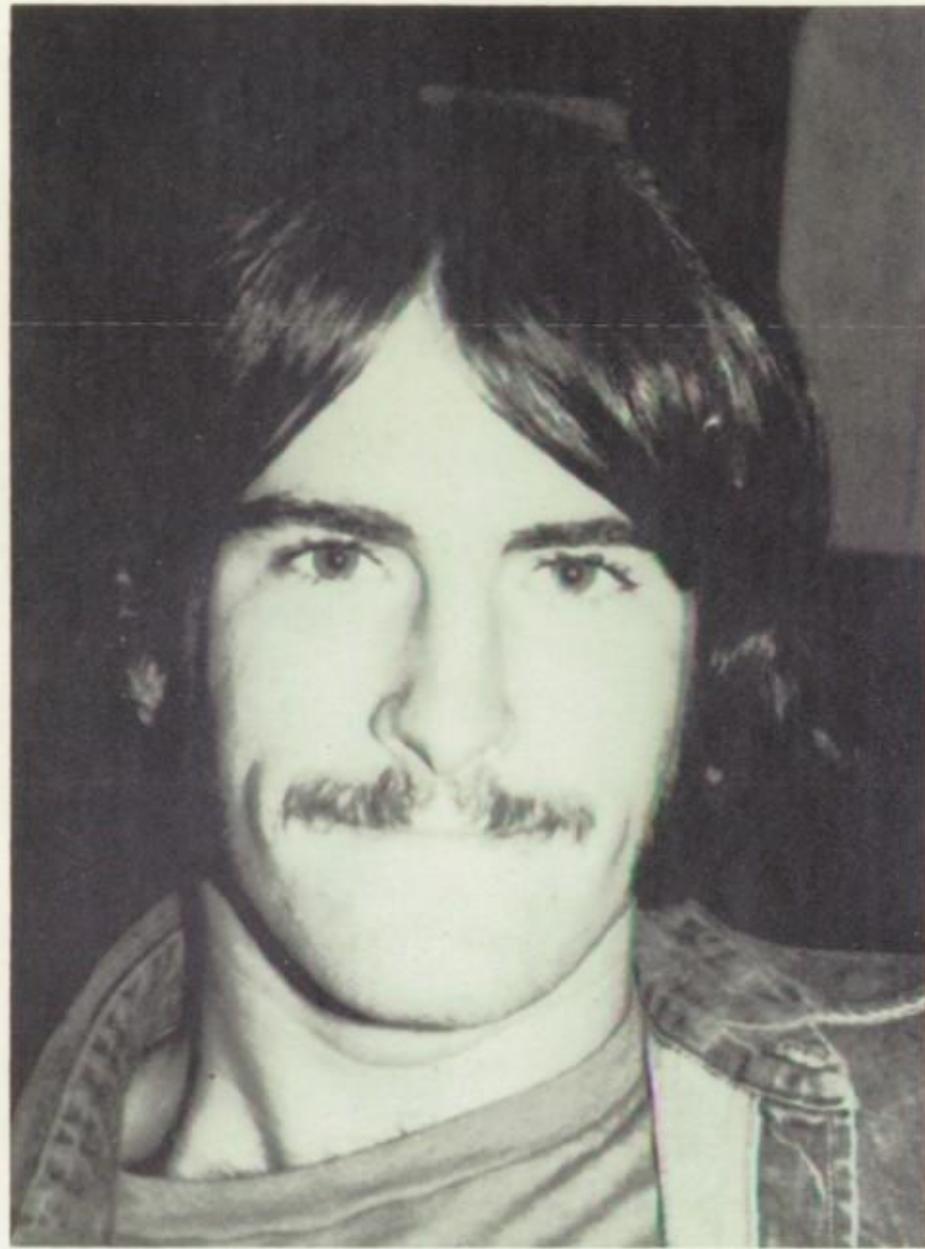

Eastern Wayne's very own "Little League."

of All That I Have Met

Wise minds come in assorted shapes and sizes.

Smile, it makes people wonder what you've been up to!

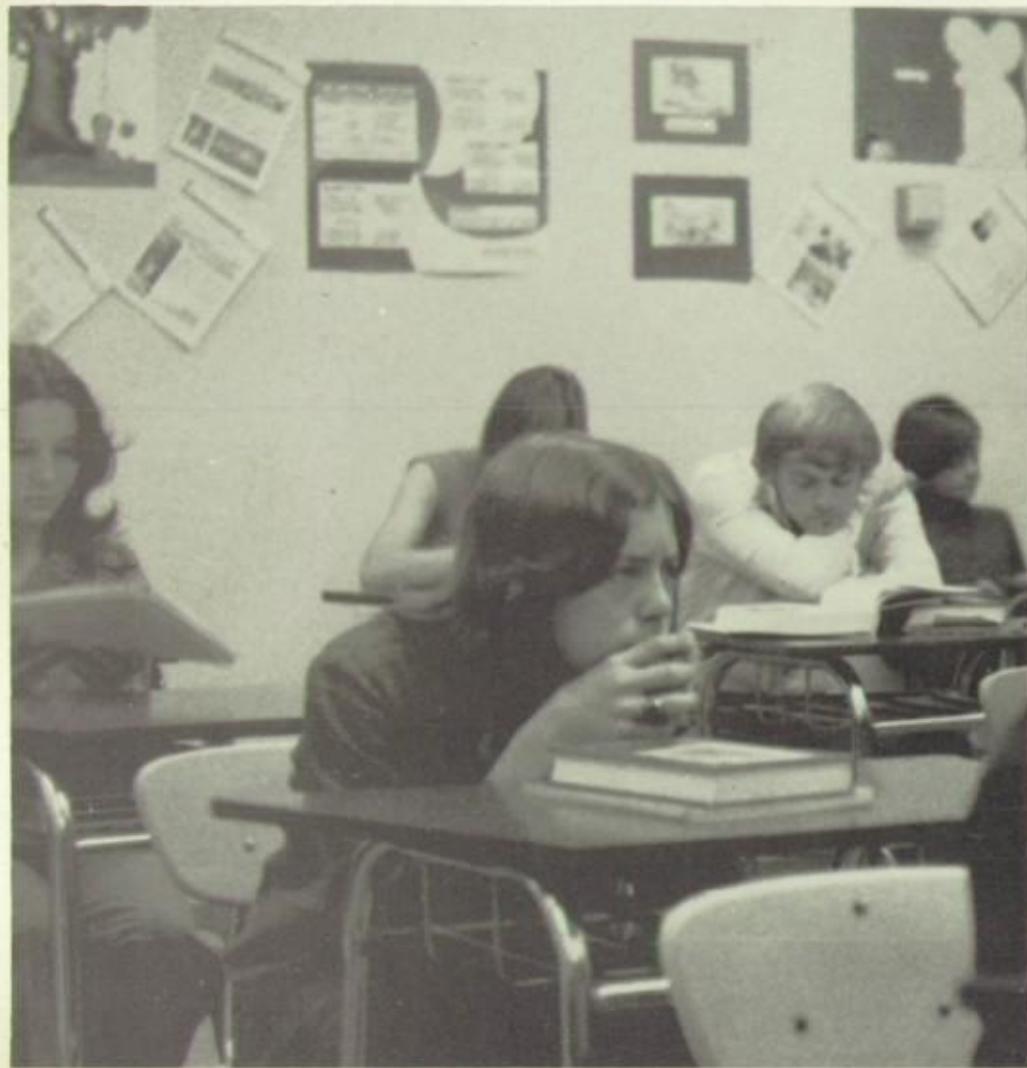

"Oh good, I finally got it," says Gwen Drewry.

Smiling faces, show no traces of the evil that lurks within.

People . . .

Tim Evans meditates while Billy Suggs attempts a new yoga position.

Louis Stevenson and his two lady companions found out that sitting on the bench during lunch is very healthy.

"I want to make it with you."

Here, we have Durwood Hill and Jackie Callahan standing on the sidelines of Eastern Wayne.

Will all people please turn this way and then the opposite?

Smile and Say Cheese!

Some people even find time to sit and relax.

Empty buses that will soon be filled.

Steve Bostic and friends think it's fun posing for a picture.

Many participate in a favorite intramural activity - volleyball.

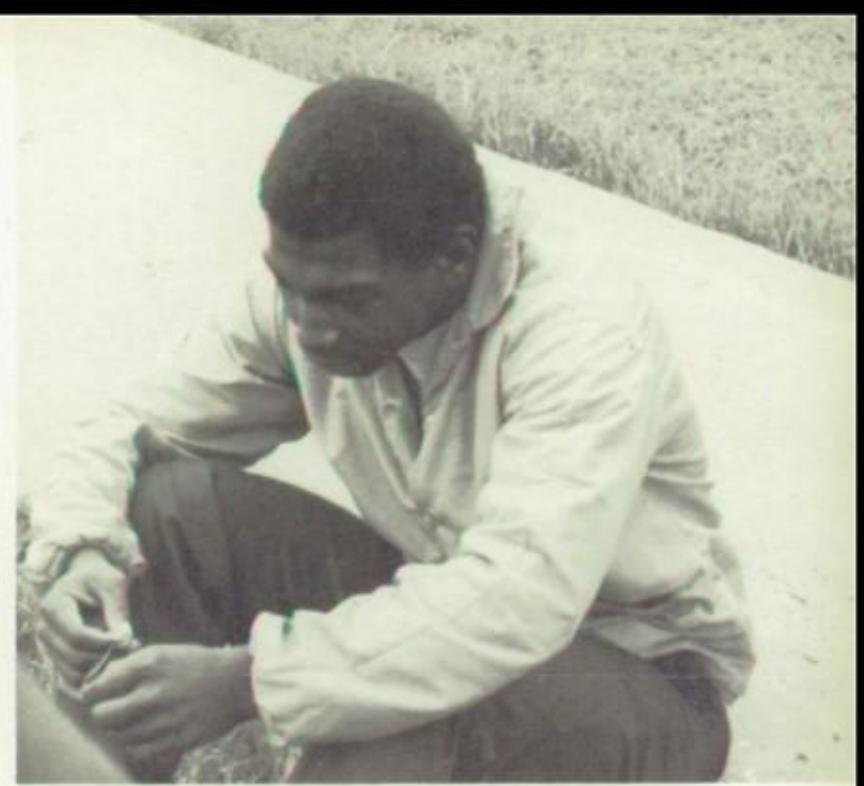

Your number five doesn't correspond with mine.

Bang! Bang! - you're dead!

Happiness is: togetherness.

The thinker.

As we gather together, we all look together.

A book's castle is its locker.

"Look what they've done to my chin, Mom!"

The face only a mother could love.

Boredom.

Coming and going in all directions.

Alone again - naturally!

Driver's Education - prerequisite.

Juniors show spirit at pep rally.

I don't know how much longer I can stand in mid-air.

Security in numbers.

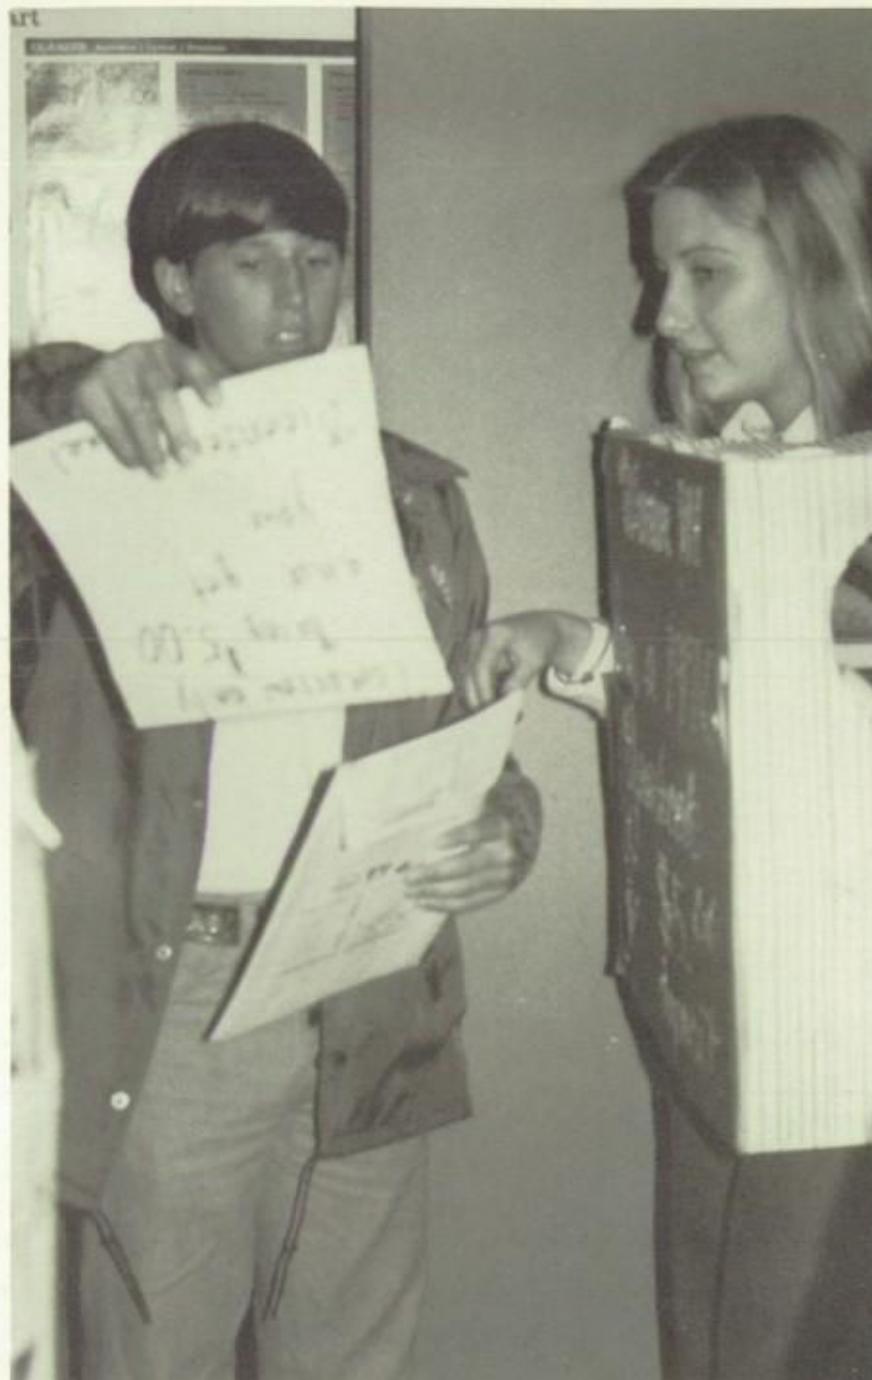

A warrior's night out - the football game.

See what powerful eyes I have my dear . . . I caught you looking.

Keeping up with the latest news is very important around E.W.

Bev Edwards and Owen Ragland are really involved with the advertisements for the Warrior VII.

Okay, so man you've found that girl you were looking for.

Go to the head of the class.

Funny Face

Bookworm

Bench dwellers

Can You Feel the Spirit . . .

E.W. pep rallies were sellouts.

Smile a while! It does wonders for your health.

Going home . . . a student's favorite assignment.

Annual staff members drinking on the job!

Girl Talk?

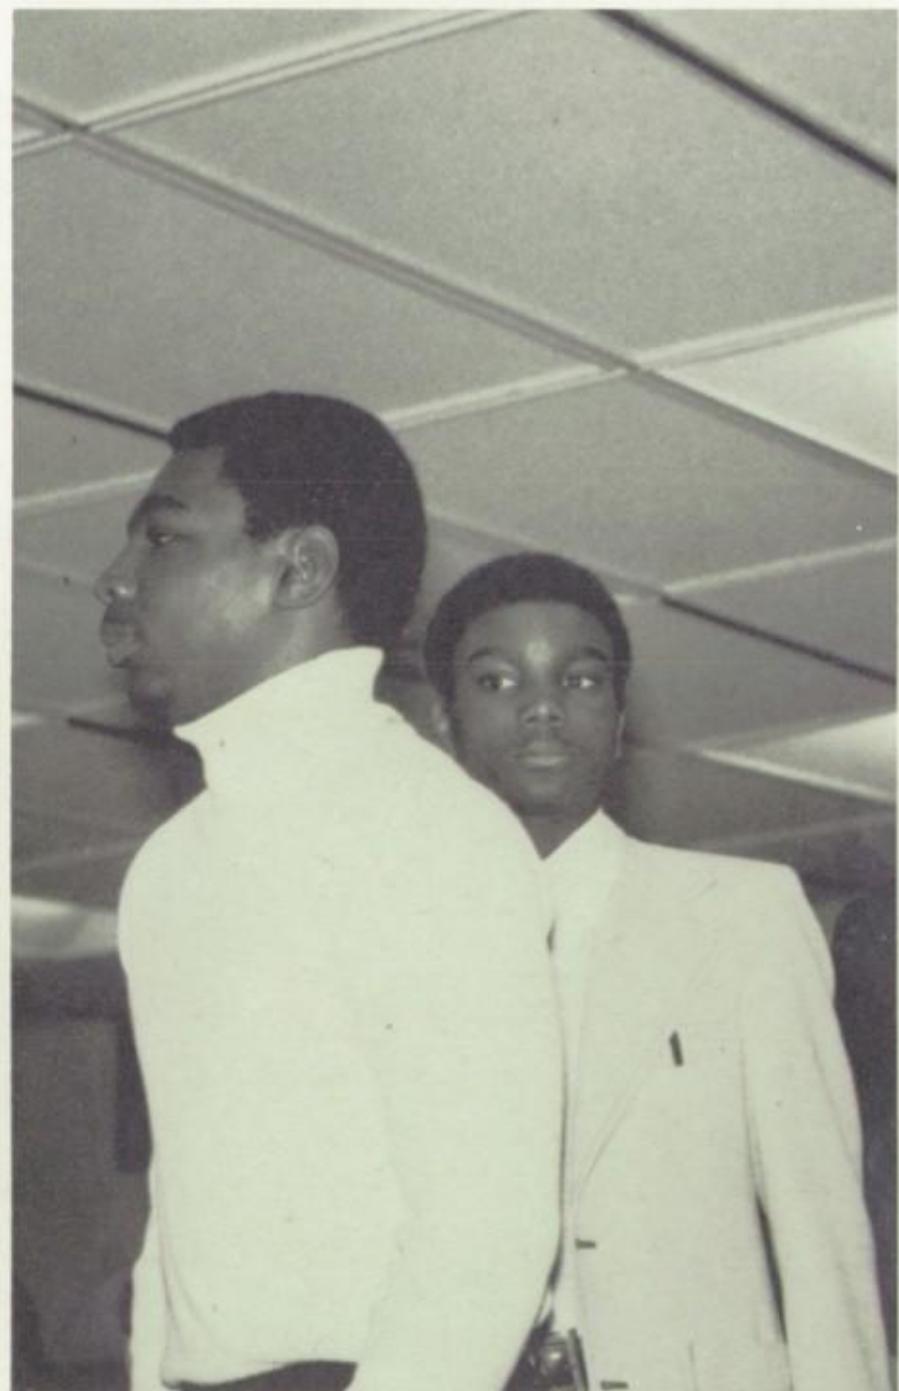

Pat Reboli gets sandwiched into the annual drive.

Susan Smiley in one of her thoughtful moods.

A Warrior Football Team fashion show?

We Laughed . . . We Played

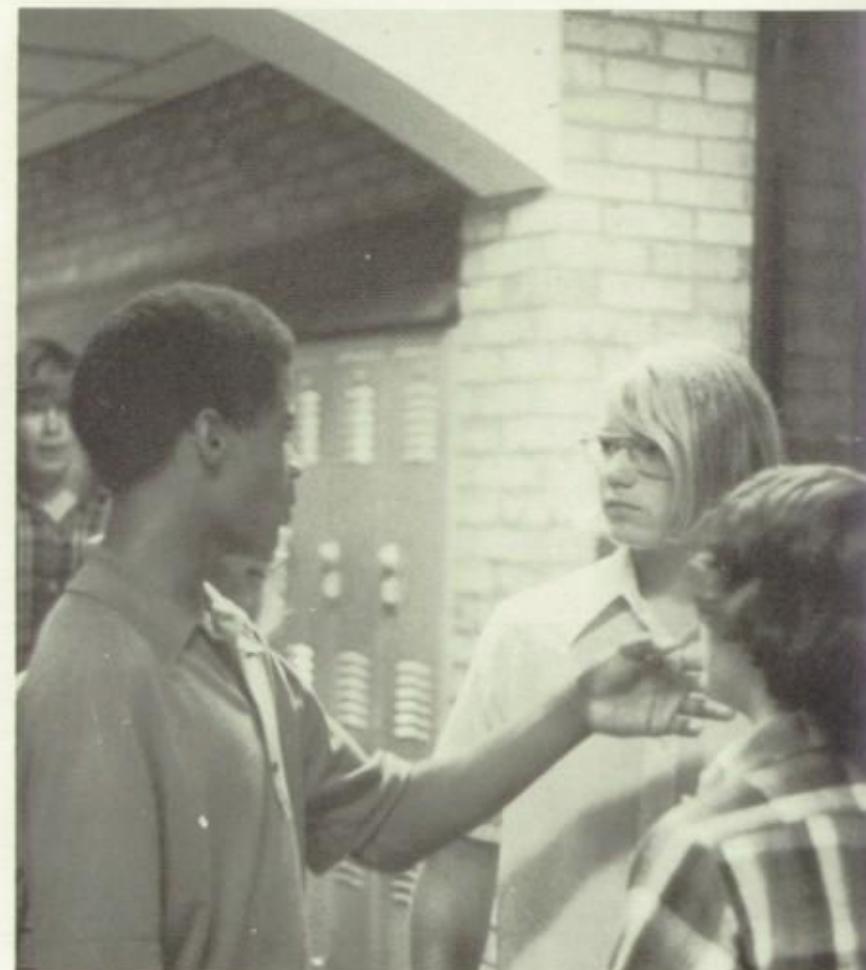

Two students working out some tough drafting project, due next year.

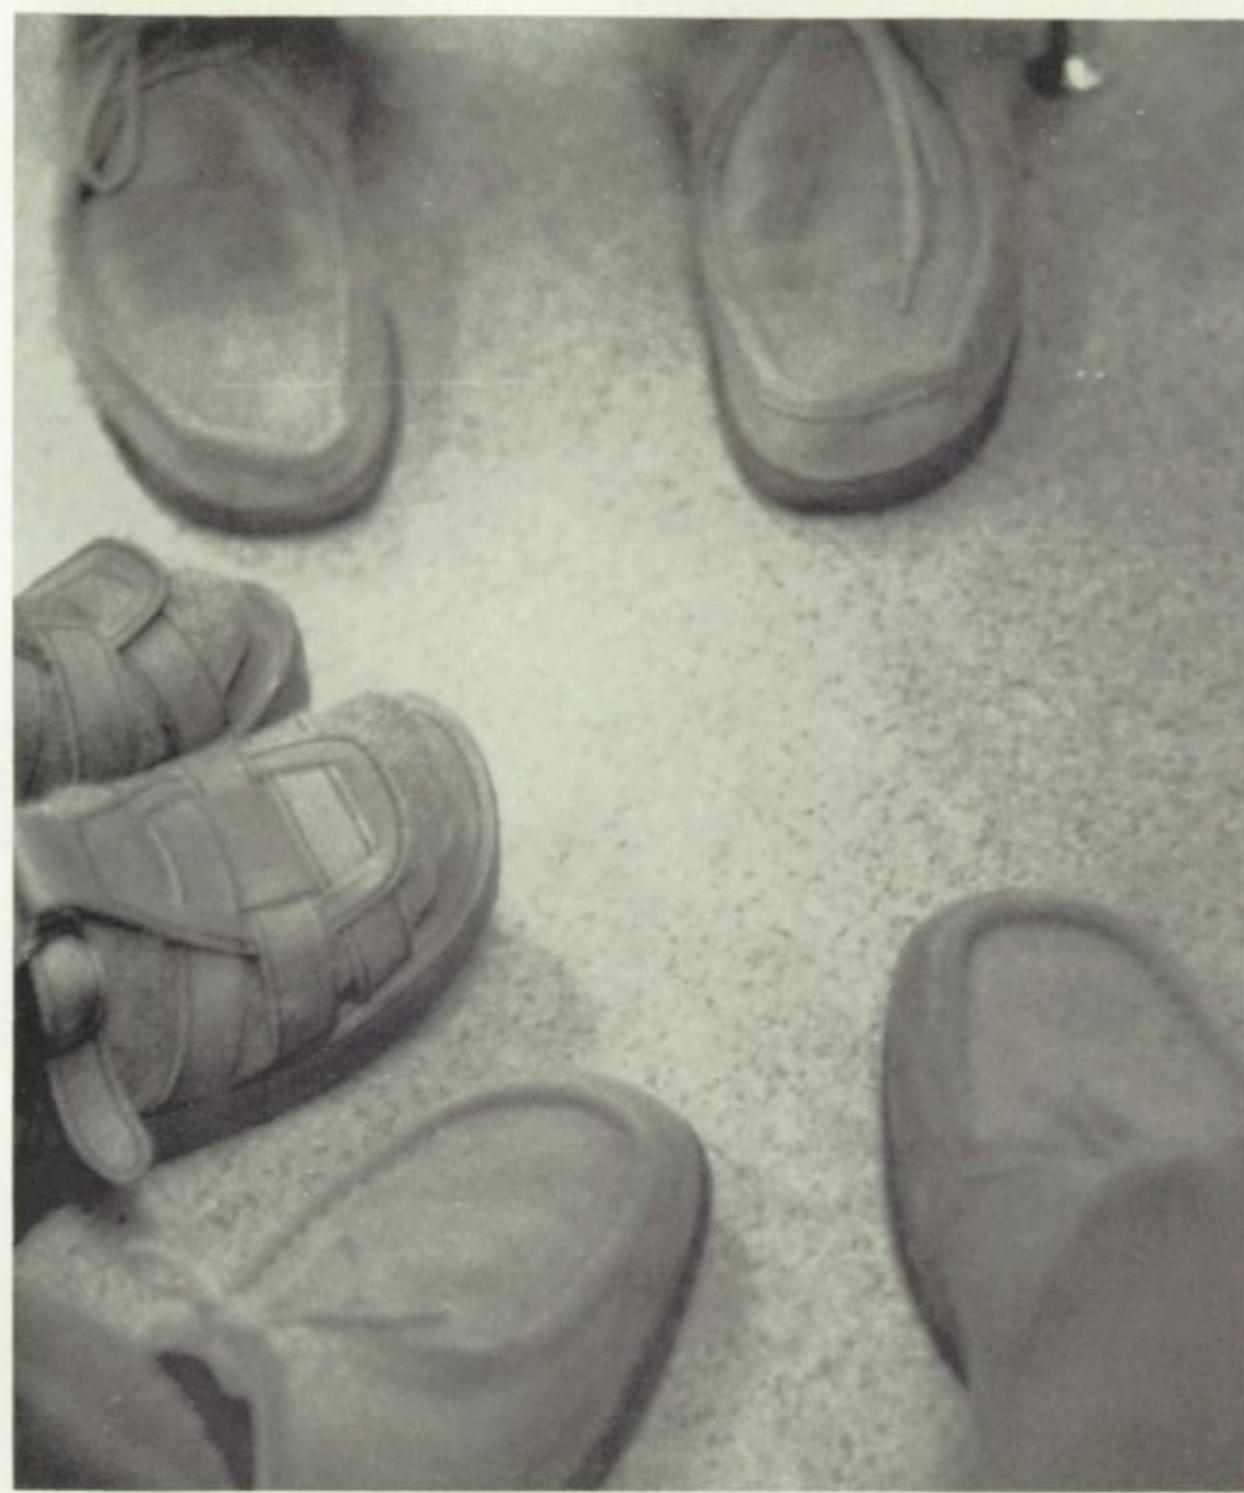

My best side: left, that's the way I like it.

Gee whiz, he's taking our picture.

Getting the first hand facts from Greg Dowell is really hard for Ricky Pruitt and his fellow classmate to understand.

Here we have the latest style in shoes around Eastern Wayne.

My mother always told me I'd dress like this someday, but I didn't believe her.

"You'd better believe it, Sonny," says Melinda Miller.

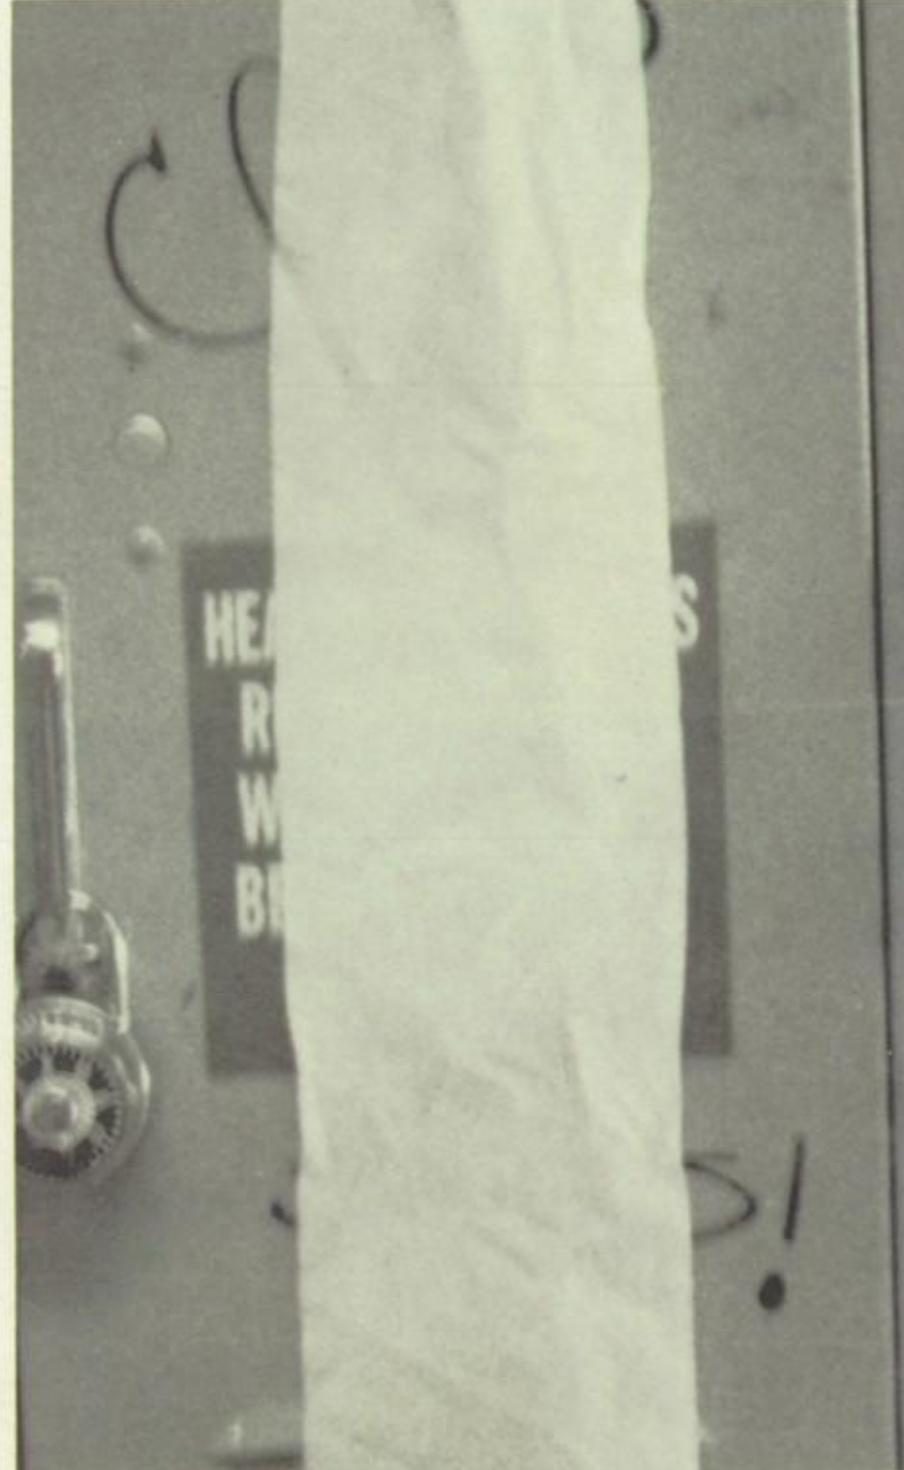

One, Two, Three, here we go, all headed back to class.

Always Lending

The principal of our school is dedicated to the idea that an understanding between faculty and student is one of the most important functions a school has to offer. He endeavors to keep communication lines open, hoping that in doing so he will make Eastern Wayne a place of which students can be proud.

Dedication to the students and complete fulfillment of the numerous responsibilities of the office of principal go hand in hand to insure the proper functioning of a school. Respected authority and hard work are only two of the many important aspects which characterize Mr. King and have been the basis for the continued improvements of Eastern Wayne High School.

A Helping Hand

Mr. Amos G. Richardson, our vice-principal, is a collection of many persons molded into one unique man. His days are filled with the many duties of attending the buses, and sponsoring the activities of the Bus-Driver's Clubs. We, the students of Eastern Wayne, owe him our many thanks and appreciation for making this school year a better one for us.

Mr. Richardson

Mr. Croom

He presides over the roost
with sharp, ready eye,
Keeping track of students
- He's not such a bad guy.
The job isn't easy
but then, it's a living;
and he does his job well
- So don't be skipping!
'Cause if you're caught
You'll hear the Voice of Doom thundering from our attendance counselor
- Mr. Croom.

Their Work Is Never Done

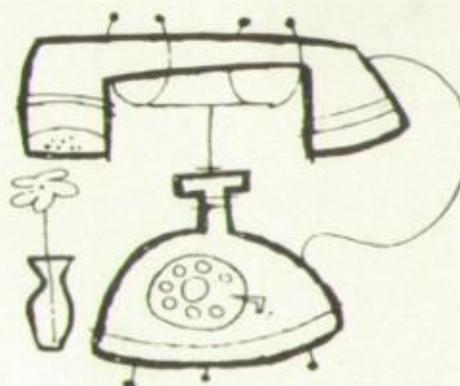

Mrs. Worrell

Mrs. Parks

Eastern Wayne would soon be buried under a deluge of paperwork were it not for the valiant effort of our 3 secretaries. The secretaries were not only involved in paperwork but with fund raising projects and collecting money from games and dances. These three wonderful ladies who are always hard at work are as follows: Mrs. Mildred Worrell, secretary to Mr. King, Mrs. Janie Woodard who takes care of records, and Mrs. Edna Parks, receptionist.

Mrs. Woodard

Helping Others . . .

Mrs. MacLawhorn

Mrs. West

The guidance office is one place where you can receive help to reach your highest potential in life. Some students go there for help in continuing their education. Many go there to receive help. In this endeavor, Mrs. MacLawhorn and Mrs. West do a fantastic job.

During the summer of '75, the '76 staffers began to consider the arduous task before them: the job of putting together a yearbook.

As pleasant summer memories began to fade, the annual staff spent long hours laboring over messy quadpacks, tedious periods composing copy, and engaged themselves in extensive arguments over trivia and petty detail. As each deadline drew nearer (each proceeded by a harrowing deluge of work and tension), the members of the annual staff were, in effect, drawn closer together. And because of their closeness, at the end of the year they felt they were greatly rewarded by the outcome of Warrior VII.

As the departing members of the staff bid farewell, the '77 staffers looked forward to another year of hard work and fun.

Mrs. Asbury and Betsey Sahlman found some of the last year pictures to be funny.

Chris Lee, Beverly Edwards, and Rhonda Coley think three heads are better than one as they try to come up with an unique lay-out.

Linda Frazier and Owen Ragland try seriously to convince Kay Overton that each of their pictures are good ones.

Shayna Taswell stops long enough to ask Pat Reboli her opinion as Julie Barnes works independently on her lay-out.

Randy Davis and Nelson Lancaster are left alone to work diligently to meet a close deadline.

Annual staff photographer Doug Price is caught in action.

Female Football

Janet Hastings finds the other team a constant bother in playing powder puff.

Tina Ham exclaims "What are you cheering for; we lost the ball?"

Our yearly PowderPuff Game was played by a group of enthusiastic girls. These players, along with coaches Steve Parrish, Owen Ragland, Steve Mathews, and Bill Raynor, practiced hard all through the Thanksgiving Holidays.

The referees, Greg Gambrell, Jackie Callahan, and Rick Porter, had their hands full trying to keep track of the constant action on the field. The score was tied down to the last minutes of the game when the Juniors made the victorious touchdown. This ended the eventful night with the score: Juniors 12, Seniors and Sophomores 6.

Last, but not least, because they really brightened up the field, were the amazing cheerleaders. These cheerleaders, who were all of the male gender, found it took a lot of energy to last through the night. These boys cheered the girls on in their quest for touchdowns.

Lisa Adams asks, "Are you still there, Lori?"

Steve Parrish coaches the sophomores and seniors during the game.

Steve Mathews claims coaching is as fun as playing.

"1-2-3, cha, cha, cha."

Referees, Rick Porter, Greg Gambrell, and Jackie Callahan, get a bird's-eye view of the game.

We've Got Spirit

Julie Barnes thinks that being a clown is fun, until it comes time to take off the make-up.

On 50's day Lisa Adams and Tom Houston rolled up jeans and white socks while on their way to class.

Many warriors came out to see the bears burned before the big game.

Shirley Sutton, Joe Milkovits, and Barbara Ragland are in the spotlight during half-time at the Homecoming game.

How sweet it is!

Spirit week got off to an exceptional start with Bicentennial day. This really got everyone into the spirit of Seventy-Six. Tuesday was clown day with make-up, balloons, and oversized shoes. 50's day was on Wednesday, and Little Kids day was on Thursday. Friday was the traditional warrior day with a warrior's pep rally that got everyone ready for the prodigious game that evening. Eastern Wayne whipped the New Bern bears 14-16!

During Spirit Week there were also evening activities. On Tuesday night there was an immense bon fire. On Wednesday evening, following 50's day, there was a sock-hop. Friday night was the Homecoming game, with various half-time activities. On Saturday evening there was a Homecoming dance and 100% Plus provided the entertainment.

Homecoming week was sponsored by the Varsity Cheerleading squad.

Rick Fannin takes pride in the Student Government float, which was presented at the Homecoming game during half-time.

Beauty is the moment of transition as if the forms

. . . Ralph Waldo Emerson

On the cold night of October 31 these ten lovely young ladies stood in front of a huge crowd. All of them held their heads high as they were presented to the student body of Eastern Wayne. To be out front makes one feel like she's on top of the world, and that's exactly how they felt that night. All ten girls participated in the great week of spirit by dressing up in the many costumes. They will never forget this most glorious night.

The Pow-Wow staff has done it again. Another year of hard labor and great production. The newspaper staff and Eastern Wayne were extremely privileged to have been able to print their own newspaper. This printing was done by Graphic Art students at the Wayne County Diagnostic Center under the direct supervision of Mr. Woody Caton. There was much cooperation between the writing staff, led by Susan Smiley, editor, and the printing staff. Members met daily with Mrs. Warren to plan and execute the production of the newspaper.

"I've never had to stay so clean," says Richard Bledsoe.

"I don't understand all these big machines," states Diana Allen.

Spirit of '76 in Football

Captain Greg Gambrell and Steve Jasper meet opposition before the game.

1975 - The year that could have been . . . The Eastern Wayne Warriors launched the season with 3 essential victories, beating 3 of their past adversaries. From then on it was as though the warriors were testing their abilities to contend with an enthroned dynasty - this was the year EWHS advanced into the 4A conference.

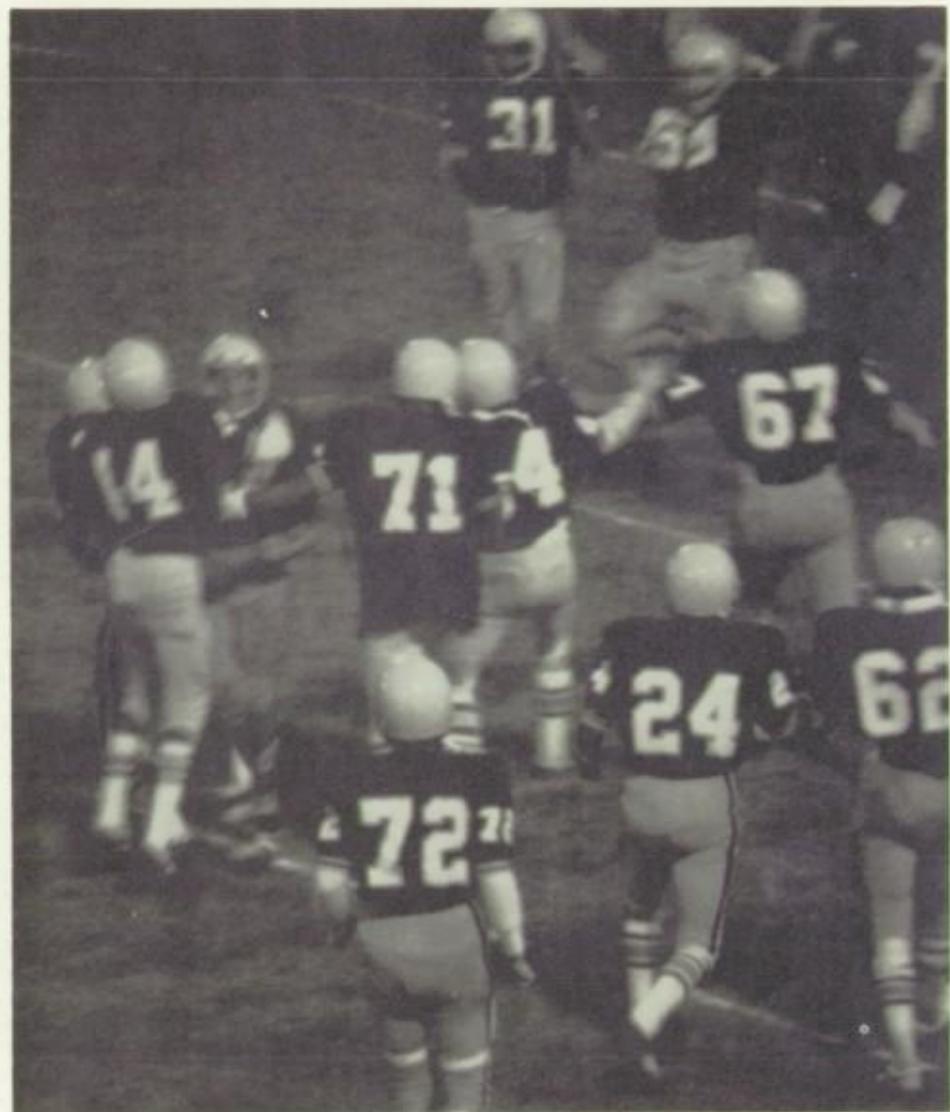

Greg takes a breather.

Paul Richardson and Coach Garner watch the action.

Steve Mathews thinks about what he will run when he goes back in.

Everybody is happy when the Warriors win.

The offense prepares to sweep around the end on the Saint defense.

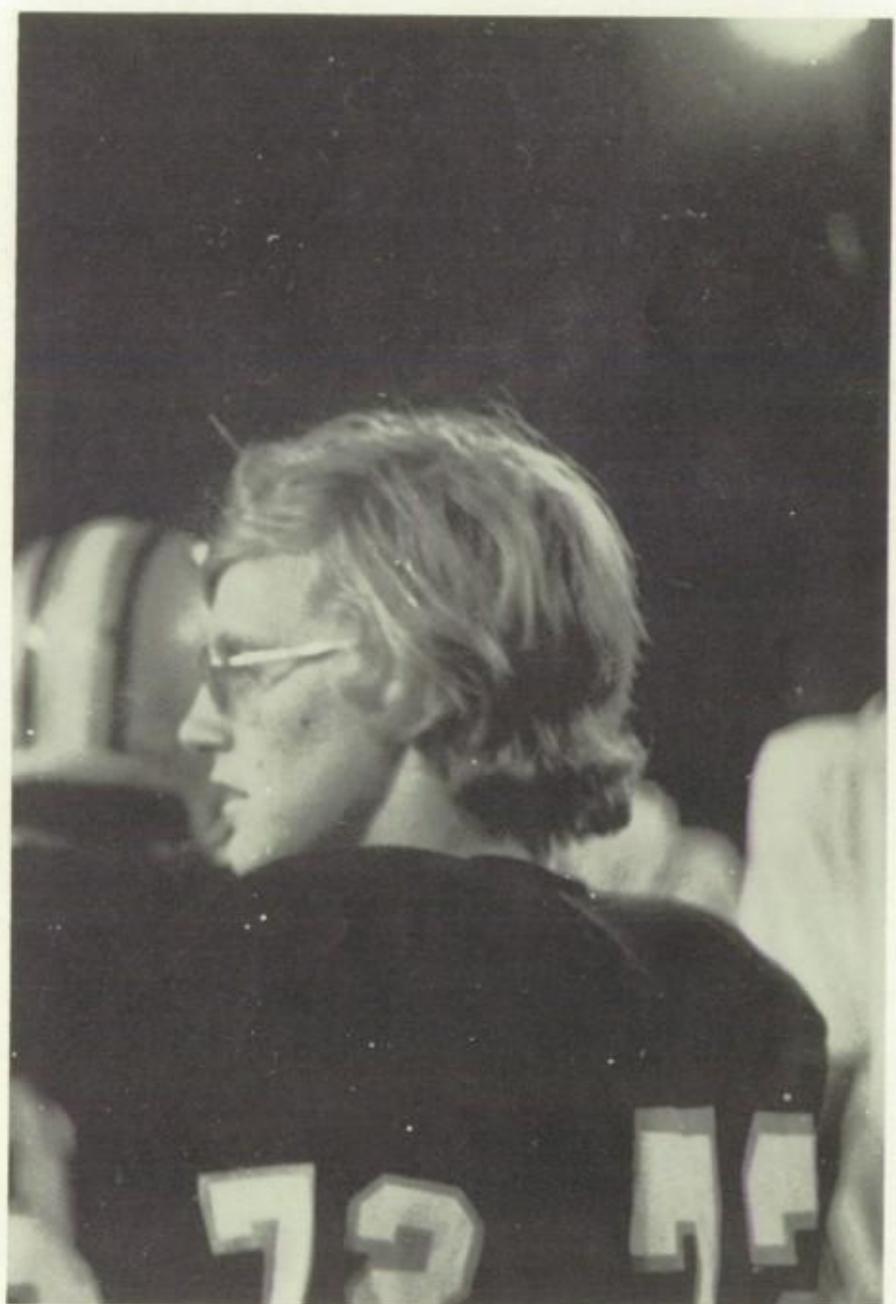

Through all the year, the Warriors impressed upon all those who came to meet the challenge that they were indeed faced with unified and concerted effort. All the injuries and long felt hours of practice faded to insignificance when the Warriors succeeded in playing as a team and they were a team.

The whole team watches as the offense is about to score against Kinston.

Steve Matthews fights to get off a pass.

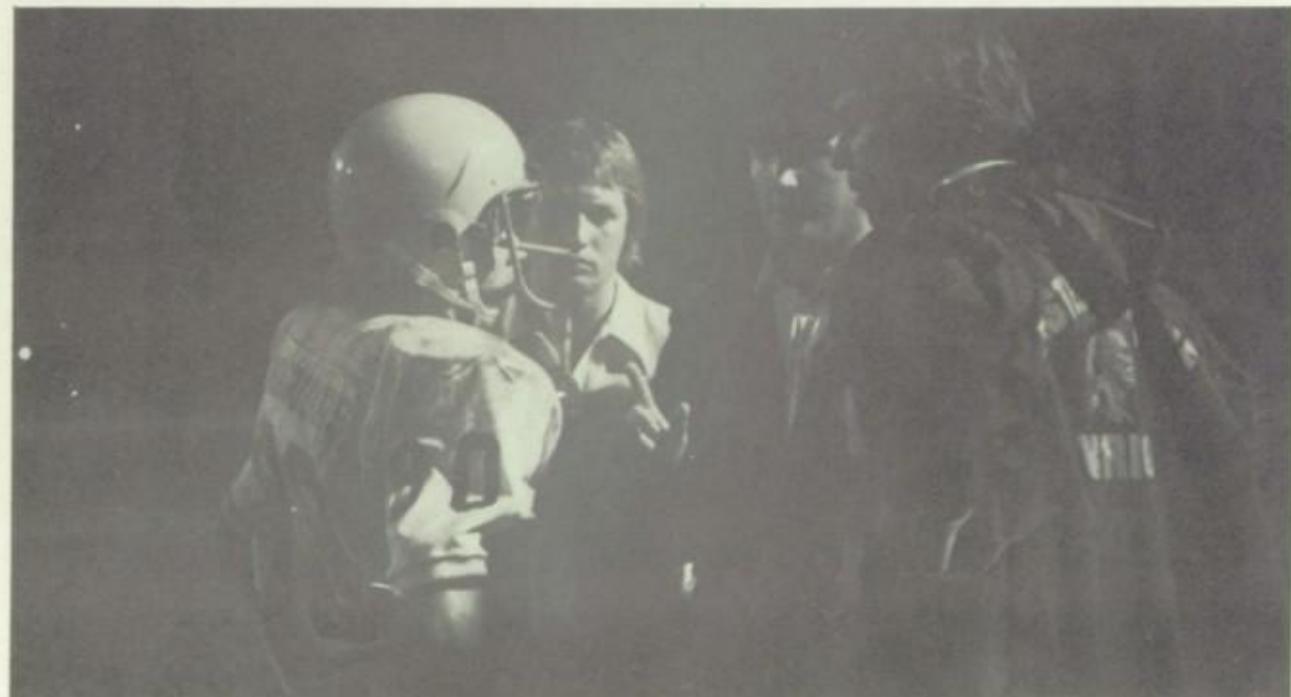

Bill Fisher seems confident before the game starts.

Al Musgrave, the head trainer, checks out Jackie Callahan.

All the Warriors get fired up before a conference game with Kinston.

They have got it together and now here they come.

Leo Taswell takes off after catching a punt.

Warriors in Action!

Steve Matthews quickly gets off a long one against the Saints.

The coaches talk over their defense during a time-out.

Rick Chastain is brought down after making a fine catch.

Young Warriors

Defense!

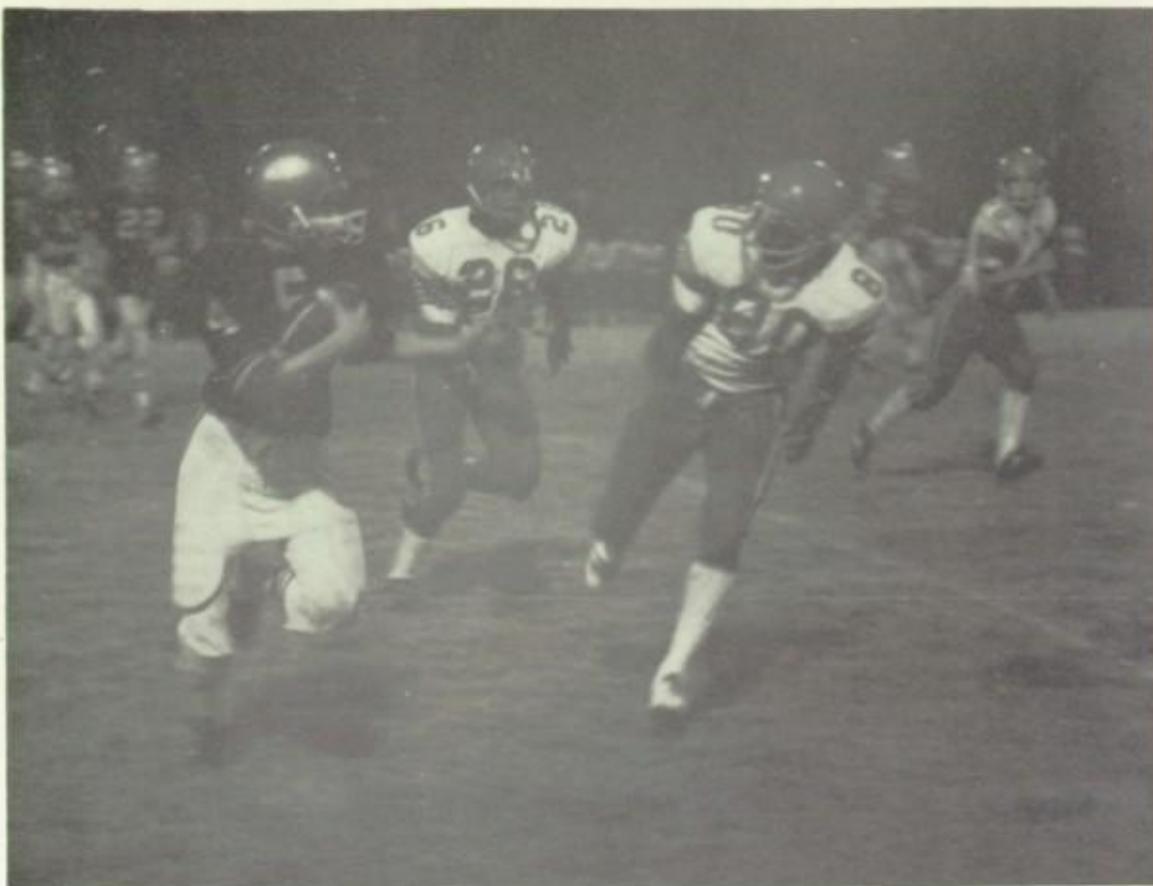

Coach O'Neal explains to Greg Dowell how to run the next play.

If Junior Varsity Football is supposed to offer future varsity players a taste of things to come, then the 1975-1976 season was indeed a knowing experience. Fortunately success is not measured solely on the win-loss record . . .

The experience gained by those devoted young men should prove invaluable to the future of Eastern Wayne football. Our hats go off to the J.V. players who stood by their team and put forth an effort.

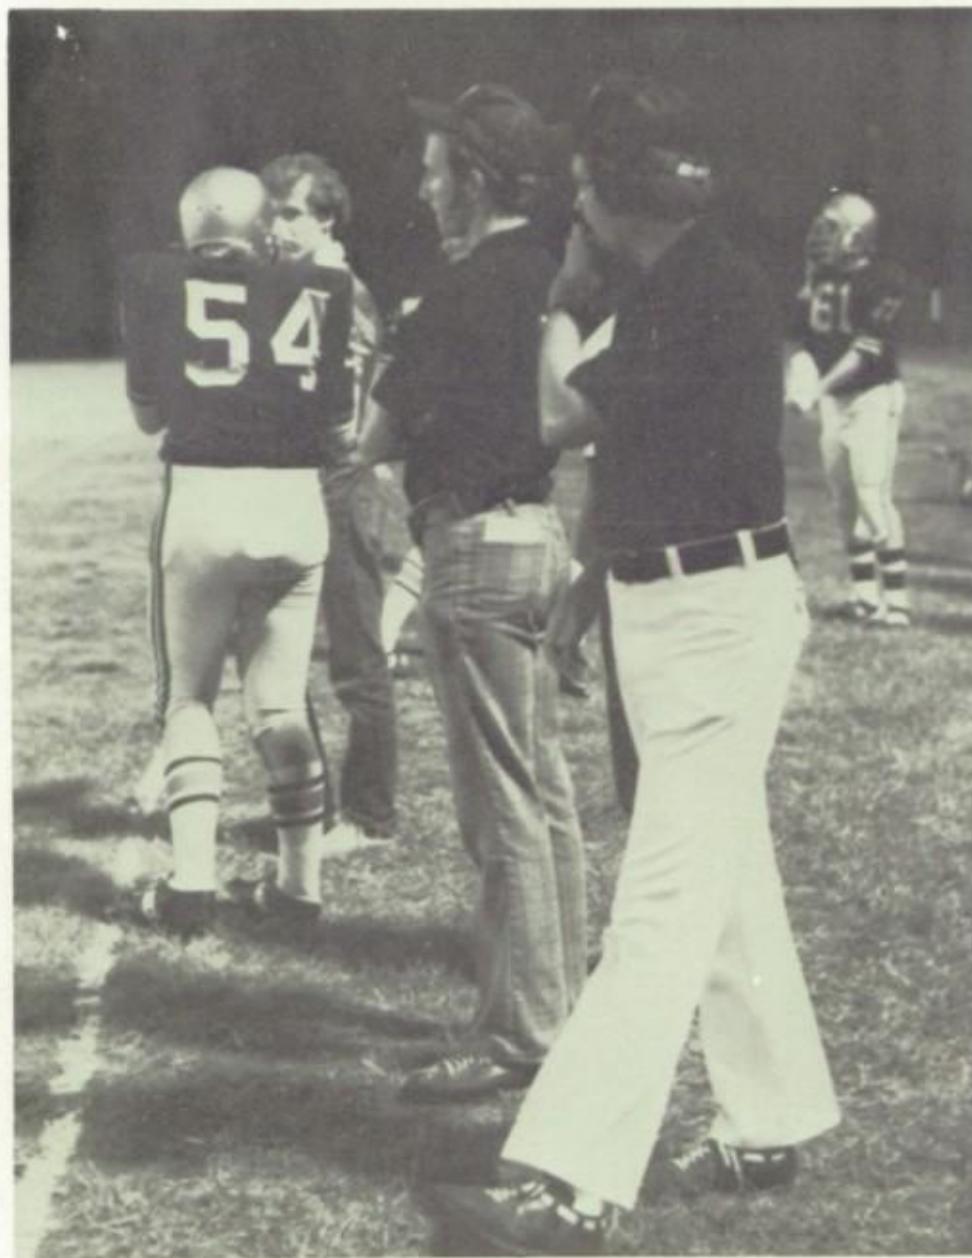

Chris Sweesy is tackled after a good run.

An unidentified J.V. ball handler tries to evade two tacklers.

Dan Hail slowly walks to the waiting coaches.

Coach Peele and Coach O'Neal watch the action.

Shooting for a Victory

Leo Taswell watches for an opening against Goldsboro.

1976 was a super year for basketball. The competition was tough and the games were good. This was a new year of basketball with a new Head Coach and a new young team. Game support for the Warriors was excellent and the team responded by giving some crowd-thrilling ballgames only decided in the last few seconds. Experience plays a major role in the game of basketball and the team was hurt some there with only seniors.

"Let's pass this thing around," says Larry Gardner.

It's not winning or losing, but how you hold your mouth.

Up, up, and away with that little orange ball.

Coach Austin likes a real enthusiastic group of ball-handlers.

Cedric thought that Jimmy the Greek was joking when he got 3 to 1 odds.

Sophomore Jim Ussery tries for an open pass.

Charles Lewis and Larry Gardner act like they know where David Allen's shot is going.

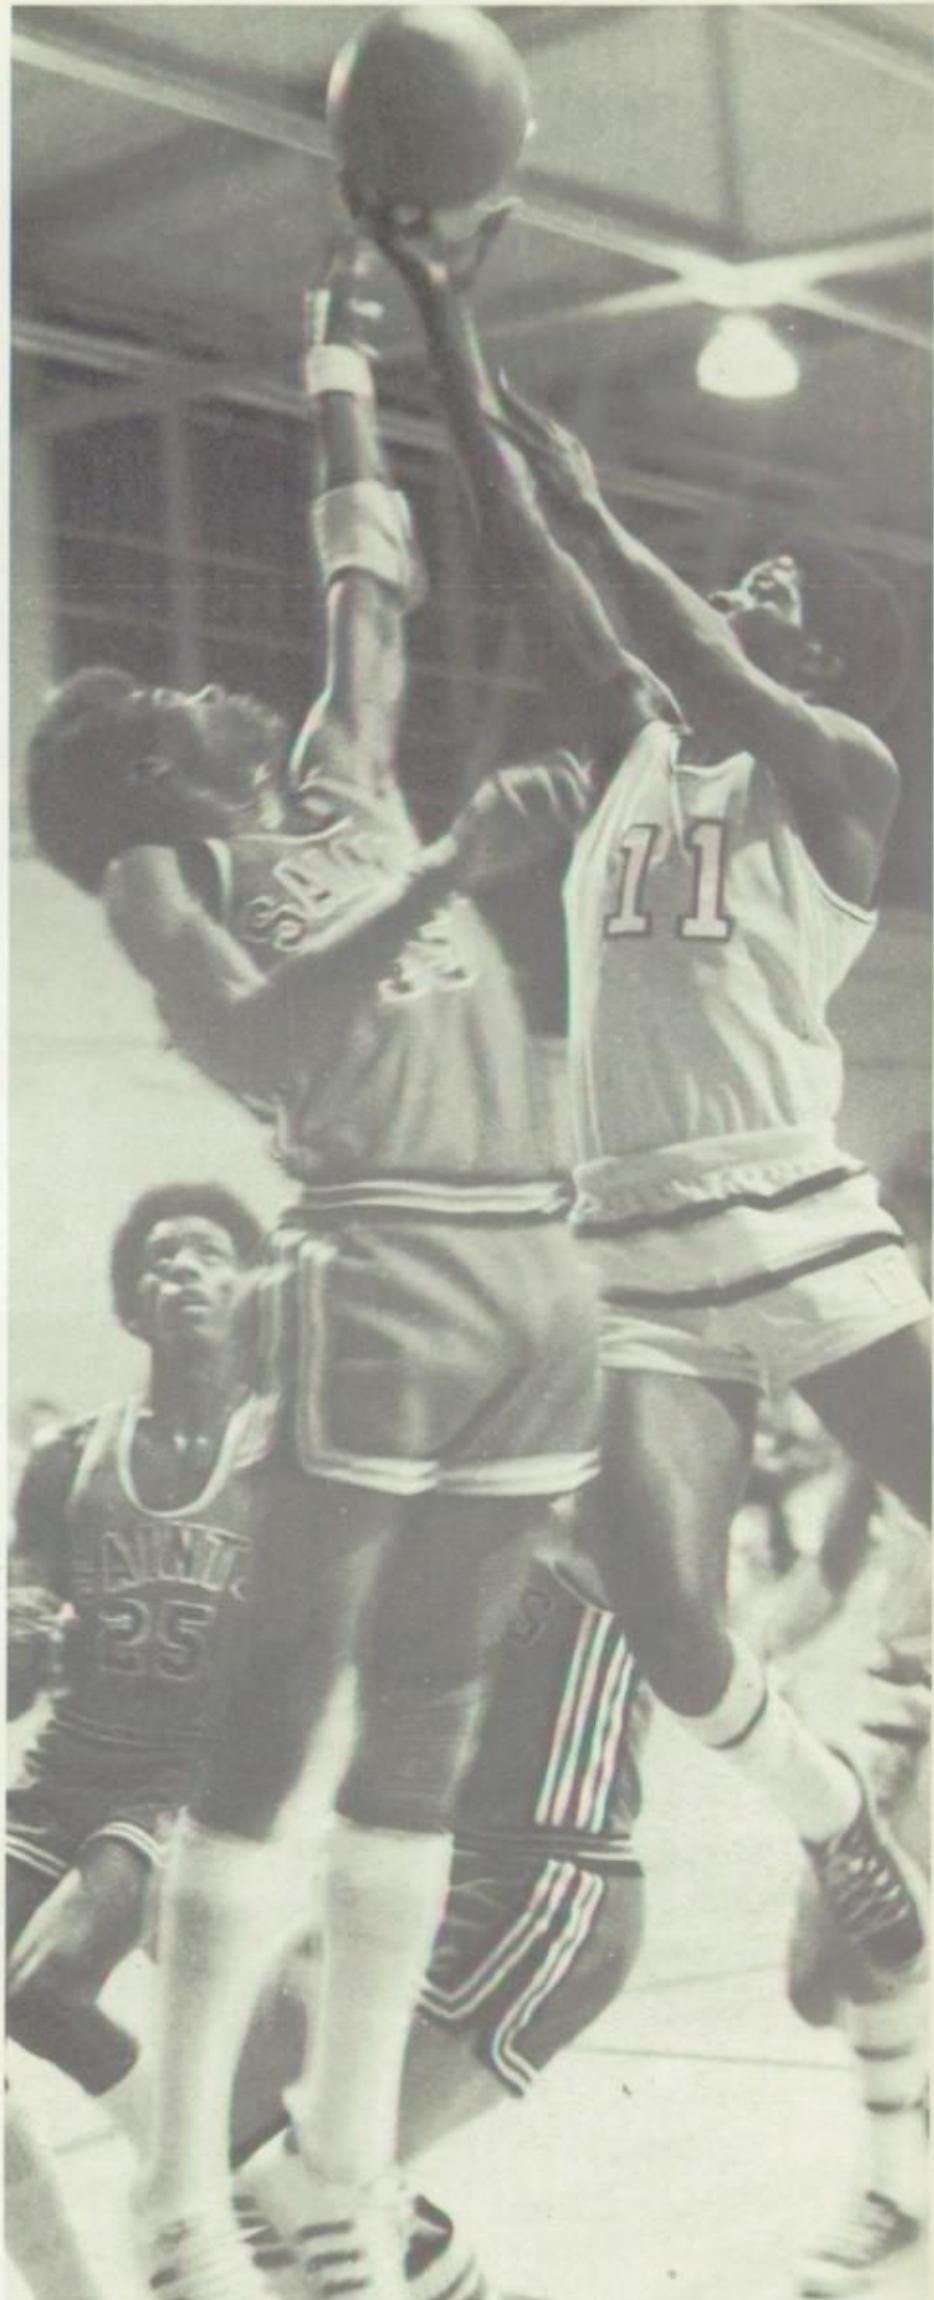

Dennis, one of a long line of Jackson ball-handlers for E.W., takes a high jump shot while everyone anticipates the rebound.

Larry Gardner lays down for a short nap.

"Good try kid, but this one is mine," says Charles Lewis.

Come here you durn little ball before I get mad.

Going over plays for the hundredth time and running suicide sprints under 25 seconds seems like a lot just to play 20 games of basketball. Five hours of practice a week for just about two hours time in the actual game. Is it worth it? To them it is because they want those two short hours and they want to play those 20 games and go on and play more games if they can. It means giving up a lot of other things but to win a Conference or even State Championship they would give up even more.

Keith Perrara wonders why no one else is jumping.

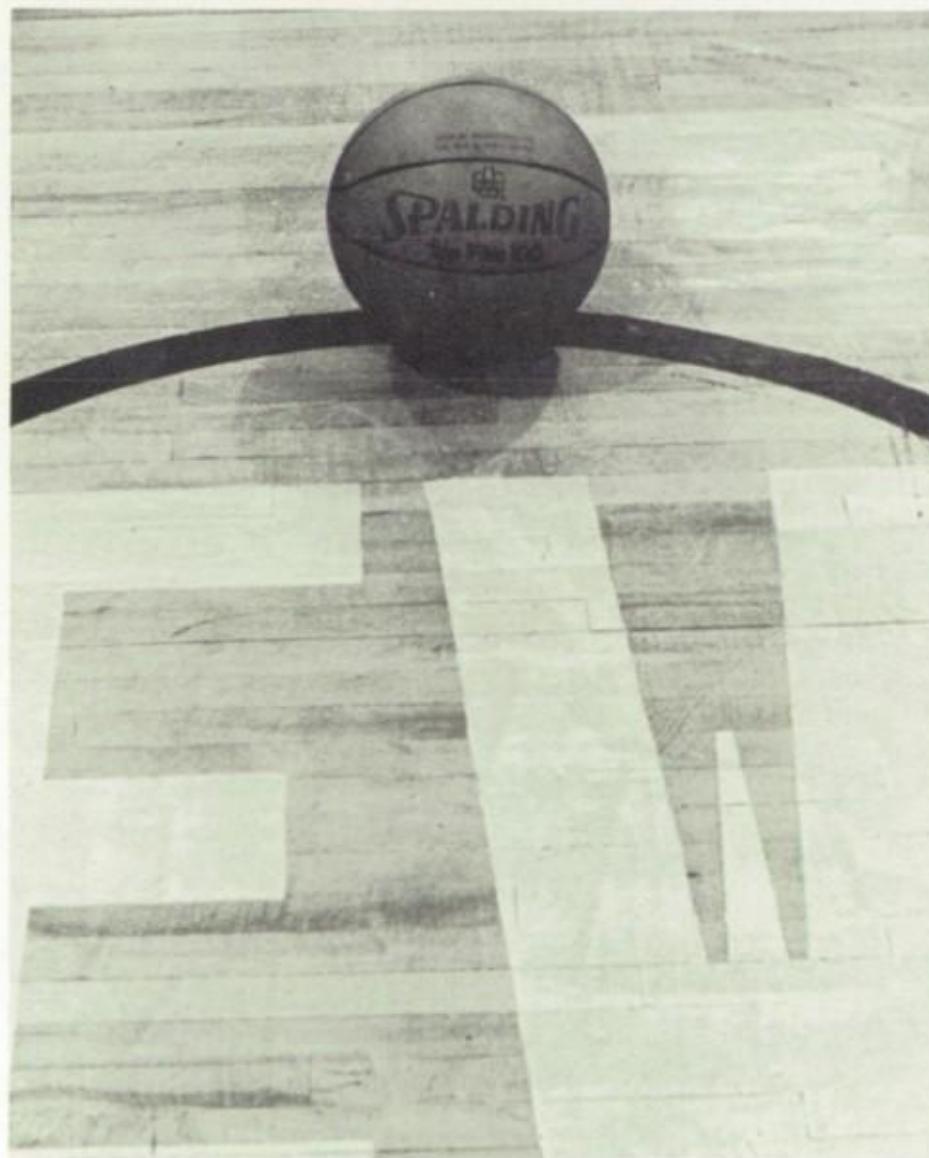

Larry Gardner goes for a long two.

Everybody wants a piece of the action.

Lady Warriors

Everybody seems happy after a winning game.

Although experience was low with the Lady Warriors . . . Spirit was definitely high! The team was composed of only 5 returning lettermen . . . the rest, sophomores lacking experience in high school basketball techniques. The teams overall inexperience combined with the warriors entrance into 4A competition made this season's efforts a learning process.

The 1975-76 basketball season for the Lady Warriors was a success considering all factors. We are looking forward to a winning success in the coming years.

New Year, New Team, New Coach

Tim Kelly watches for the break.

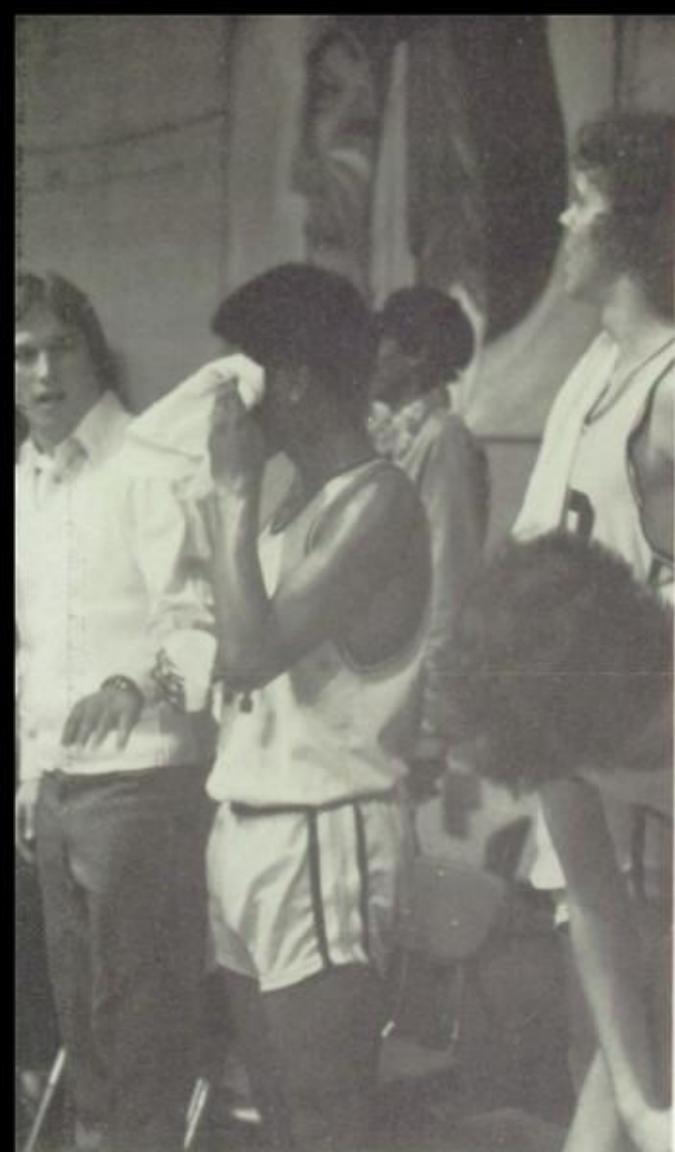

The JV Basketball season started out well with several wins over high-ranked teams, but slowed down when they met some tough 4-A competition. Since Coach Austin moved up to the varsity position, Carl Lancaster, a former student at Eastern Wayne, has returned to teach and do some coaching. The JV team has excellent potential for next year and with good shooting ability and height.

Nobody seems to be able to control the ball.

Everybody looks on with interest.

The team had lots of experience this year with ten seniors which would be needed in the 4-A competition. Many hours of practice were spent to put together a winning season.

After a year layoff the girls tennis team got started back again. Coach Hinnant was responsible for setting up the team and working with the girls. Playing in the 4-A conference brought stiff competition, but with most of the girls coming back again next year we can do pretty good.

The girl swingers are as follows: Celia Johnson, Susan Paparazo, Christy Bailes, Debbie Coats, Shelly Lovell, Lisa Fischer, Laurie Pait, Sherry Maddox, Pat Reboli, Shelia Cantenwein, Pam Klein, Carol Carter, and Linda Leacott.

Ed Brown demonstrates the typical second baseman's position, eyes shut and glove stuck in front to protect him.

Coach O'Neal would like Woody Sutton to swing the bat as well as he swings with the girls.

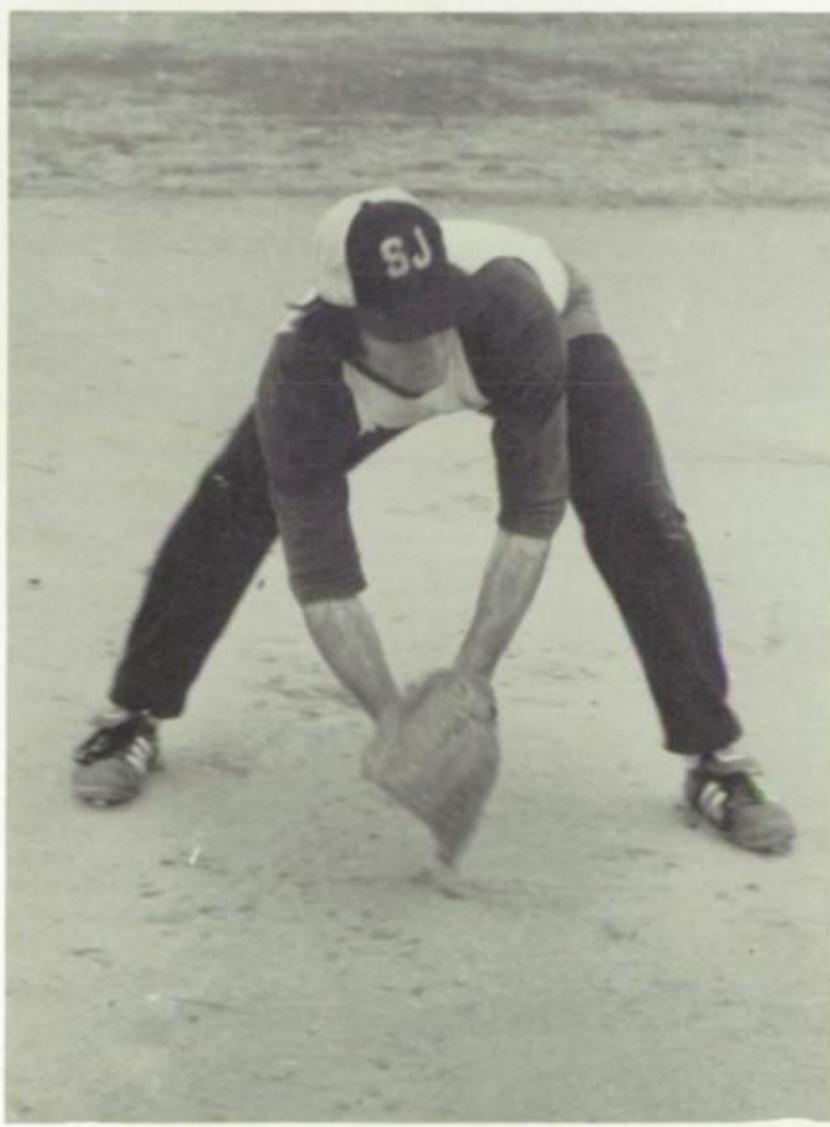

"I dare you to throw one anywhere near here," says Billy Suggs.

Greg Gambrell claims that he could never be caught off-guard.

Willie Jarnigan isn't waiting for fishing worms but little white baseballs.

Larry Ward grins in anticipation.

Mark Massengill tells Bernie Patterson that he always wanted a photo-finish.

Training for the track team began in February with a lot of eager individuals ready for strenuous, hard work. Track takes hours upon hours of training for only a few competitive moments.

Just Keep on Singing!

The chorus, just doing their thing . . .

The tense moments of waiting before a performance.

Ray Smeltzer is filling the air with "Thus Saith the Lord."

With practice and a note of determination, Director Angelo Holman, Jr. made Eastern Wayne's chorus another big success this year. Their harmonious voices rang with a variety of songs that moved and brightened the hearts of all. Adding to the enchantment of the audience were soloists: Bobby Smith, Brenda Robinson, Carlton Hinnant, Jesse Cox, Ray Smeltzer, Bev Edwards, Dana Gay, Bill Sugg, Carol Adams, Nate Hobbs and Aldrena Rodgers. They all proved that we are endowed with talent.

The choir gave superior performances in many different places. They started the year with a performance at First Baptist Church of Goldsboro and gave Christmas concerts at Terrytown Mall, Rocky Mount, North Carolina and Eastern Wayne Senior High School. Each time the audience was delighted with the concerts.

In February members traveled to Raleigh to participate in the Small Ensemble festival, and in March they went to New Bern to participate in the District Festival. A highlight of the year was when the chorus performed in Oxford, North Carolina. All of the choral group's ventures outside of Wayne County proved to be highly successful.

Now say Oooo.

Nate Hobbs and Bev Edwards melodiously sing their solo stanzas of "New Born."

Look at that grin! It's not every day you get a present.

Ears open as Dana Gay sings "Sweet Little Jesus Boy."

Open your mouth and sing ahh!

A Stunning New Look — a Vibrant New Sound!

Our beloved teacher, Mr. Holman - "We've got to hold up his banner; We've got to hold it up until we die!"

A unique combination of classroom learning and outside performance - this is the Eastern Wayne Sr. High School Band. Only in the music area of school life are students able in one organization to express themselves artistically and creatively, to develop latent talents, and to render an indispensable service to the school.

Under the leadership of Mr. Angelo Holman Jr., many different ideas were developed and a few changes instituted. The students profited a great deal from this year of musical experience, and came to realize that continuous and arduous work were necessary to uphold a superior tradition and to keep from becoming stagnant and ineffectual.

The band performed at all home games and did a special bicentennial half-time presentation for the homecoming game. It also performed in Fire Prevention Week, Veterans Day, and Christmas parades. A music festival and the annual spring concert were presented at the end of the year.

A new addition to the marching family this year were the flag girls. They marched at all parades and added to the quality which made the Eastern Wayne Band No. 1.

David Burkholder, Curt Smith, and Mr. Mike Lancaster; three of the many very talented people in our musical family.

A new edition to the marching family - the flag girls.

Student Government Gets Involved

The Student Government prepares baskets that will be appreciated many times over by needy families.

Andy prepares for the Morehead.

The Student Government was a very active and successful organization at Eastern Wayne this year due largely to the efforts of interested members. The S.G.A. began its activities by entering a float in the Homecoming pre-game show and taking first place in the float competition.

Turkey day was just around the corner, and S.G.A. held a Thanksgiving Drive, collecting over 120 food items and enough money for three turkeys, which were taken to needy families. Students and faculty soon found themselves enjoying their lunch to the tunes of Elton John, Barry White, and the Doobie Brothers as the result of S.G.A.'s installation of a juke box in the cafeteria. Other activities included selling E.W. license plates; raising and lowering the American and N.C. flags; planning a Ms. Eastern Wayne Beauty Pageant (male contestants), Faculty Appreciation Day, and Stunt Night; and participating in Inter-School Council activities.

A Valentine Dance featuring the New Cavaliers and door prizes was hosted by S.G.A. in February. Another project was helping class officers in making class flags.

Eastern Wayne's Student Government was composed of representatives from each of twelve districts into which the county was divided. Class officers also attended the S.G.A. meetings, which were held every two weeks.

Giving and Receiving

The purpose of the Emergency School Aid Act (ESAA) this year was to serve as an advisor to school district officials on the implementation of the ESAA project and to develop activities in their individual school that would enable them to fulfill their advisory responsibilities effectively.

During the year one of their projects was to visit the ESAA Reading lab, Math lab, and the teachers with VIP's in the eastern area schools. They also held a joint meeting with the SAC's from Eastern Wayne and Greenwood Junior High School in January. Here they shared their ideas and experiences. All in all the ESAA had a good year and felt they had accomplished something worthwhile.

The Volunteer Instruction Program, (VIP), is a component of the ESAA. This was its third year at Eastern Wayne.

A VIP workshop was held during August to familiarize the aides with the VIP program and to help them prepare for their students. The workshop was conducted by the VIP coordinator with the assistance of various resource persons.

There were forty-one VIP's who worked with the students either individually or in small groups. On-going in-service training was provided during the year to help the VIP's increase their skills.

The spirit of VIP continued to grow this year with a county-wide VIP booth at the fair and a county-wide newspaper.

The Volunteer Instruction Program was coordinated by Mrs. Delois S. Price who provided the training and overall supervision of the program.

The Brains?

The Beta Club began its '76 year with the induction of new members in October. One of the first activities was the November Committee's presentation of Thanksgiving gifts to the residents of Oak Manor Nursing Home. In December, Beta members celebrated by having a Christmas party, complete with the exchange of gag gifts.

By January the club was in full swing, having a fund-raising project. In April, the E.W. Beta Club sent delegates to the State Convention.

'76 proved to be a very profitable year for the Beta Club and its members.

Then they sponsored the Powder Puff football game which was, for the first time, played at night. Everyone enjoyed the "cheerleaders" immensely.

The Vocational Industrial Clubs of America officers for the 1975-76 year were: President - George Moore, Vice Pres. - Kreston Rose, Sec. - Jeff Fannin, Treas. - Steve Bostic, Reporter - Ricky Grady, Parl. - Adris Perkins. VICA took on as their project the cleaning out of a campsite for the residents of O'Berry. They also had a float in the homecoming parade, which placed second. VICA successfully had a candy sell, the proceeds of which were used to buy VICA blazers. Eastern Wayne was well represented by the club members at both District and State competition. The District convention was held at Lenoir Community College on March second. And the state Convention was held at Charlotte from April 8-10th. This was a great year for VICA.

The FBLA started off a successful year with forty-four members. Their first project was a Tom-Wat sale in which the high salesmen were given a pizza party. The group went to Gray's Rest Home in November as a Thanksgiving project. To brighten up the main doors of the school at Christmas, a few members made wreaths. They also sold them and made a profit which went to the March of Dimes. In January the group was entertained with a talk on "Job Success." February was a busy month for them as they observed FBLA week, sponsored a "Mr. Mod" and "Miss Mod" contest for the March of Dimes, and took part in a district typing contest.

As the year moved on the FBLA's prepared for the State Leadership Conference and gave the senior citizens a birthday party in March. In the spring they attended the State Convention and took part in the contests. As one of their big projects they purchased a collator for the Business Department. To end the year smoothly they had a FBLA banquet in May.

The FFA exists today because of a cooperative spirit and a desire on the part of students to have an organization in which they can secure practical business experience. They act as their own instructors and enjoy good fellowship with others who have a common interest in agriculture and business. Members strive for improved agriculture, better local communities and responsible citizenship.

The enjoyment of the car wash far surpassed the number of cars washed.

Purpose of FCA: "To confront athletes and coaches, and through them the youth of our nation with the challenge and adventure of following Christ, participating in His Church and serving Him through our vocations."

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes started the year with a car wash. This and other fund-raising projects provided the club with the money needed to finance their activities.

Next, they held a joint meeting with the FCA of Goldsboro High School. Later, they organized the first Homecoming Float Competition. The children at the Developmental School at Walnut Street School were given a Christmas party sponsored by the members of the club. They also went Christmas caroling.

Regional rallies were held with the members in attendance. During the coming summer the members will attend summer conferences.

Tomorrow's Scientists

Mrs. Bell finds the ameba very interesting.

The EWHS Science Club stressed the value of the scientific mind in the development of a better tomorrow.

The Science Club, sponsored by Mrs. Bell, asked that all members create a project this year for a contest for the NCSA.

Membership requirements for entry into the three year old science club are few, but important. One must be genuinely interested in science and possibly investigating the possibility of having a career in the field of science.

CARING ENOUGH TO GIVE OUR BEST.

That's what the Health Careers Club is all about. The purpose of the HCC is to introduce students to the opportunities and rewards open for education and employment in the field of health, while acquainting them with health-oriented projects, activities, and atmospheres. The theme for 1976 of the Health Careers Clubs of North Carolina (HCCNC) was "COMMITTED TO CARING."

This year, as well as making their usual visits to local Health care facilities, the club took special trips to Burrough's Wellcome Pharmaceutical Company in Greenville and O'Berry of Goldsboro. All the patients at both Oak Manor and Guardian Care Nursing Homes received individual Christmas angels and heard the HCC's melodious voices in Christmas carols.

The second year club members began their clinical experience at Wayne Memorial Hospital on Feb. 2, working there two hours a day, four days a week for nearly all of the second semester. On Mar. 11-13, a delegation of club members attended the 15th annual HCCNC Congress at the Holiday Inn - Four Seasons in Greensboro.

The Health Careers Club has helped - and will continue to help - many students make career choices that are suitable for them. In doing so, Mrs. Nethercutt and the club members were kept busy; but, as the slogan says, and as the HCC members will agree, "CARING - IT'S WHAT'S HAPPENING TODAY!"

Thirty-two girls joined the Future Homemakers of America this year in order to help assume their roles in society through home economics education.

The club provided the members with opportunities for self-development, preparation for family and community living and for employment. It helped strengthen the function of the family as a basic unit of society. Another purpose was to encourage democracy through cooperative action in the home and society.

FHA had many activities for the '75-'76 school year. New members were inducted with a candlelight ceremony in Nov. The club had a party with gifts given to some O'Berry residents in Dec. They also prepared a basket for a needy family. The week of Feb. 8-14 was National FHA Week. A spring cleaning project was carried out in April around Eastern Wayne's campus.

The 1975-76 school year was a great one for the warrior artists. The club won first prize in a Christmas Mural contest which was sponsored by the Hungry Bull restaurant. This mural will be used for the Hungry Bull Christmas cards next year. The prize money was used to help finance trips to ECU and the North Carolina Museum of Art. The club also participated in another contest sponsored by the Hungry Bull. This mural contest had a bicentennial theme. For the biggest project of the year the club did a large painting of a warrior for the new gym.

The EWHS Chess Club had a great, first year. There was much participation and effort to make it successful. The members strived to promote the game of chess. In this endeavour, many new players were introduced to the game and experienced players became more proficient. The club organized several tournaments within our school and challenged other schools within our county. The Chess Club prospered under the help and guidance of Mr. Fisher in their initial year.

Where There's Spirit . . . There's a Win

Spirits rise with the upcoming game.

Spirit and Energy were two of the outstanding qualities of the Varsity Cheerleaders of Eastern Wayne High School. These "wonder girls" helped promote the student body spirit by plastering the walls with spirit boosters, decorating the lockers of the players, and selling Warrior and "Seniors Shine-on" buttons and blue and gold pom-poms. One of the many projects of the cheerleaders was the Spirit Week campaign in which the student body participated by raising the spirit of the players as well as themselves. The Varsity Cheerleaders have made this year a little brighter and deserve a round of applause.

From painting the school trash containers to planting botanical (rose) gardens at the side of the school, the Beautification Club is dedicated to bringing beauty to the E.W. campus. Under the sponsorship of Mr. Richardson, the club was busily engaged in a number of projects and activities, including:

The general cleanups of campus that occur four to five times a year;

Seeding winter grass around the green house and in the front areas of the school;

Putting more trees on campus; and propagating over a thousand azelia cuttings for further beautifying the school;

Landscaping around the new gym.

Moving to the Music

One, two, three, pom poms up, pom poms down. Together with the beat of the music we viewed seventeen lovely young ladies going through their routines. They practiced two hours, three days a week, to prepare for pep rallies, football and basketball games and marching in parades. During the summer they attended Campbell College for four days. Under the direction of Dail Robertson, a famous dancer, they learned some new dance routine tips. These ladies really know how to entertain a crowd with perfection.

Eastern Wayne's strutting Majorettes added a lot to the parades and pep rallies. Sponsors, Mr. Holman and Mrs. Becton were always ready to help. Mr. Holman would perfect an awkward step and Mrs. Becton would pass on her many fancy twirls.

Practices became hectic before it was time to march in a parade or perform at halftime. The Majorettes participated in the Goldsboro Christmas parade, Fremont Christmas parade, the Veterans Day parade, the Fire-Prevention parade and the seemingly endless parade at Cherry Hospital. With a baton in their hand, and toes pointed the radiant majorettes will march on . . .

The drama department, under the direction of Mrs. Charlotte Darwin, has been very active this year. The many field trips to ECU for the drama workshop proved to be very helpful, as the department put on several successful plays. The Christmas play, "The Little Match Girl," warmed the hearts of many a young child, as the drama students performed for Eastern Wayne Elementary and the Seymour Johnson Service Club. After going to the Readers' Theater in Chapel Hill, the students were inspired to put on their own version and from there, a three act play by a well known playwright. A lot of hard work and cooperation went into making these plays and the year the best possible.

Last year members of the bus driver's club of Eastern Wayne started meeting with members of the county board. They helped set up a safety program for the drivers. Also parents whose children ride the buses had a chance to discuss problems with the county board.

The club had few activities they enjoyed this year. Some of the members took an interest in O'Berry Center. The drivers went to a banquet in May held for the Wayne County Area Bus Drivers.

In appreciation for the hard work Mr. Richardson did for the club, the members presented him with a beautiful watch at the Christmas assembly. They also appreciated the support of Mr. King, Mr. Boyette, their trainer, and Mr. Essette, the head mechanic.

The bus drivers took pride in transporting the students to and from school. It was not just another job to them.

Officers of the 1975-1976 Warrior Club - Mr. King, Mrs. Taswell - Treas., Mrs. Howell - Sec., Mr. Fischer - Pres., Mr. Durham - Vice Pres.

Mrs. Naylor and Mrs. Parsons listen attentively at a Warrior Club meeting.

President, Mr. Fischer and Secretary, Mrs. Howell - running the show.

Mrs. Watson, Mr. Watson and Al Musgrave expressing their opinions.

Members of the Eastern Wayne Warrior Club were very generous with their time in supporting the school athletic program.

The club contributed to good attendance at sports events, both at home and away. At home games they supplied personnel to keep gates, served as timers, acted as scorers, supervised seating, helped contain overcrowding, sold programs and served as public relations persons.

This year an Awards Banquet was held for football players in the fall, for the basketball teams at the conclusion of the season, and for the spring sports near the conclusion of the school year.

Monetarily, last fall, the club purchased eight blocking dummies, forty-five Rydell helmets and thirteen chin straps and forty-five game pants. The Sports Medium Program was assisted by the club and the three basketball teams were furnished with ice and oranges during the games.

Their largest fund-raising venture the past year was a barbecue supper which was a joint effort of club members, school personnel, students, and parents.

An active member helps with the coffee during the football banquet which the Warrior club sponsored.

Mr. Warren and Mr. Adams seriously think about a suggestion.

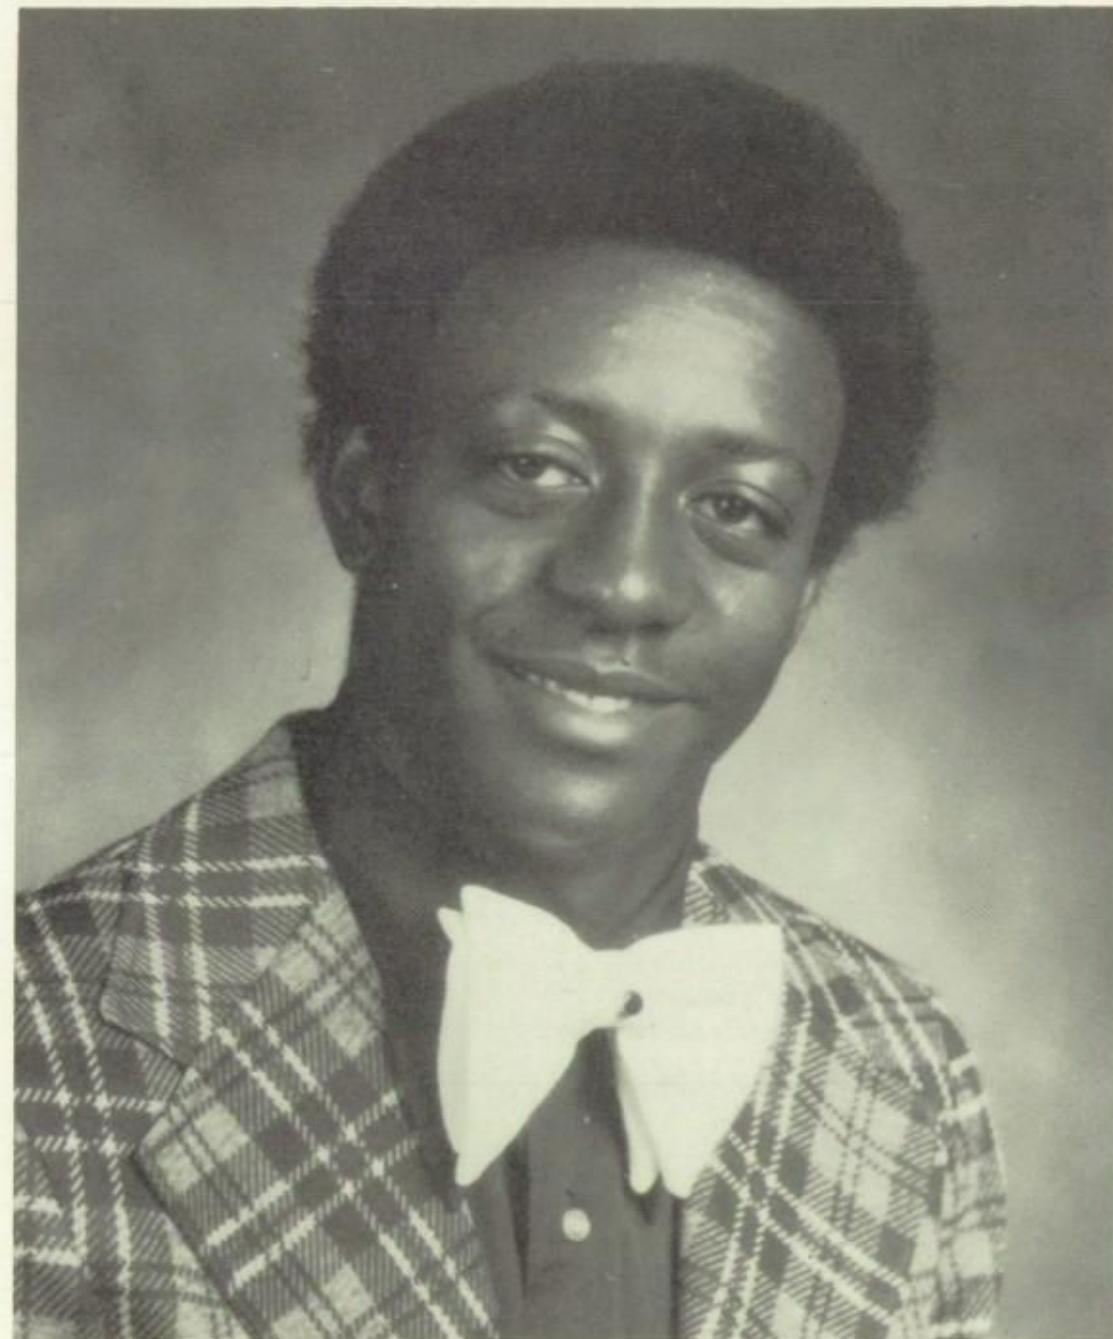

Mrs. Drewry thinks, "Mission accomplished."

In Memory of Our Loved One . . .

We, the members of Eastern Wayne would like to pay tribute to a person whom we will never forget. As a very close and special friend, the value and greatness of such a friend could never be expressed or described. To all who knew him he was a very unique individual who always wore a smile.

Although he passed away at an early age, we will always remember and love him. Only God knows what's best and He is too wise to make a mistake. We just thank God that we had the chance to know and love him. We love you James.

"No pen can write;
No tongue can tell
Our sad and bitter loss,
But God alone has helped so much
To bear our heavy cross.
Till memory fades and life departs
He will be forever in our hearts."

Acknowledgements

Putting together an annual is not the easiest job in the world. It requires long hours, patience, and lots of work, but the task would still be impossible were it not for the cooperation and help of others (besides the annual staff).

We would like to express our appreciation to the many people that helped make Warrior VII possible.

IN PARTICULAR:

Cheryl Drewry and Doug Price, our photographers, who unselfishly gave of their valuable time to take the pictorial record you now hold in your hands;

The advertisers and patrons who helped finance the annual;

The clubs (and their sponsors) who bought pages;

All the student boosters;

Mrs. Asbury, without whose invaluable assistance we'd still be working on the opening section.

AND IN GENERAL:

The administration and faculty (who helped make possible the Warrior VII study hall that gave us staffers enough time to do all the necessary work!)

And, of course, the student body (without whom the yearbook would be a ridiculous impossibility) that gives EWHS its distinctive quality and personality.

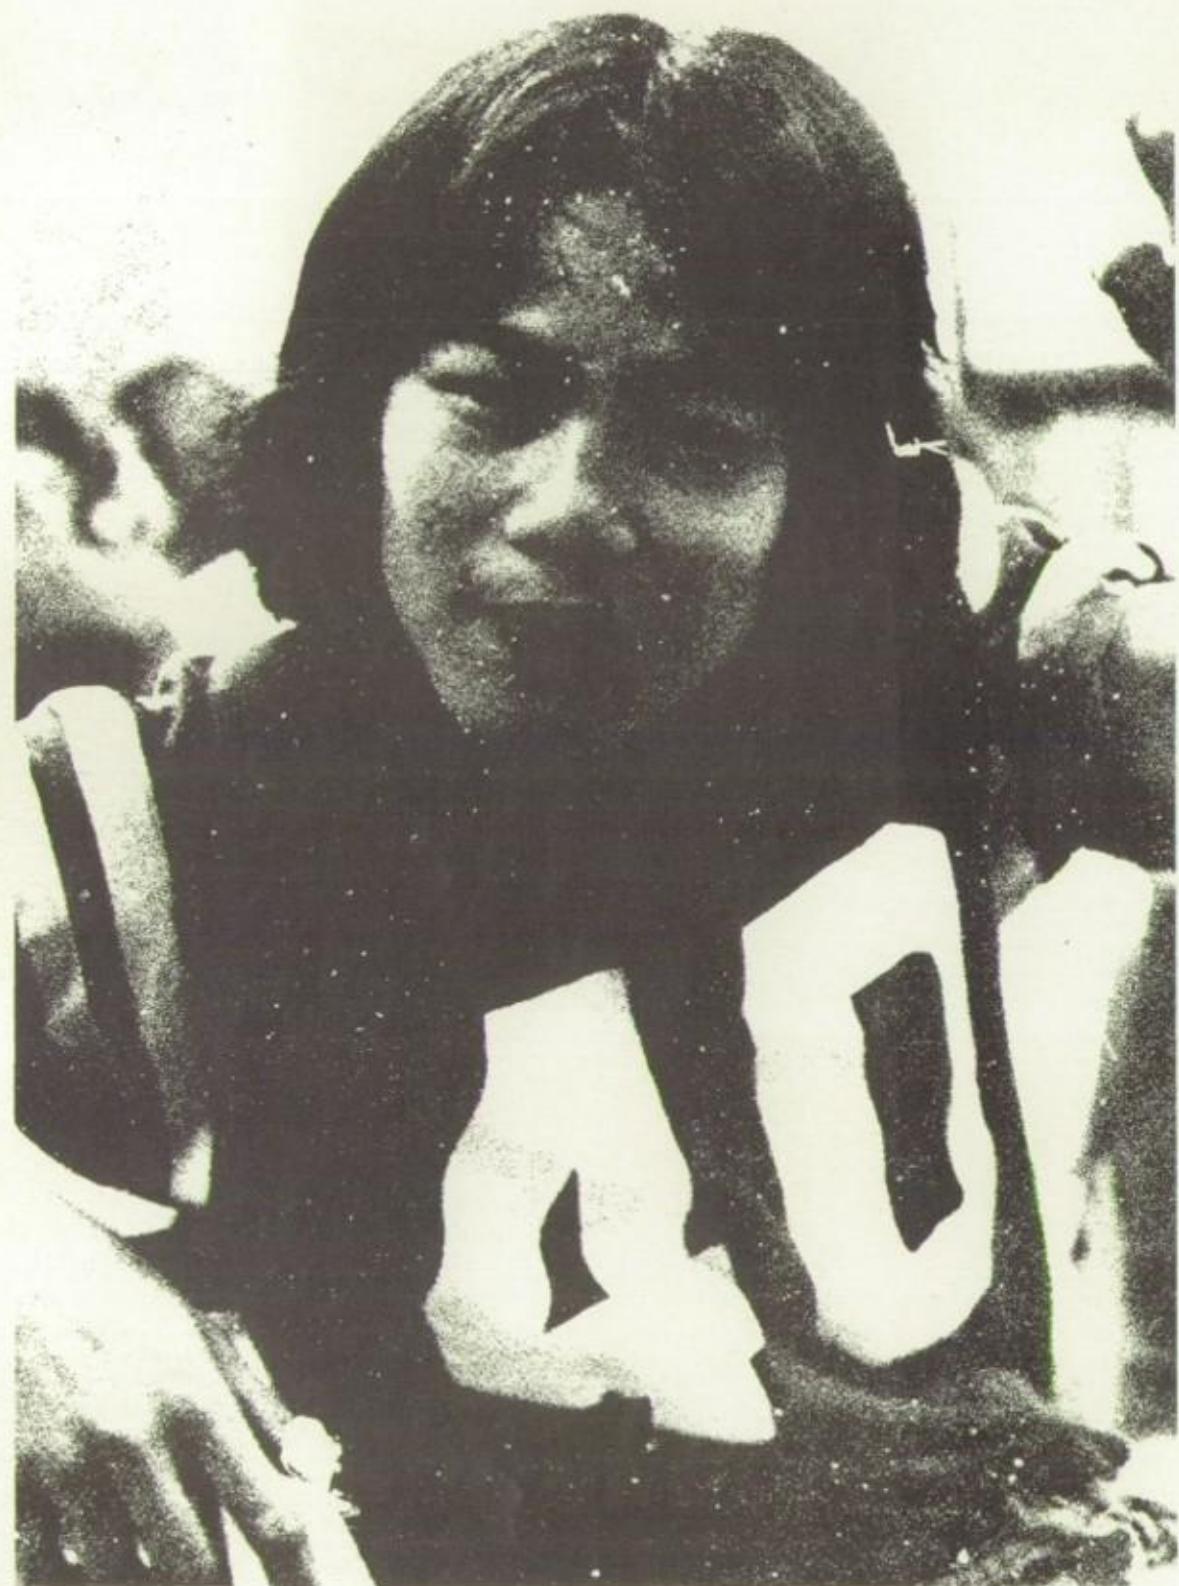

Well, that's about it. You now hold the "Warrior VII, 1976 - the end result of much effort, the accumulation of a year's work, the product of the labors of innumerable people. We had a ball producing it. We hope you enjoy it.

Bev Edwards (editor)
Rhonda Coley (assistant editor)
Shayna Taswell (business manager)
Owen Ragland (sports editor)
Julie Barnes, Randy Davis,
Linda Frazier, Nelson Lancaster,
Chris Lee, Kay Overton,
Pat Reboli, Betsey Sahlman (staff members)

P.S. Thanks to Mike Tyson for his sports caricatures.

IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America.

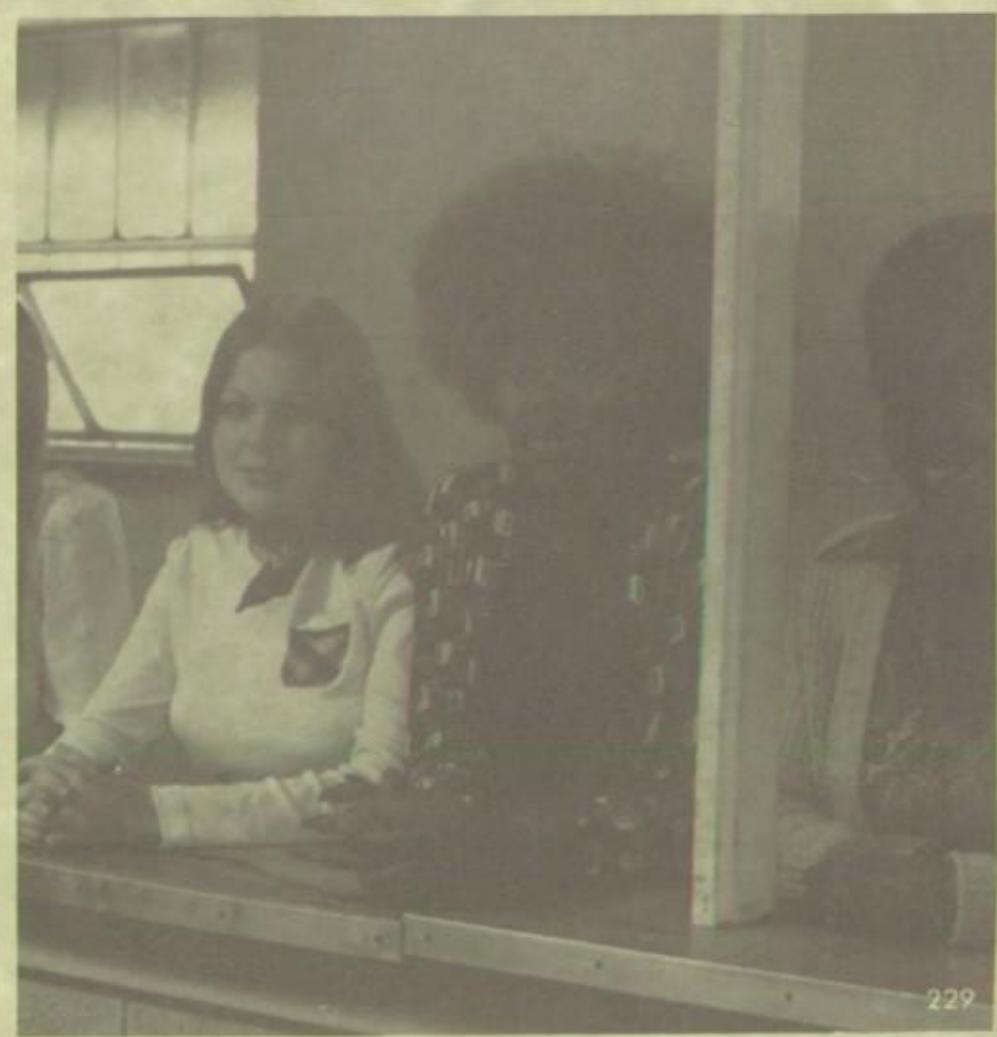

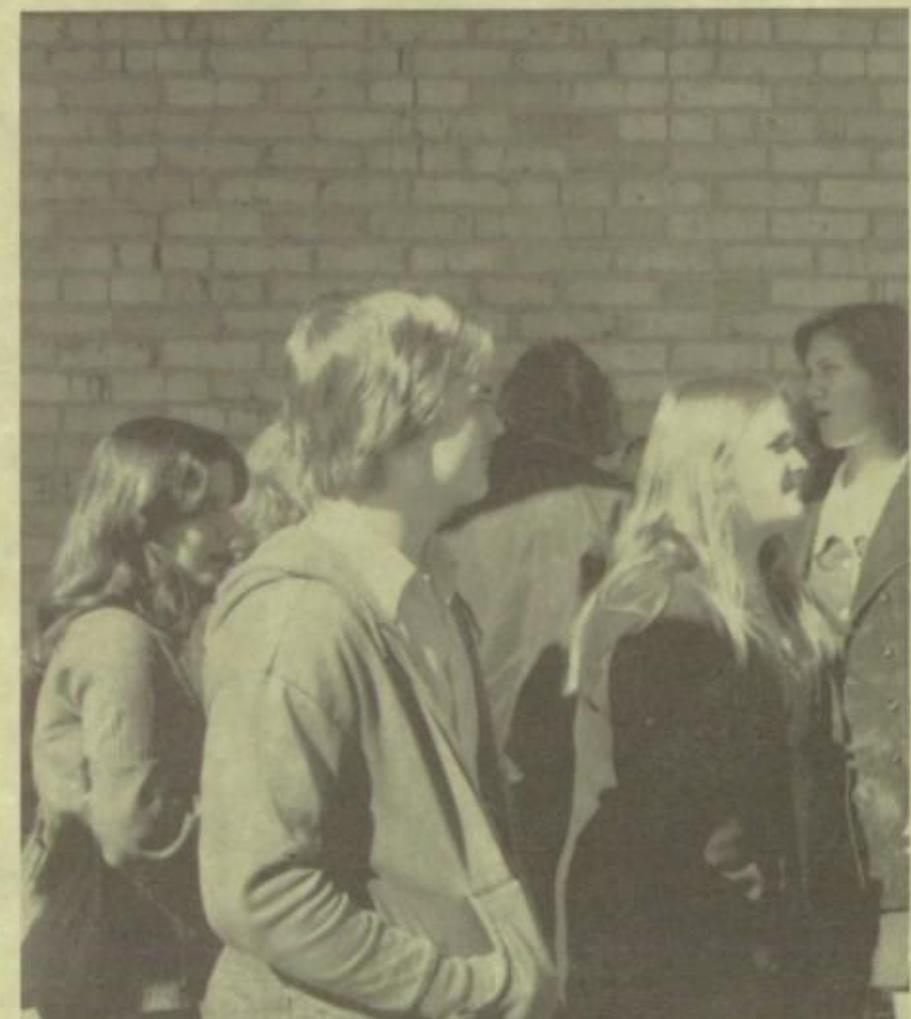

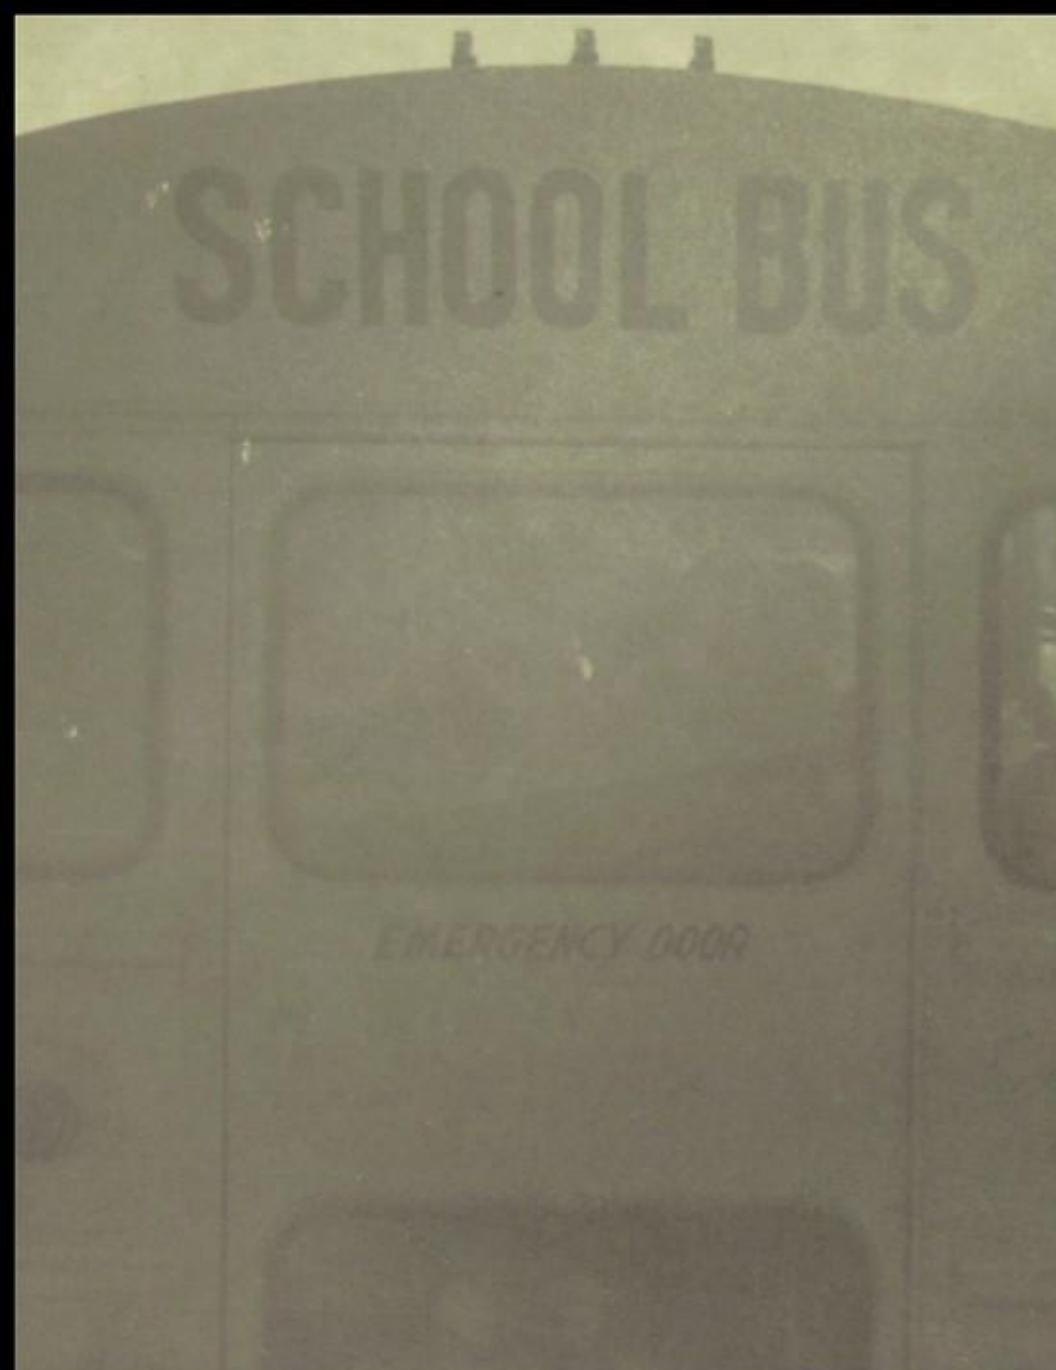

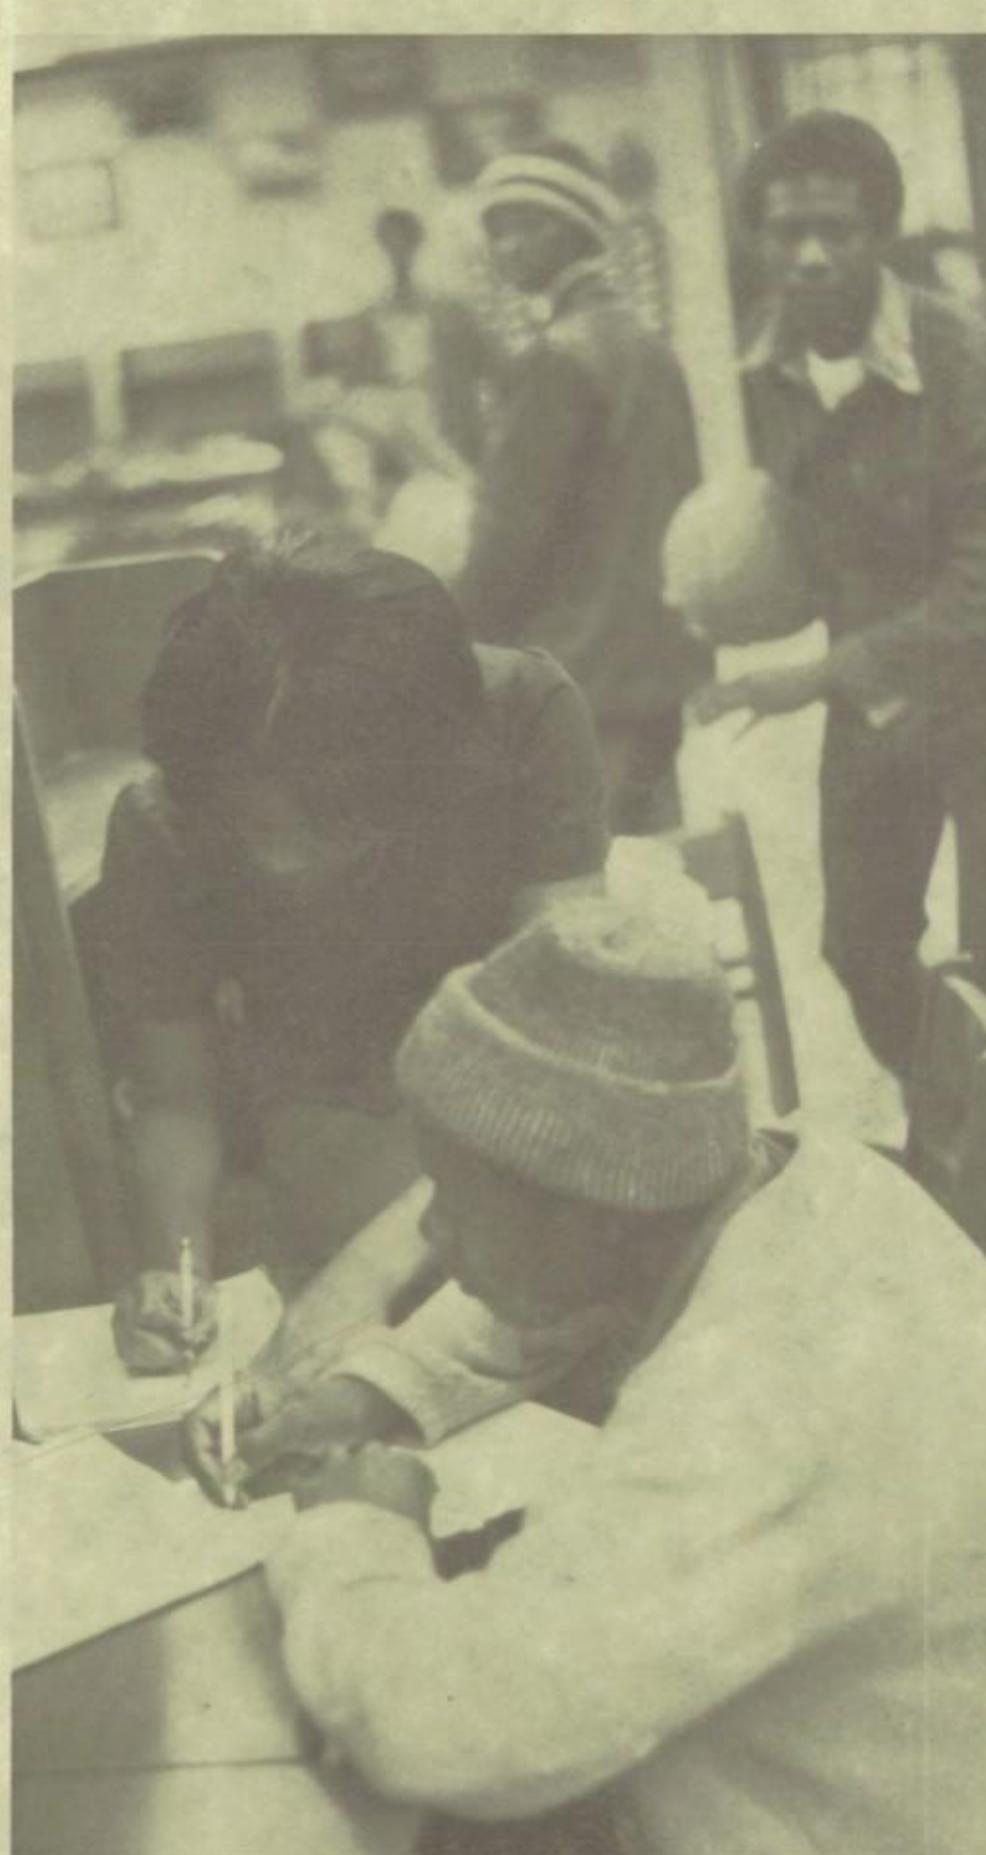

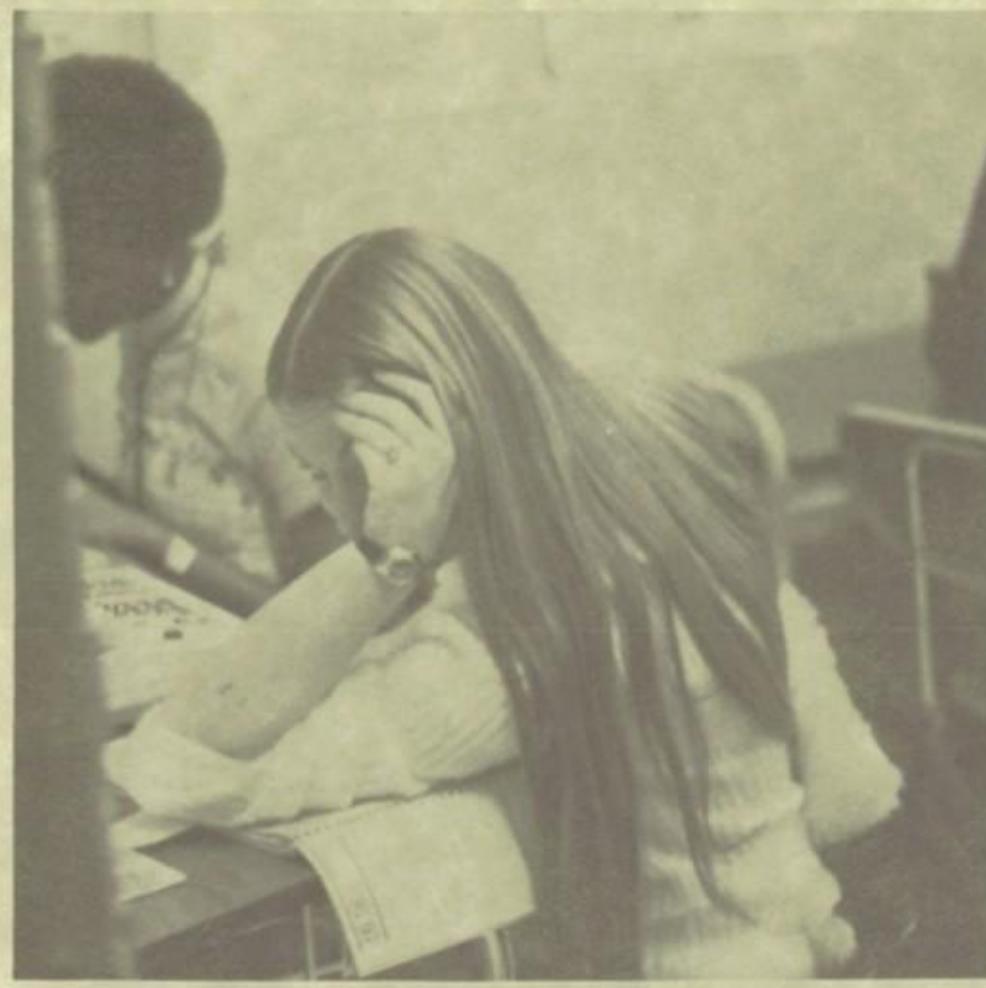

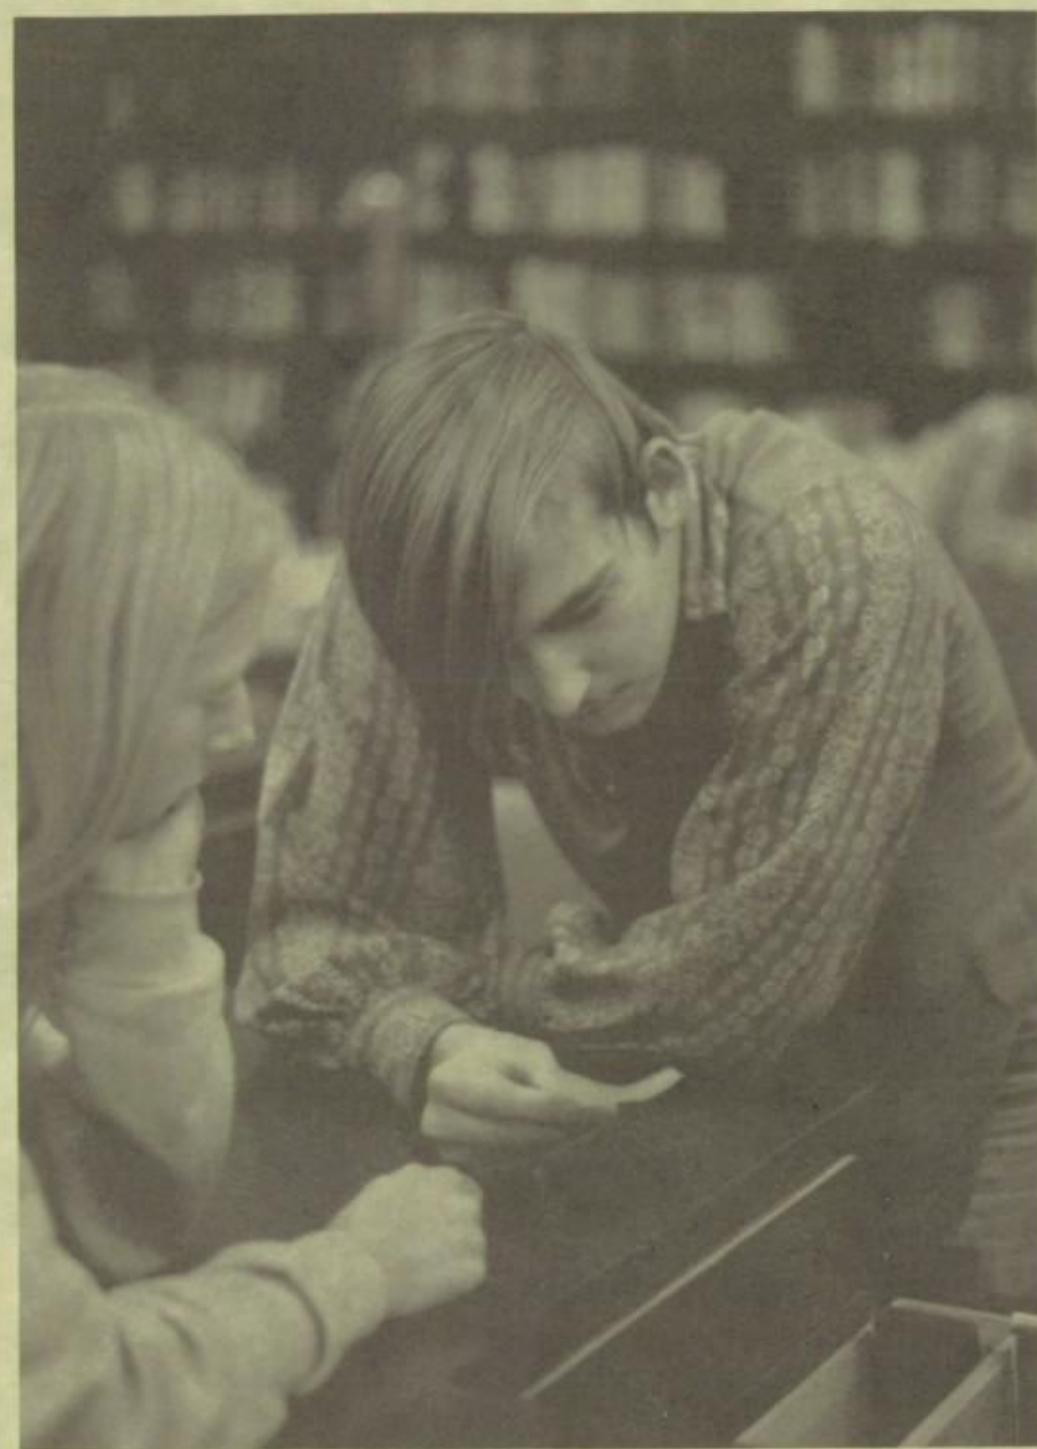

"Looking Back"

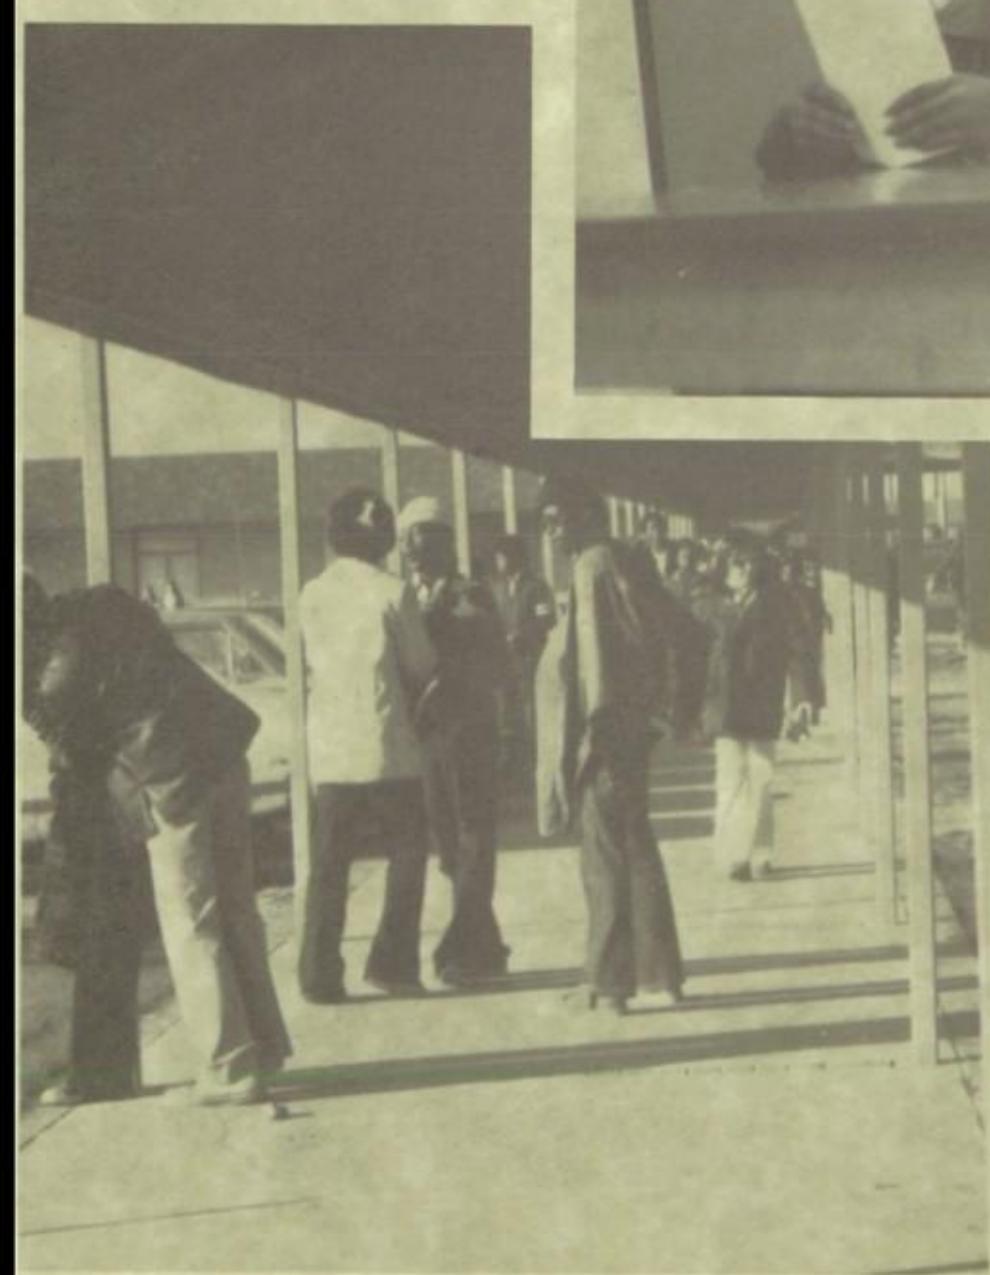

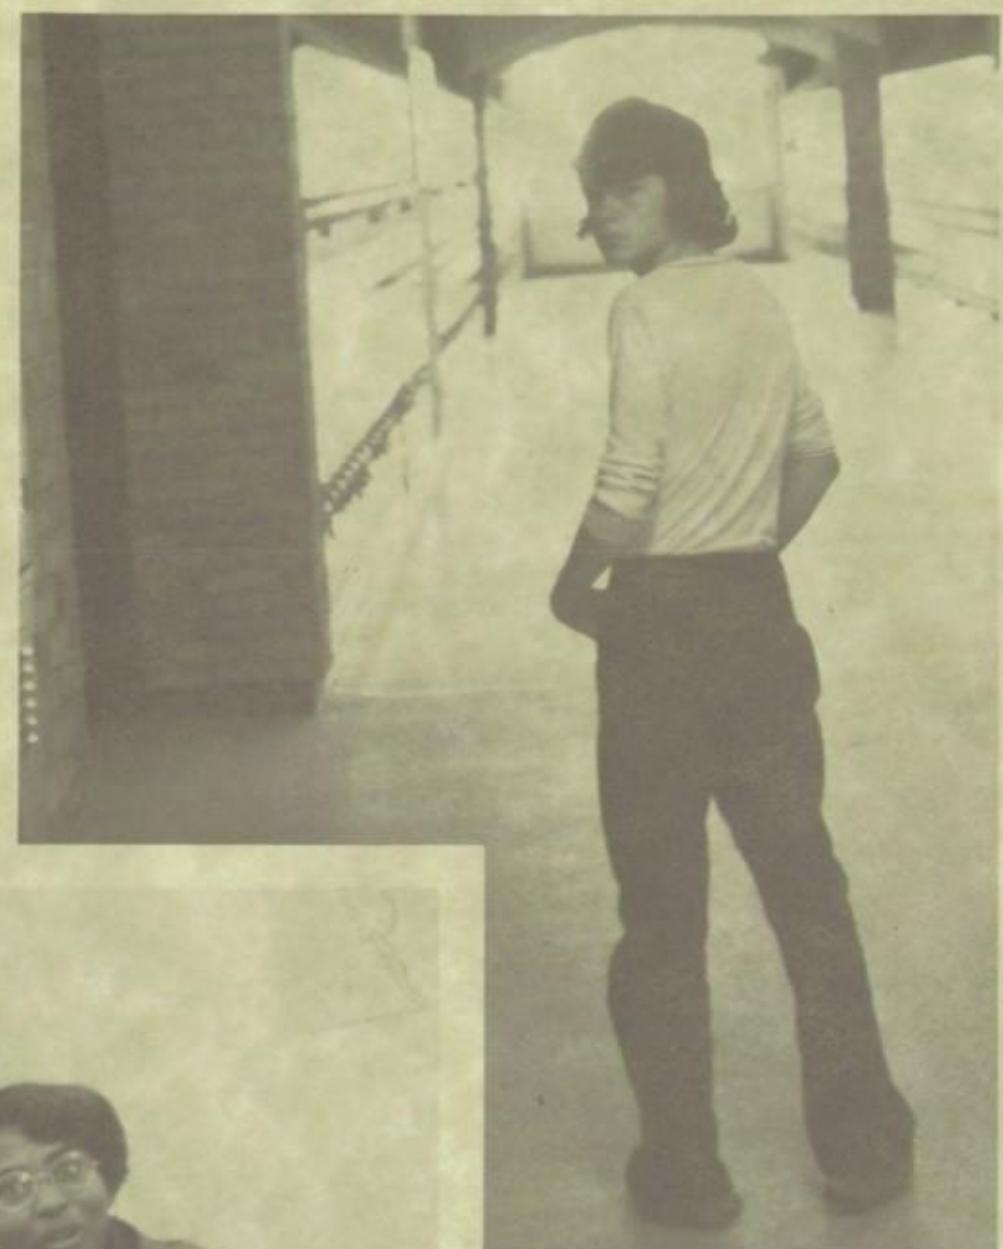

Saying Goodbye,
We recall . . .
Rainy days and grey skys,
Halls filled with slow-shuffling feet
and laughter,
Long lectures and laborious drudgery,
The sounds of slamming lockers
and clanging bells,
The initial shock of discovering what "amphiprotic"
means,
Long, tedious lunch-line waits
and frenetic pep rallies,
But most of all,
Friendship and friends . . .

I stand at the threshold of a new day,
and find it reassuring
to say
That through this book
the faces I see are always near - preserved eternally.

Pass This Way

We Celebrate the Past
in the spirit of seventy-six

There was an enormous force which strengthened the colonies, which exists today, and which has carried America through its great history. That force is known to us all to be the "Spirit of '76."

What was that spirit — and indeed what is that spirit?

It is a SPIRIT OF LIBERTY and the knowledge that one man's freedom is more important than anything else on earth.

the UNITED STATES of AMERICA

It is the SPIRIT OF SACRIFICE — of sharing burdens and conflicts.

It is the SPIRIT OF OPTIMISM of knowing that we can always make things better — of working only for the best, and expecting only the best.

The inimitable Declaration of the thirteen united States of America.

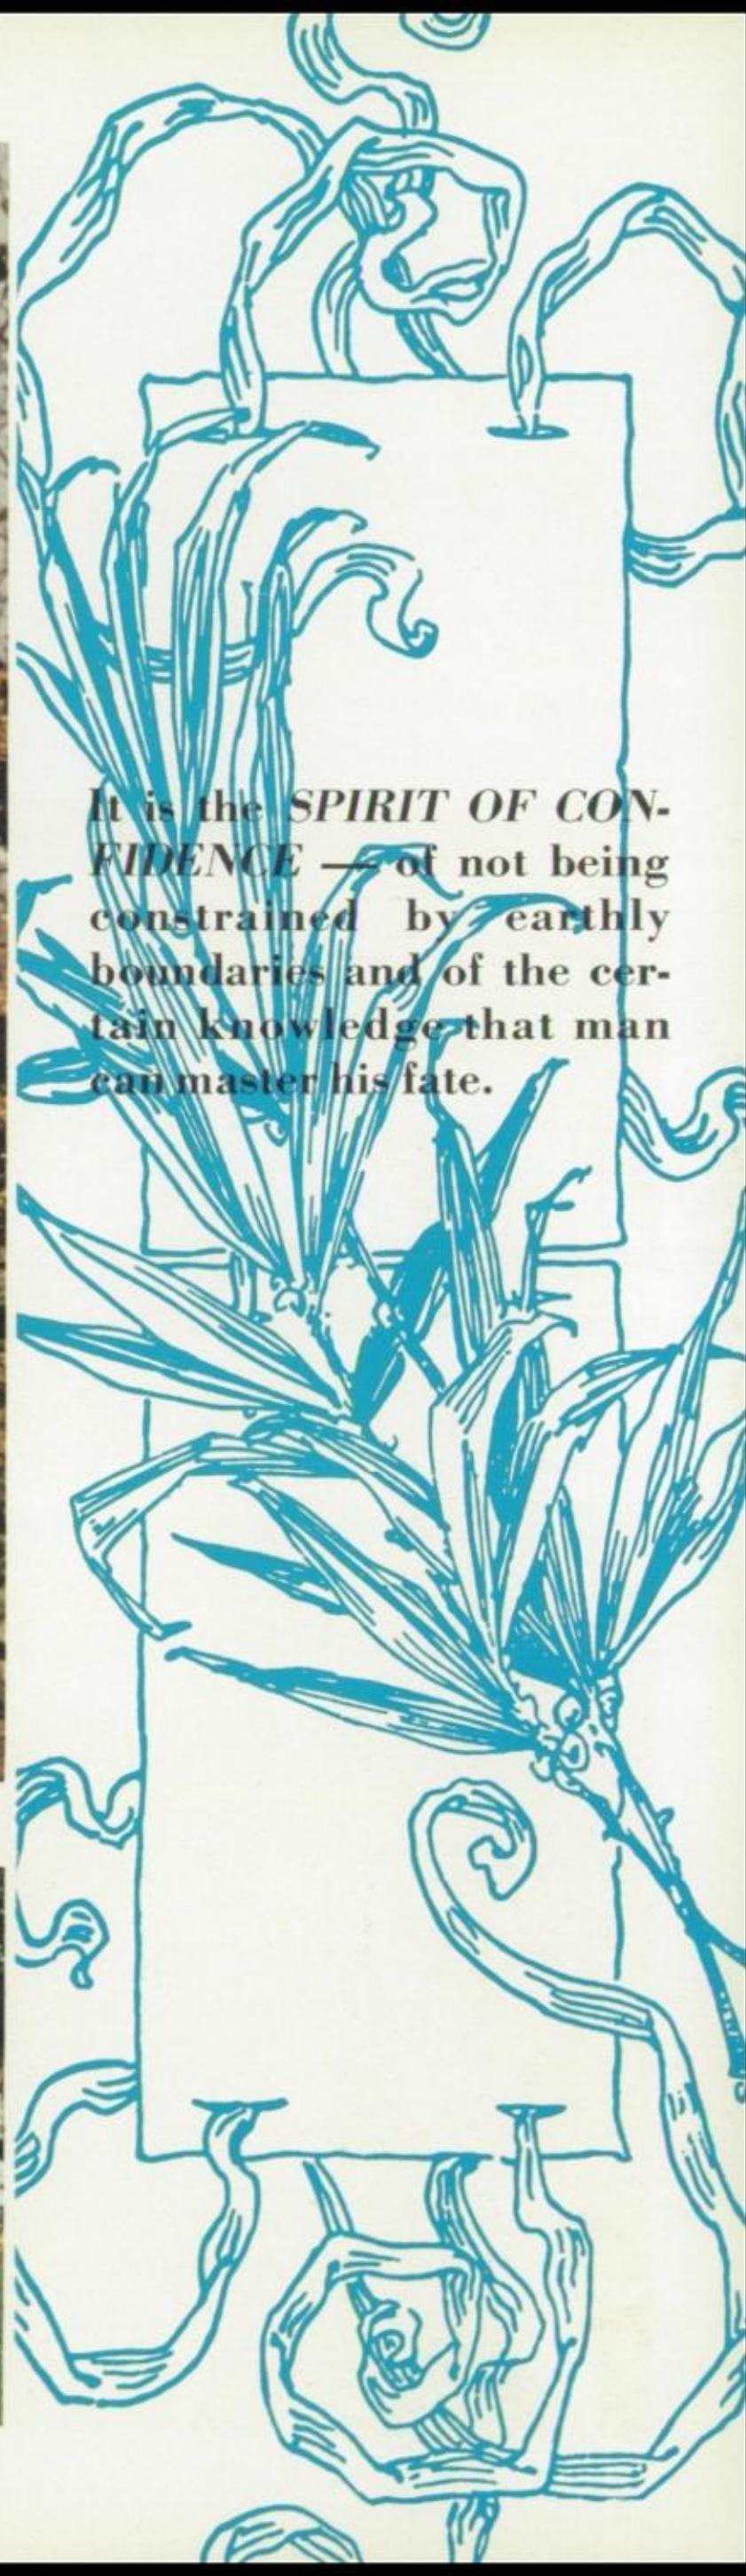

When in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for a people to abolish the political bonds which have connected them with another, and to declare the rights which entitle them to a separate and independent existence. We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, and among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. That whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or abolish it, and to institute a new government, laying its foundation in such principles, and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them to absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such a government, and to provide for their safety and happiness. It is the SPIRIT OF CONFIDENCE — of not being constrained by earthly boundaries and of the certain knowledge that man can master his fate.

It is the SPIRIT OF FRONTIER — of not fearing to go where man has not reached.

It is the SPIRIT OF DIVERSITY
— of allowing every man his own view and his distinctive ways and of tolerating the differences of the society.

It is the SPIRIT OF INDIVIDUALISM
— acknowledging a birthright of opportunity and freedom drawn from the strength of our fathers.

Indeed the "SPIRIT OF '76" was, and is, many things, each of which has been a building block of our national greatness.

Our country grew on that spirit and prospered on that spirit.

When all else fails
it is that spirit that will be there to guide us and keep us strong.
